What the West is Getting Wrong about the Middle East Ömer Taspinar, 2020-09-17 The West's actions in the Middle East are based on a fundamental misunderstanding political Islam is repeatedly assumed to be the main cause of conflict and unrest in the region The idea that we can decipher Jihadist radicalization or problems in the Middle East simply by reading the Qur'an has now become symptomatic of our age This dangerous oversimplification and the West's obsession with Islam dominates media and policy analysis ultimately skewing intervention and preventing long term solutions and stability in the region mer Taspinar who has 20 years research and policymaking experience explains here

what is really going on in the Middle East The book is based on three of the most pressing cases currently under the spotlight the role of Erdogan and the unrest in Turkey the sectarian clashes in Iraq Syria Yemen and Lebanon and the existence of the so called Islamic State Islam is often seen as the root cause of the challenge associated with these cases But by unpacking the real issues such as entrenched authoritarianism vast energy resources excessive defense spending and the youth bulge the book demystifies what is happening and cites governance and nationalism as the main drivers of conflict The book shows the importance of treating the causes which are economic social and institutional rather than the symptom the continued and growing success of Islamist parties and jihadist movements in assessing the Middle East In revealing exactly how Islamism is activated and by analyzing the structural challenges of the region this unique insider s account provides a map to understanding Middle Eastern wars and conflicts and the prospects for the future

Islam and the Secular State Abdullahi Ahmed An-Na'im, 2010-03-30 What should be the place of Shari a Islamic religious law in predominantly Muslim societies of the world In this ambitious and topical book a Muslim scholar and human rights activist envisions a positive and sustainable role for Shari a based on a profound rethinking of the relationship between religion and the secular state in all societies An Na im argues that the coercive enforcement of Shari a by the state betrays the Qur an s insistence on voluntary acceptance of Islam Just as the state should be secure from the misuse of religious authority Shari a should be freed from the control of the state State policies or legislation must be based on civic reasons accessible to citizens of all religions Showing that throughout the history of Islam Islam and the state have normally been separate An Na im maintains that ideas of human rights and citizenship are more consistent with Islamic principles than with claims of a supposedly Islamic state to enforce Shari a In fact he suggests the very idea of an Islamic state is based on European ideas of state and law and not Shari a or the Islamic tradition Bold pragmatic and deeply rooted in Islamic history and theology Islam and the Secular State offers a workable future for the place of Shari a in Muslim societies
