Detour My Bipolar Road Trip In 4 D:

Detour Lizzie Simon,2003-06-18 In the fall of 1999 23 year old Simon hit the road on a journey that took her across the United States Her inspired interviews with other young men and women suffering from manic depression comprise the heart and soul of this remarkable memoir Goodbye Mom George Staursky,2004-11 This book is not a biography about a man but rather it is about a Journey This is a Journey through life with this illness Bipolar Disorder and all the dynamics that go along with it This book shows how a man faced the consequences of this disease and all its pain bigotry and anguish but this journey also shows how he defeated the disease This is a book of his Journey through trauma tragedy and recovery This book is a riveting account of that journey It includes others who have suffered the indignities of this illness It brings to life an account of a story that could be written by many different people over time Destroying a life to save the same life could be construed by many as an oxymoron However in this case it fits the scenario perfectly As in the story of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde there had to be destruction of one s inner self to save everyone from the inner demons plaguing Dr Jekyll Manic Minds Lisa M. Hermsen,2011-11-22 From its first depictions in ancient medical literature to contemporary depictions in brain imaging mania has been largely associated with its Greek roots to rage Prior to the nineteenth century mania was used interchangeably with madness Although its meanings shifted over time the word remained layered with the type of madness first century writers described rage fury frenzy Even now the mental illness we know as bipolar disorder describes conditions of extreme irritability inflated grandiosity and excessive impulsivity Spanning several centuries Manic Minds traces the multiple ways in which the word mania has been used by popular medical and academic writers It reveals why the rhetorical history of the word is key to appreciating descriptions and meanings of the manic episode Lisa M Hermsen examines the way medical professionals analyzed the manic condition during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and offers the first in depth analysis of contemporary manic autobiographies bipolar figures who have written from within the illness itself The Bipolar Disorder Survival Guide David J. The Bipolar Relationship Jon

P Bloch, Bernard Golden, Nancy Rosenfeld, 2009-10-18 Bipolar is a condition that affects people's relationships with others as much as it affects their own mental state When one person in a couple is experiencing the extreme highs and lows of a disorder like this one it's impossible for their partner not to feel the strain too Reassuring yet realistic Dr Bloch Dr Golden and Nancy Rosenfeld explain what's normal what's not what might change and what definitely won't They provide information and advice on typical troubling relationship topics such as Communication Trust and loyalty Family planning Finances Sex Maintaining a sense of self By understanding the reality of bipolar and what it means for a relationship couples will relate to each other better today and plan for a successful future together tomorrow Bipolar Disorder Jennifer Landau,2013-12-15 The National Institute of Mental Health states that half of bipolar diagnoses occur before the age of twenty five so the teenage years are a prime time for first showing symptoms There are nearly six million people with bipolar disorder in the United States alone This book clearly explains the four main types of the disorder symptoms getting a diagnosis and dealing with it medications that are prescribed support systems lifestyle changes and strategies to keep calm self monitoring plans and ways to manage school family and social life Spin Between Never and Ever Shannon C. Flynn,2010-10-26 I hunched at my school desk seventeen and slipping into an abyss whose shadow I had barely glimpsed before My left hand shook with free associations in a spatter of words that galloped through my head and outside the margins of lined notebook paper Dark its so dark like it was night even though its 8 00 in the morning Warning Everythings going to fall fall apart my heart will break and take away everything my mind is fading fast fast vast emptiness oh help the universe is coming to get me I whirled and then faded dead inside into a suffocating fog Speaking of dead that was all I wanted Well it wasnt that I wanted to die I had to I needed to escape the tumult that was exhausting my emotional and physical resources And I had to die because I deserved to because I was evil I knew that I had transformed absolutely into a rotten core I had recently discovered this one horrifying night when it became clear as I raced around my bedroom that I was the reincarnation of Judas Iscariot betrayer of Jesus And I would plunge to Hell like he had so why shouldnt I kill myself now to get it over with Especially since I only burdened everyone around me My family and friends would rejoice once I was dead These thoughts progressed to the point that I could no longer touch anyone in order that I not contaminate them with my toxic essence Then I could no longer allow my fingers or limbs to touch each other because somehow this was evil too Soon God no longer permitted me to eat or sleep because I was such a monstrosity I stopped showering and changing clothes almost stopped speaking No longer able to attend high school I shrunk my days to mere huddling on a chair in our living room guarded by my parents and siblings in shifts Every moment I could snatch to myself I punched holes in my wrist with a safety pin hidden in my sleeve One afternoon left alone for a minute I crept furtively to the top of the second floor flight of stairs about to hurl myself down them until I was discovered and tugged back downstairs held tightly by the hand Finally my mind and body were so clamped down by dark gravity that I was no longer able to hurt myself One day I simply goggled at the unfamiliar face in our cold bathroom mirror Who is that Im not me anymoreIm an alien I decided Someone or something has stolen my identity and taken me over Well it can have me I surrender because I am worth nothing anyway So nothing matters I certainly dont matter During those gray hours days and months my mind cramped into nothing but ruminations of worthlessness and I didnt matter to myself at all Luckily of course to my parents and brothers and sisters I did matter very much Even if they puzzled over what was happening to me as much as I did they intuited my distress and incapacitization and got me help My family brought me to a psychiatric hospital where I stayed for a month I was diagnosed with depression with psychotic features and given antidepressants and an antipsychotic While in the hospital I discovered art therapy and painted surreal abstracts and wrote long narrative poems about my depression and recovery And recover I did into the blessed contentment of feeling like myself again a brighter happier self at that Now armed with a name for what ailed me I consumed volumes about depression and bipolar disorder I devoured books and articles about psychotropic medications and art therapy and theories of psychiatric rehabilitation and mood charting and the consumer movement I discovered Kay Redfield Jamison Ph D who became a role model and pored over her memoir An Unquiet Mind and Manic Depressive Illness the authoritative text on bipolar disorder that Jamison wrote with Frederick Goodwin MD I involved myself with one of the nations leading mental health advocacy organizations the National Alliance on Mental Illness abbreviated as NAMI and later assumed a lead
