Harry Glasbeek, 2024 In a series of illuminating essays the renowned Harry Glasbeek unpacks how law has been used to ensure that workers aspirations are kept in check Law at Work uncovers how the legal system through its structures and mechanisms legitimizes and reinforces the exploitation of workers Using historic and contemporary examples Glasbeek illustrates how conscious manipulations of law are part and parcel of how law protects capitalists at the expense of workers He proves how the very laws designed to safeguard rights and freedoms often act as invisible shackles compelling readers to reflect on their own struggles as they navigate a world where the legal system fails to serve their interests These manipulations are made to look innocent because the underlying structures and ideology which give rise to specific rules are not challenged or challengeable This thought provoking book is an indispensable resource for those seeking to understand the hidden dynamics of worker oppression empowering readers to question prevailing narratives and envision a future where the law truly serves the interests of all

Older People, Ageing and Social Work Karen Heycox, 2020-07-23 Essential reading for practitioners educators and researchers within the general field of social work with older people From the foreword by Mark Lymbery Associate Professor of Social Work University of Nottingham The reality of our ageing population means all social workers need to be confident in working with older people Social workers are engaged in ongoing practice with older people in a variety of contexts from hospitals aged care assessment teams and mental health services to employment services housing services and rehabilitation services Older People Ageing and Social Work draws on theoretical research policy and practice knowledge to inform contemporary practice with older people Hughes and Heycox demonstrate that high level professional skills are required in this area as well as detailed knowledge of the issues affecting older people s lives They argue that practitioners need to take into account the social and emotional needs of the older people they work with as well as the practical and administrative aspects of their roles They emphasise understanding the diversity of the older population and enabling older people to make the most of their strengths and capacities
