Fabricating Authenticity in Soviet Hungary Péter Apor, 2015-03-01 This book explores the memory of the First Hungarian Soviet Republic of 1919 which proved crucial for communist Hungarian political culture in the twentieth century Apor approaches the topic in an innovative way focusing on the understudied aspects of European memory cultures Offering great insights on how a dictatorship remembers and the concept of authenticity Apor's study integrates the broad range of processes through which history is sought to be rendered authentic The volume successfully reveals the crooked history of the retrospective revisions of the iconic First Republic between the years of its 30th and 40th anniversary 1949 and 1959

The Hungarian Revolution of 1956 György Litván, János M. Benziger, 2008-04-28 Imre Nagy is a compelling figure both in life and in death_ one whose actions stimulated consequences in Hungary that continue into the present Providing a summary review of Hungarian Cold War history Benziger examines the ways in which the memory of the martyred prime minister and the story of the 1956 Revolution influenced political socialization in Hungary The book begins with Nagy's 1989 funeral and the role memorialization played in the politics of transition continuing with a review of the important personages and events that informed Nagy's life and afterlife and it concludes in the tumultuous politics following the establishment of the Republic in 1989 Readers interested in Central and Eastern Europe will find this book useful as it expands the literature on history and memory and transition politics in the region International Law and the Use of Armed Force Joel Westra, 2007-04-11 Since the UN Charter came into effect in 1945 there have been numerous incidents in which one or more of the five major powers at least arguably violated the Charter's Article 2 4 prohibition of force Such incidents notwithstanding this book demonstrates how the Charter restrains the major powers military actions As an instrument of international order the Charter provides a framework of legal rules restricting the use of armed force Although these rules are subject to auto interpretation by the major powers as a consequence of their veto they create an expectation of compliance that subjects the major powers military actions to international scrutiny To reduce the likelihood of resistance from states threatened by such actions major powers exercise prudential restraint altering the manner and timing of their military actions in accordance with the legal arguments offered to justify those actions as consistent with the Charter and therefore not threatening to the existing international order The book evaluates the efficacy of the Charter using large N methods and five case studies US intervention in the Caribbean 1953 61 Anglo French intervention in Egypt 1956 Soviet intervention in Hungary 1956 US British intervention in Iraq 1990 98 and

US British intervention in Iraq 1999 2003 The book's extensive focus on the two Iraq cases provides a basis for timely evaluation of the continuing salience and possible reforms of the UN Charter system This book will be of much interest to students of security studies the UN international law and international relations Remember Hungary, 1956 Tibor Glant, 2007 Consisting of five essays examining the American portrayal of the Hungarian Revolution of 1956 this title examines depictions in the New York Times history textbooks fiction prose art and memoirs of diplomats C.D.
