Deschooling Society Ivan Illich, 1971 A denunciation of present day schooling with radical suggestions for reform

Ivan Illich Bonnie Edith Katrina Whitney, 1976 Deschooling Society IVAN. ILLICH, 2021 Universal education through schooling is not feasible It would be no more feasible if it were attempted by means of alternative institutions built on the style of present schools Neither new attitudes of teachers toward their pupil nor the proliferation of educational hardware or software in classroom or bedroom nor finally the attempt to expand the pedagogue s responsibility until it engulfs his pupil s lifetimes will deliver universal education The current search for new educational funnels must be reversed into the search for their institutional inverse educational webs which heighten the opportunity for each one to transform each moment of his living into one of learning sharing and caring We hope to contribute concepts needed by those who conduct such counterfoil research on education and also to those who seek alternatives to other establishehd service industries Ivan Illich was born in Vienna in 1926 He studied theology and philosophy at the Gregorian University in Rome and obtained a PhD in history at the University of Salzburg He came to the United States in 1951 where he served as assistant pastor in an Irish Puerto Rican parish in New York From 1956 to 1960 he was assigned as vice rector to the Catholic University of Puerto Rico where he organized an intensive training center for American preists in Latin American culture Illich was a co founder of the widely known and controversial Center for Intercultural Documentation CIDOC in Cuernavaca Mexico and since 1964 he has directed research seminars on Institutional Alternatives in a Technological Society with special focus on Latin America Ivan Illich s writings have appeared in The New York Review The Saturday Review Esprit Kuvsbuch Siempre America Commonweal Epreuves and Tern PS Modernes Ivan Illich Fifty Years Later Rosa Bruno-Jofré, Jon Igelmo Zaldivar, 2022-08-31 In 1971 priest theologian and philosopher Ivan Illich wrote Deschooling Society a plea to liberate education from schooling and to separate schooling from the state On the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of its publication Ivan Illich Fifty Years Later looks at the theological roots of Illich s thought and the intellectual and ideological strands that contributed to his ideas Guided by the central question of how Illich reached the point of writing Deschooling Society the book sheds light on how Illich produced a critique of schooling that can be defined by its eclecticism Bruno Jofr and Igelmo Zald var explore how this controversial book was framed by Illich s early neo scholastic and anti modern foundation his discovery of St Thomas through Jacques Maritain and the existential turning points that influenced his public life and intellectual direction in moving from a critique of the Church as institution to a critique of schooling Drawing from the interpretative theories of Quentin Skinner Reinhart Koselleck and William H Sewell and from concepts such as educationalization transnationality and configuration among other heuristic tools the authors provide an original and cross disciplinary analysis of Deschooling Society and its place in Illich s journey *Towards a Critical Analysis of Ivan D. G. Kallenberg,1973 A World Without Schools Don Kirkman,1976 Educing Ivan Illich John Baldacchino,2020-05-15

More than a book about Illich this is a conversation with Illich s work as we enter the third decade of the 21st century just under twenty years after his passing and almost fifty years since his Deschooling Society was first published As Illich is beatified and demonised in equal measure Educing Ivan Illich chooses to focus on the relationship between reform contingency and disestablishment As reform stands for a plurality of reiterations that seek effective forms of accordance in our recognition of contingency we freely claim that even as we might recognize the presence of universality in how everything appears on a shared horizon we are not denied the existence and dynamic reality of plural possibilities in their inherent contradictions In this bargain of synchronicity we find that disestablishing the reified universe by which we have for so long traded staked and even lost our freedom and intelligence is not just a desire but it becomes a must Unlike other commentators of Illich s work Baldacchino argues that what is radical about Illich is not a freestanding concept of deschooling but in how in disestablishing social life he exits the walls of the polis by upholding tradition as a disruptive force In such light Illich s work is read in what remains overdue Odd though it may sound this is an urgent need for anyone interested Illich s unique and irreplaceable contribution To that end Educing Ivan Illich has far more to offer than is usually expected from a commentary on someone else s work Schools and Society Jeanne H. Ballantine,Joan Z. Spade,2008 Presents the most recent theories research terms concepts ideas and histories on educational leadership and school administration as taught in preparation programs and practiced in schools and colleges today Deschooling Society Sonja Varbelow,Bryant Griffith,2012 This paper re examines Ivan Illich s ideas as expressed in his seminal work Deschooling Society from a 21st century point of view It explores the validity of his ideas for our current education system Illich s work was published at the time of a paradigm shift in curriculum theory which resulted in the development of Reconceptualization and Reproduction Theory Therefore the paper examines Illich s influence on Critical Pedagogy as the major theory of this paradigm shift The purpose of this paper is to determine which aspects of Deschooling Society and Critical Pedagogy are useful for curriculum theory today and how they can be applied The methodology used is theoretical analysis The findings will show that all of Illich s concerns are still valid today some so with increased urgency However they cannot be remedied today in the ways suggested by Illich when the work was originally published The paper concludes by applying Illich s underlying notions of humanism and responsibility for oneself and others to curriculum theory today      Tools for Conviviality Ivan Illich, 1973      Deschooling and Retooling Lucille C. Bruch, 1974      Principles of Education Soti Shivandra Chandra, Rajendra Kumar Sharma, 2004 This is a comprehensive book covering I Principles of Education II Philosophy of Education Both Western and Indian and III Sociology of Education It covers the syllabi of all the Indian universities for the paper Principles of Education for B Ed and M Ed classes The book has been presented in an analytical style The conclusions on controversial subjects have been arrived at through a synthetic approach Subject matter has been drawn from authentic books by Western and Indian authors Language of treatment has been kept as simple as possible Examples have been drawn from the Indian context Thus the authors have left no stone unturned to make this book an authentic textbook on the subject
