Cattle and People Catarina Ginja,Elizabeth Wright,2022-05-01 This volume originates in a conference session that took place at the 2018 International Council of Archaeozoology conference in Ankara Turkey entitled Humans and Cattle Interdisciplinary Perspectives to an Ancient Relationship The aim of the session was to bring together zooarchaeologists and their colleagues from various other research fields working on human cattle interactions over time The contributions in this volume reflect well the breadth of work being undertaken on the ancient relationship between humans and cattle across the continents of Europe Africa and Asia and from the late Pleistocene to postmedieval period Almost all involve the study of archaeological cattle remains and use different zooarchaeological methods but the combination of these approaches with that of ethnography isotopes and genetics is also featured Author Interview State Formations John L. Brooke,Julia C. Strauss,Greg Anderson,2018-03-29 Featuring a sweeping array of essays from scholars of state formation and development this book presents an overview of approaches to studying the history of the state Focusing on the question of state formation this volume takes a particular look at the beginnings structures and constant reforming of state power Not only do the contributors draw upon both modernist and postmodernist theoretical perspectives they also address the topic from a global standpoint examining states from all areas of the world In their diverse and thorough exploration of state building the authors cross the theoretical geographic and chronological boundaries that traditionally shape this field in order to rethink the customary macro and micro approaches to the study of state building and make the case for global histories of both pre
