Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2000 First published in 2000 Dipesh Chakrabarty's influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non-Western countries. This imaginary Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty argues is built into the social sciences. The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space, secular time and sovereignty. Measured against such mythical standard, capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking. Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well as a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self-understandings of capitalist modernity. Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics, this book globalizes European thought by exploring how many it may be renewed both for and from the margins. From back cover Encyclopaedia of Indian Cinema Ashish Rajadhyaksha, Paul Willemen, 1994 Drawing on the work of a large team of specialists, this book contains 500 entries on all the leading directors, stars, studios and genres in Indian cinema. In addition to comprehensive filmographies, it also features 1450 entries on key films from all periods and regions with cast and credits as well as concise critical evaluations. A chronicle of film history together with basic production statistics and an index complete the volume.
