South Asian Digital Humanities Roopika Risam,Rahul K. Gairola,2020-09-10 The digital cultural record has a powerful role to play in both new and future strategies of creating new homes within the digital milieu For example the development and establishment of new digital archives around South Asian studies not only allows us to create new archives of the past but also to remember and commemorate the past differently New maps transform how we understand space and place And new digital comfort zones facilitate connections for those whose family and loved ones are only accessible online Such interventions are essential to the recuperation of the integrity and soul of a people who have lived through and continue to shoulder the fraught and painful legacies of the British Empire and the communal bloodshed wrought by its demise Building on the important history of digital humanities scholarship in South Asia and its diasporas that precedes this work this book contends that South Asian studies is further positioned to offer a new genealogy of digital humanities demonstrated through this assemblage of essays that reveal how the digital continues to shape notions of home belonging nation identity memory and diaspora through a variety of humanistic methodologies and digital techniques South Asian Digital Humanities thus demonstrates that postcolonial digital humanities has great possibility for creating some of the most important social justice scholarship in South Asian studies of the past century It offers these essays as innovative interventions that complicate the digital cultural record while lodging a homelanding for South Asians within it positioning digital humanities as a method through which South Asian studies can strategically participate in the ongoing struggle for representation within digital knowledge production This book was originally published as a special issue of South Asian Review

Sheng Chege J. Githiora,2018 The city of Nairobi is a rich context for the study of sociolinguistic phenomena The coexistence of speakers of many different languages further differentiated by socio economic status age and ethnicity provide conditions for the development of a mixed code such as

Sheng an urban variety of Kenyan Swahili which has morphed from a youth language into a vernacular of wider use Sheng is a unique phenomenon in the study of linguistic change and innovation in an African context a reflection of the ethnolinguistic diversity of Kenya and language asymmetry created by socio economic disparities It also provides a window into understanding the processes of urban multilingualism within the specific space structuring of Nairobi city This book is a detailed account of the rise and development of Sheng its linguistic structure social functions and possible future directions The author s analysis of its presence in newspapers TV radio and online makes it clear that Sheng functions as a particularly useful lens through which to explore contemporary Kenya Chege Githiora is Professor of Linguistics African Languages and Literatures at the University of London s School of Oriental and African Studies SOAS and is author of Afro Mexicans Discourse of race and identity in the African Diaspora Cosmo-Modernism and Theater in India Aparna Bhargava Dharwadker,2025-08-05 Urban theater took shape in postindependence India as a large and complex field produced in more than sixteen major languages including Bengali Marathi Hindi Gujarati and Kannada The cosmopolitan engagement of leading playwrights with modernist and postcolonial literary movements around the world created distinctly new aesthetic and political approaches to Indian myth history and sociocultural experience which had become the most prominent subjects in modern Indian drama Yet even as critics and scholars of global modernism have increasingly turned their attention beyond North America and Europe they continue to focus on dominant world languages at the expense of multilingual cultures such as India s Despite their originality and significance modernist works written in Indian languages other than English remain neglected In Cosmo Modernism and Theater in India Aparna Bhargava Dharwadker develops a new framework for understanding non Anglophone Indian modernisms by recovering crucial theoretical concepts and using them to analyze the writing staging and reception of major plays in multiple languages She argues that the output of prominent mid to late twentieth century playwrights such as Dharamvir Bharati Mohan Rakesh Badal Sircar Vijay Tendulkar Girish Karnad and Habib Tanvir registers a decisive rupture from nineteenth century forms of colonial modernity In representing the ancient Indian past the postcolonial urban present and the rich repertoire of precolonial performance traditions these authors works became highly inventive expressions of modernist classicism realism and traditionalism Dharwadker shows how a decommercialized performance economy and the incessant activity of translation further enhanced modernist production and she connects Indian modernisms to regional national and transnational networks Offering bold new insights into the theory and practice of modernist drama this book delivers a radical remapping of global modernisms Mountain, Water, Rock, God Luke Whitmore,2018-11-27 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In Mountain Water Rock God Luke Whitmore situates the disastrous flooding that fell on the Hindu Himalayan shrine of Kedarnath in 2013 within a broader religious and ecological context Whitmore explores the longer story of this powerful realm of the Hindu god Shiva through a holistic theoretical perspective that integrates phenomenological and systems based approaches to the study of religion pilgrimage place and ecology He argues that close attention to places of religious significance offers a model for thinking through connections between ritual narrative climate destabilization tourism development and disaster and he shows how these critical components of human life in the twenty first century intersect in the human experience of place Concise Encyclopedia of Human Geography Loretta Lees,David Demeritt,2023-02-14 With 78 specially commissioned entries written by a diverse range of contributors this essential reference book covers the breadth and depth of human geography to provide a lively and accessible state of the art of the discipline for students instructors and researchers Religion and Development in Africa Ezra Chitando,Masiwa Ragies Gunda ,Lovemore Togarasei,2020-06-09 What is development Who defines that one community country is developed while another community country is under developed What is the relationship between religion and development Does religion contribute to development or underdevelopment in Africa These and related questions elicit quite charged reactions in African studies development studies political science and related fields Africa s own history including the memory of marginalisation slavery and exploitation by global powers ensures that virtually every discussion on development is characterised by a lot of emotions and conflicting views In this volume scholars from various African countries and many different religions and denominations contribute to this debate
