Dis/figuring Sam Shepard Johan Callens, 2007 This illustrated volume covers the career of Sam Shepard the provocative American playwright scriptwriter actor and director through an introductory survey followed by in depth analyses of representative selections from the one acts Action States of Shock experimental collaborations with Joseph Chaikin Savage Love and by now classic family plays Buried Child A Lie of the Mind It ranges from Shepard's unpublished adaptation of Marlowe's Doctor Faustus through the textual variants and political context of Operation Sidewinder to Robert Altman's movie version of Fool for Love besides offering brief comparisons with fellow dramatists Albee and Beckett and visual artists Edward Weston Marsden Hartley Several performance analyses supplement the textual criticism and provide a sample of European directorial approaches Together these takes offer a composite picture of an artist whose output over the past forty years has turned him into a figurehead of twentieth century drama studied and produced all over the world with a keen eye for his idiosyncratic and critical view of what it means to be American

The Late Work of Sam Shepard Shannon Blake Skelton, 2016-04-21 Hailed by critics during the 1980s as the decade's Great American Playwright Sam Shepard continued to produce work in a wide array of media including short prose films plays performances and screenplays until his death in 2017 Like Samuel Beckett and Tennessee Williams in their autumnal years Shepard relentlessly pressed the potentialities and possibilities of theatre This is the first volume to consider Shepard's later work and career in detail and ranges across his work produced since the late 1980s Shepard's motion picture directorial debut Far North 1988 served as the beginning of a new cycle of work He returned to the stage with the politically engaged States of Shock 1991 which resembled neither his earlier plays nor his family cycle With both Far North and States of Shock Shepard signaled a transition into a phase in which he would experiment in form subject and media for the next two decades Skelton's comprehensive study includes consideration of his work in films such as Hamlet 2000 Black Hawk Down 2001 The Assassination of Jesse James by the Coward Robert Ford 2007 and Brothers 2009 issues of authenticity in the film and screenplay Don't Come Knocking 2005 and the play Kicking a Dead Horse 2007 of memory and trauma in Simpatico The Late Henry Moss and When the World was Green and of masculine and conservative narratives in States of Shock and The God of Hell Lauded by critics in his lifetime and since his death in July 2017 as one of the most important and influential writers of his generation NY Times Shepard excelled as an actor screenwriter playwright and director Guardian this is a timely and important assessment of his work spanning the last three decades of his life
