Wash and Pray: African Theological Discourse on COVID-19 Harvey Kwiyani, Joseph Ola, Isaiah Ola Abolarin, Benjamin Isola Akano, Justice A. Arthur, Victoria Oyenike Ayano, Paul Ayokunle, Kwaku Boamah, Akarama Dan Jr, Edmore Dube, Eric Manu, Françoise Niyonsaba, Godfred Nsiah, Moses Iliya Ogidis, Gabriel Ademola Oyeniyi, Ruth M. Oyeniyi, In the wake of the global COVID 19 pandemic Africa faced a unique set of challenges that sparked a profound spiritual response among its people Wash and Pray African Theological Discourse on COVID 19 delves into the heart of this response exploring the intersections of faith culture history and the pandemic that gripped the world from 2019 to 2022 The book demonstrates that for many Africans the pandemic was not just a medical crisis but also a spiritual battle As such the book invites the reader to witness the historicising of the pandemic in Africa through this landmark resource for current and future generations ensuring that the narratives of African Christianity in the face of COVID 19 and other pandemics are not lost The chapter contributions offer diverse perspectives from Ghana Nigeria Rwanda Zimbabwe and the UK each contextualising the African Christian response to the pandemic In essence this monograph paints a rich tapestry of African theological discourse during a global crisis ultimately affirming that faith and science when harmonised can lead to a resilient and thriving community

Contested Urban Spaces Ulrike Capdepón, Sarah Dornhof, 2022-02-09 This book takes the urban space as a starting point for thinking about practices actors narratives and imaginations within articulations of memory The social protests and mobilizations against colonial statues are examples of how past injustice and violence keep on shaping debates in the present Following an interdisciplinary approach the contributions to this book focus on the in visibility and affective power of monuments and traces through political activist and artistic contestations in different geographical settings They show that memories are shaped in contact zones most often in conflict and within hierarchical social relations The notion of decentered memory shifts the perspective to relationships between imperial centers and margins remembrance and erasure nationalistic tendencies and migration This plurality of connections emerges around unfinished histories of violence and resistance that are reflected in monuments and traces

health education conflict security and migration are examples of phenomena that are prevalent across all societies With chapters from leading scholars from around the world this exciting new book draws upon the impacts of globalisation colonialism and capitalism to explore the common challenges facing nations across the globe and provide an insight in to the history theory and practice of a new anti racist social work Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandenbussche, 2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges Ireland and the Reception of the Bible Bradford A. Anderson, Jonathan Kearney, 2018-04-19 Drawing on the work of leading figures in biblical religious historical and cultural studies in Ireland and beyond this volume explores the reception of the Bible in Ireland focusing on the social and cultural dimensions of such use of the Bible This includes the transmission of the Bible the Bible and identity formation engagement beyond Ireland and cultural and artistic appropriation of the Bible The chapters collected here are particularly useful and insightful for those researching the use and reception of the Bible as well as those with broader interests in social and cultural dimensions of Irish history and Irish studies The chapters challenge the perception in the minds of many that the Bible is a static book with a fixed place in the world that can be relegated to ecclesial contexts and perhaps academic study Rather as this book shows the role of the Bible in the world is much more complex Nowhere is this clearer than in Ireland with its rich and complex religious cultural and social history This volume examines these very issues highlighting the varied ways in which the Bible has impacted Irish life and society as well as the ways in which the cultural specificity of Ireland has impacted the use and development of the Bible both in Ireland and further afield The Long Road to Peace in Northern Ireland Marianne Elliott, 2007-01-01 The ratification of the Good Friday Agreement in 1998 was the culmination of a lengthy and contentious peace process that involved the efforts of a committed team of political actors In 2001 Marianne Elliott brought together a collection of essays by many of these pivotal figures in The Long Road to Peace in Northern Ireland an invaluable resource for students scholars and politicians Now Elliott one of the most prominent chroniclers of Irish history presents a fully updated edition with new essays commissioned to explore the events of the past five years A period that saw successes such as the decommissioning of the Provisional IRA but also a rise in drug trafficking and organized crime as a generation of men who have done nothing other than serve as paramilitaries are now finding their skills most valued as criminals With contributions from U S Senator George J Mitchell Sir David Goodall Jan Egeland Lord Owen and Peter Mandelsohn the second edition of The Long Road to

Peace in Northern Ireland is an illuminating record of the ongoing peace process and its consequences told by the people directly involved in its evolution

Informal Justice in Contemporary Society Dr Lee Li-On, 2016-05-06 Drawing on an ethnographic study in a multicultural city of Arabs and Jews in Israel this book examines the models and expressions of power implicated in discourse and conflict resolution practices in cross cultural contemporary community The author explores community politics expressed in daily life as a contextual background to the analysis of conflict resolution politics exploring perspectives of state and civic stakeholders Through case analysis and addressing the individual organisational and societal levels Dr Li On illustrates that conflict resolution is dominated by politics with culture ethnicity and identity playing a significant role disputing groups rely on conflict resolution to achieve contesting socio political goals The book explores core concerns in the field illustrating obstacles challenges and opportunities confronting informal justice in contemporary communities Informal Justice in Contemporary Society is motivated by the field s research practice gap and the lack of real world impact research in cross cultural settings The book contributes insights towards theory refinement and conflict resolution practice by addressing practical issues confronted by mediators in the field This innovative research path introduces a holistic approach to the study of informal justice in social context deploying multilevel ethnographic analysis to broaden the perspectives and understanding of conflict resolution in contemporary communities Locally it provides insights into conflict resolution in Israel in a mixed city of Arabs and Jews This book belongs on the reference shelf of essential reading for educators researchers and practitioners in conflict resolution and social studies including anthropological community legal and cultural fields

David Peace Katy Shaw, 2018-03-28 David Peace is an emerging author who is widely read and taught and whose novels are increasingly translated into commercial film The Damned United March 2009 and television Channel 4 adaptation of the Red Riding Quartet March 2009 Dr Katy Shaw s book provides a challenging but accessible critical introduction to his work through a detailed analysis of his writing as well as the socio cultural contexts of its production and dissemination The author explores Peace s attempts to capture the sensibilities of late twentieth century society and contributes to an ongoing debate in the media about Peace s representations Influenced by critical theory the text will be the first secondary resource concerning this rising star of contemporary British literature While UK readers will seek insight into the socio cultural contexts of England s regions and in particular his writing on the Yorkshire Ripper and the 1985 5 miners strike Peace also has a following in the US where both The Damned United and Red Riding are set to receive a national cinema release in 2009 10 This broad international appeal and readership will be explored and discussed especially in the context of crime fiction and social engagement This text is the first critical resource concerning this author and will cover the full body of Peace s writings to date the debates this work has generated and the often contentious representations offered by his novels
