Discourse Analysis Gillian Brown, George Yule, 1983-07-28 An exploration of how any language produced by man spoken or written is used to communicate for a purpose and within a context Discourse Analysis Gillian Brown, George Yule, 1983-07-28 Discourse analysis is a term that has come to have different interpretations for scholars working in different disciplines For a sociolinguist it is concerned mainly with the structure of social interaction manifested in conversation for a psycholinguist it is primarily concerned with the nature of comprehension of short written texts for the computational linguist it is concerned with producing operational models of text understanding within highly limited contexts In this textbook first published in 1983 the authors provide an extensive overview of the many and diverse approaches to the study of discourse but base their own approach centrally on the discipline which to varying degrees is common to them all linguistics Using a methodology which has much in common with descriptive linguistics they offer a lucid and wide ranging account of how forms of language are used in communication Their principal concern is to examine how any language produced by man whether spoken or written is used to communicate for a purpose in a context Discourse and Language Education Evelyn Hatch, 1992-01-31 Discourse and Language Education is part of the Cambridge Language Teaching Library series Conversation Analysis Rebecca Clift, 2016-09-08 The first linguistics based textbook on conversation analysis illuminating the universals of interaction across a rich array of languages The Cambridge Handbook of Discourse Studies Anna De Fina, Alexandra Georgakopoulou, 2020-10-15 Discourse studies the study of the ways in which language is used in texts and contexts is a fast moving and increasingly diverse field With contributions from leading and upcoming scholars from across the world and covering cutting edge research this Handbook offers an up to date survey of Discourse Studies It is organized according to perspectives and areas of engagement with each chapter providing an overview of the historical development of its topic the main current issues debates and synergies and future directions The Handbook presents new perspectives on well established themes such as narrative conversation analytic and cognitive approaches to discourse while also embracing a range of up to the minute topics from post humanism to digital surveillance recent methodological orientations such as linguistic landscapes and multimodal discourse analysis and new fields of engagement such as discourses on race religion and money A Discourse Analysis of the Letter to the Hebrews Cynthia Long Westfall, 2006-06-22 This study attempts to analyse the text of Hebrews with a method of discourse analysis primarily based on a form of systemic functional linguistics developed for Hellenistic Greek but it is also informed by other linguistic studies It begins with a general survey of the literature that is either influential or representative of approaches to the structure of Hebrews The survey is followed by an introduction to the terminology and definitions of discourse analysis as well as the theory behind the methodology and describes a procedure for analysing text Hebrews is treated as having three sections The first section of Hebrews 1 1 4 16 demonstrates the organization of the units the topic of the units the prominent text and the relationship of the first section with the rest of the discourse The second section of Hebrews 4 11 10 25 is described in two parts 4 11 7 28 and 8 1 10 25 because of its length There is an overlap between the first and second sections in 4 11 16 and between the second and third sections in 10 19 25 Both of these passages have a concluding function for the preceding co text and a staging function for the following co text so that they look backwards and forwards The third and final section in 10 19 13 25 contains the climax or discourse peak The study is concluded with a description of the coherence of the discourse and a presentation of a mental representation of the text JSNTS and Studies in New Testament Greek subseries Synchronic English Linguistics Paul Georg Meyer,2005 Linguistics and Biblical Hebrew Walter Ray Bodine,1992 The essays in this volume arose out of the Society of Biblical Literature section on linguistics and Biblical Hebrew and have been selected to provide a summary and statement of the state of the question with regard to a number of areas of investigation The sixteen articles are organized into sections on phonology morphology syntax semantics discourse analysis historical comparative linguistics and graphemics Cognitive Discourse Analysis Thora Tenbrink,2020-02-13 An introduction to the methodology of cognitive discourse analysis focusing on eight key areas from attention to cognitive strategies Discourse Analysis Gillian Brown,1987 Advances in the Study of Biblical Hebrew and Aramaic Benjamin J.
