Neuroinflammation and Cognition Ashok Kumar, Brandi K Ormerod, Yogesh Dwivedi, Jakob W Streit, 2019-03-22 Aging is one of the major risk factors for the onset and progression of various neurodegenerative diseases Neuroinflammation is a common feature of virtually every central nervous system disease and is acknowledged as a likely mediator of cognitive impairments Systemic inflammation levels are augmented with advanced age and neurodegeneration The influence of age on neuroinflammatory responses including glial activation increased production of proinflammatory cytokines and aberrant neuronal signaling could magnify the deterioration of the central nervous system microenvironment in disease and may contribute to enhanced cognitive impairment This eBook is a collection of highly informative original research articles providing comprehensive aspect of neuroinflammation and possible therapeutic interventions in rescuing cognitive impairments The Pursuit of Human Well-Being Richard J. Estes, M. Joseph Sirgy, 2017-01-09 This handbook informs the reader about how much progress we the human race have made in enhancing the quality of life on this planet Many skeptics focus on how the quality of life has deteriorated over the course of human history particularly given World War II and its aftermath This handbook provides a positive perspective on the history of well being Quality of life as documented by scientists worldwide has significantly improved Nevertheless one sees more improvements in well being in some regions of the world than in others Why This handbook documents the progress of well being in the various world regions as well as the differences in those regions The broad questions that the handbook addresses include What does well being mean How do different philosophical and religious traditions interpret the concept of well being within their own context Has well being remained the same over different historical epochs and for different regions and subregions of the world In which areas of human development have we been most successful in advancing individual and collective well being In which sectors has the attainment of well being proven most difficult How does well being differ within and between different populations groups that for a variety of socially created reasons have been the most disadvantaged e g children the aged women the poor racial ethnic and sexual minorities
