1st to Die: Women's Murder Club Series Book# 1 James Patterson, 2001

First to Die Bryan Elson, 2010-07-23 This is a story drawn from the early days of the Canadian Navy an account of four young Canadian seamen who were the Navy's first casualties at the beginning of the First World War Ironically many consider them victims of incompetent seamanship by a British naval officer The four were among the 21 young men who made up the first class of the Royal Navy College of Canada set up in 1911 shortly after the Canadian Navy itself was established in 1910 All four sailors were from Canada's Maritime provinces After their training at the College they were posted to the British Navy for further experience at sea William Palmer first in his graduating class and Arthur Silver senior Cadet Captain both from Halifax were personally chosen by Rear Admiral Christopher Cradock to go to war on the large and powerful British vessel Good Hope Their comrades John Hatheway of Fredericton and Malcolm Cann of Yarmouth were also selected to the disappointment of the remaining men Within six weeks these our much envied comrades were dead as the Good Hope went down with no survivors sunk by the German navy First to Die depicts the early history of Canada's navy and the reality of war at sea experienced through the eyes of the four young midshipmen eager for adventure The book is extensively illustrated with photographs drawn from key archival and private collections

Insurance Activities of Banks Karol K. Sparks, 2011-12-19 As more and more banking organizations enter the insurance business the line between banks and insurance agencies has virtually disappeared in practice and in the eyes of federal and state legislators The need has never been greater for a clear guide that explains the legal and regulatory limits placed on banks involved in insurance sales activities Insurance Activities of Banks Second Edition provides authoritative coverage of insurance products now offered by banks plus the latest judicial and legislative developments including the landmark Gramm Leach Bliley Act that affect their activities It presents in clear detail on such vital topics as The many types of insurance activities now being handled by banks including retail sales of insurance and underwriting risk Major state insurance regulatory issues and how banks are affected State banks national banks and thrifts and the insurance activities permissible for each type of institution The various organization structures such as bank holding companies financial holding companies financial subsidiaries and how to choose the right entity for conducting insurance activities Offshore insurance activities
