Michael Lee Lanning, 1998-07-29 The American sniper could be regarded as the greatest all around rifleman the world has ever known At the start of the war in Vietnam the United States had no snipers by the end of the war Marine and army precision marksmen had killed more than 10 000 NVA and VC soldiers the equivalent of an entire division at the cost of under 20 000 bullets proving that long range shooters still had a place in the battlefield Now noted military historian Michael Lee Lanning shows how U S snipers in Vietnam combining modern technology in weapons ammunition and telescopes used the experience and traditions of centuries of expert shooters to perfect their craft To provide insight into the use of American snipers in Vietnam Lanning interviewed men with combat trigger time as well as their instructors the founders of the Marine and U S Army sniper programs and the generals to whom they reported Backed by hard information and firsthand accounts the author demonstrates how the skills these one shot killers honed in the jungles of Vietnam provided an indelible legacy that helped save American lives in Grenada the Gulf War and Somalia and continues to this day with American troops in Bosnia Dead Center Ed Kugler, 1999-05-29 WHEN YOU'RE IN THE DEATH BUSINESS EACH DAWN COULD BE YOUR LAST Raw straightforward and powerful Ed Kugler's account of his two years as a Marine scout sniper in Vietnam vividly captures his experiences there the good the bad and the ugly After enlisting in the Marines at seventeen then being wounded in Santo Domingo during the Dominican crisis Kugler arrived in Vietnam in early 1966 As a new sniper with the 4th Marines Kugler picked up bush skills while attached to 3d Force Recon Company and then joined the grunts To take advantage of that experience he formed the Rogues a five sniper team that hunted in the Co Bi Than Tan Valley for VC and NVA His descriptions of long tense waits sudden deadly action and NVA countersniper ambushes are fascinating In DEAD CENTER Kugler demonstrates the importance to a sniper of patience marksmanship bush skills and guts while underscoring exactly what a country demands of its youth when it sends them to war

Dear Mom Joseph T. Ward,1991-08-31 In Vietnam s jungle war only one group of men was feared more than death itself the Marine Scout Snipers The U S Marine Scout Snipers were among the most highly trained soldiers in Vietnam With their unparalleled skill freedom of movement and deadly accurate long range Remington 700 bolt rifles the Scout Snipers were sought after by every Marine unit and so feared by the enemy that the VC bounty on the Scout Snipers was higher than on any other elite American unit Joseph Ward s letters home reveal a side of war seldom seen Whether under nightly mortar attack in An Hoa with a Marine company in the bullet scarred jungle on secret missions to Laos or on dangerous two man hunter kills Ward lived the war in a way few men did And he fought the enemy as few men did up close and personal

Shooter Sgt. Jack Coughlin,Casey Kuhlman,Donald A. Davis,2007-04-01 The phenomenal New York Times bestseller Shooter captures a professional sniper s life both on the battlefield where he has racked up more than 60 confirmed kills and off Jack Coughlin is the Marine Corps top ranked sniper the man who personally brings America s military muscle to the enemy s front door In twenty years of active service he has accumulated one of the most impressive records in the Corps ranging through many of the world s hot spots During Operation Iraqi Freedom alone he recorded at least thirty six kills thirteen of them in a single twenty four hour period In Shooter Coughlin has written a highly personal story about his deadly craft taking readers deep inside an invisible society that is off limits to outsiders This is not a heroic battlefield memoir but the careful study of an exceptional man as he carries forward one of the deadliest legacies in the U S military

Crosshairs on the Kill Zone Charles W. Sasser,Craig Roberts,2004-07-01 From the jungles of Vietnam to the unforgiving deserts of Afghanistan and Iraq one breed of soldier has achieved legendary status in the arena of combat the sniper From the authors of the classic sniper chronicle One Shot One Kill comes a new generation of true tales from some of the most expert and deadly marksmen in the world Meet Adelbert Waldron II whose 109 confirmed kills in Vietnam made him the most successful sniper in American military history and Tom Moose Ferran who coined the term Fetch whereupon the infantry would retrieve the sniper s dead quarry Also included are stories from snipers in Beirut the Bosnian conflict and both wars with Iraq including the feat of Sergeants Joshua Hamblin and Owen Mulder who took down thirty two enemy soldiers in a single day outside Baghdad in 2003 The military sniper has evolved into one of the most dangerous and highly skilled warrior professions They suffer through weather terrain and enemy action lay unmoving for days on end and take out their targets with unerring accuracy proving that the deadliest weapon in any battle anywhere in the world is a single well aimed shot

Carlos Hathcock - Vietnam's Most Wanted Sniper Edgar Wollstone, Carlos Hathcock the man known to many in the US as the deadliest American sniper indomitable and fearsome an indispensable asset during the Vietnam War is a soft spoken and gentle family man to his folks The man dressed in the green

marine uniform flaunted a white feather on his hat a sheer badassery making open ribaldry of the enemy forces and daring them to spot him amidst the green patina of rice fields in Southern Vietnam This habit of Carlos had earned him the moniker White Feather As was common during war the enemy had placed a few thousand dollars bounty on many US snipers But Carlos notoriety and badassery was so famed and feared among the enemies that they placed a whopping 30 000 dollar bounty on his head With 93 confirmed kills and over 300 unconfirmed Carlos had sealed his place among the world s deadliest snipers Crawling his way to the den of his target waiting in the prowl embracing the stillness of the dead pulling his trigger with immaculate precision and returning his way to his tent on the hilltop undetected with such finesse and expertise that Carlos makes it all look effortless But knowing the nuanced details of his painfully sluggish mode of transport that would take at least days before he worms his way through the swampy and muddy rice fields during day and night one cannot stop to think what a harrowing experience it would have been Carlos himself was homesick and lonely but that didn t dent his resolve to butcher the men who had no qualms in firing away at his fellow marines The lonely nights that Carlos spends ruminating on his bunker on the hilltop listening to the wind howling through every chink on the makeshift roof he was reminded of his grandma s cottage in the countryside in Arkansas How lovely and boisterous had those days been Carlos was nostalgic and his heart had doddered off to a place of remove It happens often on nights like these This is a riveting tale of an US marine who was enamored by his profession lived and died completely surrendering to the sport of sniping His tale of scaling great heights and eventually losing it all is equally inspiring and heart breaking The Court-Martial of Corporal Nutting John R. Nutting,2014-11-18 John Nutting is nineteen years old in 1966 Raised in small town Idaho to a family that could trace its military roots back to the Revolutionary War Nutting knows he s going to fight the war as a Marine On the day of his high school graduation he swears into the US Marine Corps and boards the plane to boot camp All too soon he s in the jungle a greenhorn member of F Company 2nd Battalion 3rd Marine Division Firing on an unseen enemy burying friends killed by booby traps and struggling with the notion that many people back home were totally opposed to the war Nutting begins to wonder what are his odds of coming home During a rescue mission gone wrong a mortar round explodes beside his team digging shrapnel deep into his leg Aboard the surgical hospital ship where he is sent to recover he sees the indescribable injuries of Marines who had been captured and tortured by the North Vietnamese Army and makes the decision to join the 3rd Marine Regimental Scout Snipers at Camp Carroll After the locals betray the scout snipers assigned to help their village resulting in the death of two of Nutting s buddies Nutting finds an escape to sanity in marijuana This begins his continuous recourse to the drug that lasts throughout his tour done only in the bunker or when away on R R never in the field and never on duty Despite his proven record when he is caught in possession of marijuana his arrest and the ensuing court martial changed his life and his reputation forever Vietnam, the Making of a Sniper Jerry Melvin Mitchem,2010 No other single force in Vietnam put as much fear into the hearts of the enemy nor gained his respect more then the American snipers

This is a story about one such Marine sniper team in 1964 65 Delta Two Foxtrot who helped blaze the trail gave their best who hunted the enemy in its own back yard took out assigned targets without the Viet Cong knowing they were present Who was feared hated and yet respected by the Viet Cong The sniper team was hunted and chased for days and used every trick they knew to get back to base alive Some teams made it back and still some brave heroes didn't Semper Paratus Silent Warrior Charles Henderson, 2005 Goodnight Saigon Charles Henderson, 2008-09-02 The true story of the final days of the Vietnam War from the author of Marine Sniper Culled from extensive interviews and research Goodnight Saigon is the achingly dramatic story of the end of the Vietnam War as told from both sides of the conflict Included are never before revealed accounts from people of every level involved in the war NVA and Viet Cong soldiers U S embassy personnel guerilla commanders civilians generals double agents and leaders from both sides including former president Gerald Ford and North Vietnamese military commander General Tran Van Tra From the first hints of the final offensive from the north to the gut wrenching hours before the fall of Saigon when a brave pilot defied his orders to return to base and rescued the last five Marines from the rooftop of the U S embassy Goodnight Saigon is an unforgettable narrative of war and those who live with its aftermath Winner American Society of Journalists and Authors Outstanding Book Award General Nonfiction 2006

Jungle Rules Charles Henderson, 2007-10-02 From the author of the military classics Marine Sniper and Silent Warrior comes the riveting tale of a dramatic military trial and a war within a war where the fight is not for victory but survival In Vietnam there's the way things are supposed to be done and the way they actually get done Playing by Jungle Rules the U S military tries to keep control of whatever situation arises often allowing convenience to outweigh justice This is the battlefield Captain Terry O Connor of the JAG Corps is stepping onto and the battle is about to start with a murder After a long day in the boonies Private Celestine Anderson returned to base only to come under fire from a group of racist white marines He apparently snapped and buried his field axe in the skull of one of his tormentors The inexperienced O Connor has been assigned to defend him in a trial that seems to begin as an open and shut case but ends up pulling O Connor into the heart of the Vietnam conflict where bullets overrule books and death is the final judge This recounting of a true story of brutality and justice continues Charles Henderson's tradition of bringing readers into the heart of the American experience in Vietnam Point of Aim, Point of Impact Jay Taylor, 2009 Point of Aim Point of Impact Is one man's recollection of his

Vietnam experience That young man was a Marine Corps Scout Sniper and the book addresses many issues of the Scout Snipers and Vietnam Veterans both during the war and present day It is not a book that glorifies war or weaves a Hollywood script around lies and half truths In telling the story of one young Marine Sniper it attempts to deal with the real issues which evolved from the traumatic experiences of killing people and watching friends being maimed and killed Point of Aim Point of Impact is a must read for all Veterans From WWII to today's returning warriors as well as their family and friends

Marine Sniper Charles Henderson, 1988 Profiles Marine Carlos Hathcock an ace marksman whose missions during the Vietnam War included assassinating a North Vietnamese
