C. Nancarrow, K. S. Yuen, 2018 Language Across the Curriculum & CLIL in English as an Additional Language \(EAL\) Contexts Angel M.Y. Lin, 2016-09-15 This book will be of interest to a broad readership regardless of whether they have a background in sociolinguistics functional linguistics or genre theories It presents an accessible meta language i e a language for talking about language that is workable and usable for teachers and researchers from both language and content backgrounds thus facilitating collaboration across content and language subject panels Chapters 1 to 3 lay the theoretical foundation of this common meta language by critically reviewing systematically presenting and integrating key theoretical resources for teachers and researchers in this field In turn Chapters 4 to 7 focus on issues in pedagogy and assessment and on school based approaches to LAC and CLIL drawing on both research studies and the experiences of front line teachers and school administrators Chapter 8 provides a critical and reflexive angle on the field by asking difficult questions regarding how LAC and CLIL are often situated in contexts characterized by inequality of access to the linguistic and cultural capitals where the local languages of the students are usually neglected or viewed unfavourably in relation to the L2 in mainstream society and where teachers are usually positioned as recipients of knowledge rather than makers of knowledge In closing

Chapter 9 reviews the state of the art in the field and proposes directions for future inquiry Strengthening Upper Secondary Education in Lithuania OECD,2023-11-17 This report explores how Lithuania and its young people can achieve higher returns on its investment in upper secondary education and provides Lithuania with policy recommendations to help improve it by strengthening vocational education pathways and by consolidating upper secondary certification

Developing Skills for HKDSE. C. Nancarrow,K. S. Yuen,2018 English Language Education and Assessment David Coniam,2014-07-06 This volume gathers contributions in the closely linked fields of English language assessment and language education The contributors from China and Hong Kong represent a mixture of established and new scholars Areas covered in the language education section range across major developments in the redefining of Hong Kong s secondary and tertiary curricula as well as the huge field of China s vocational education curriculum Regarding assessment the contributions reflect major changes in the marking of examinations in Hong Kong whereby all examinations from 2012 onwards are marked onscreen to quality control issues in the administration of China s College English Test which is taken by over 10 million candidates every year Musician-Teacher Collaborations Catharina Christophersen,Ailbhe Kenny,2018-01-09 Musician Teacher Collaborations Altering the Chord explores the dynamics between musicians and teachers within educational settings illustrating how new musical worlds are discovered and accessed through music in education initiatives An international array of scholars from ten countries present leading debates and issues both theoretical and empirical in order to identify and expand upon key questions How are visiting musicians perceived by various stakeholders What opportunities and challenges do musicians bring to educational spaces Why are such initiatives often seen as saving children music and education The text is organized into three parts Critical Insights presents new theoretical frameworks and concepts providing alternative perspectives on musician teacher collaboration Crossing Boundaries addresses the challenges faced by visiting musicians and teaching artists in educational contexts while discussing the contributions of such music in education initiatives Working Towards Partnership tackles some dominant narratives and perspectives in the field through a series of empirically based chapters discussing musician teacher collaboration as a field of tension In twenty chapters Musician Teacher Collaborations offers critical insights into the pedagogical role music plays within educational frameworks The geographical diversity of its contributors ensures varied and context specific arguments while also speaking to the larger issues at play When musicians and teachers collaborate one is in the space of the other and vice versa Musician Teacher Collaborations analyzes the complex ways in which these spaces are inevitably altered

Supporting the Learning of Chinese as a Second Language: Implications for Language Education Policy Joseph Lo Bianco,Elizabeth Ka Yee Loh,Mark Shiu-kee Shum,2024-10-25 The research in this volume takes account of the context of policy promoting Chinese as a second language CSL in several countries and regions Australia East Asia and South East Asia and the wider social context of multilingual and multicultural societies Furthermore this book reports results of two research studies which investigated how to develop effective strategies to promote learners motivation and the motivational developments of adult learners in real life settings helping to overcome gaps in this under researched area Findings reported in this book have been scientifically examined and found to be effective in enhancing the learners CSL proficiency increasing their learning motivation and addressing the need for a diversity of targeted approaches to CSL Most are applicable across preschool to secondary levels The theoretical grounding of this research work represents a new direction for research in teaching Chinese as a second language

The Tyranny of Writing Constanze Weth,Kasper Juffermans,2018-01-25 This book examines the powerful role of writing in society The invention of writing independently at various places and times in history always stood at the cradle of powerful civilizations It is impossible to imagine modern life without writing As individuals and social groups we hold high expectations of its potential for societal and personal development Globally huge resources have been and are being invested in promoting literacy worldwide So what could possibly be tyrannical about writing The title is inspired by Ferdinand de Saussure s argument against writing as an object of linguistic research and what he called la tyrannie de la lettre His critique denounced writing as an imperfect distorted image of speech that obscures our view of language and its structure The chapters of the book written by experts in language and literacy studies go beyond this and explore tyrannical aspects of writing in society through history and around the world from Medieval Novgorod the European Renaissance and 19th century France and Germany over colonial Sudan to postcolonial Sri Lanka and Senegal and present day Hong Kong and Central China to the Netherlands and Spain The metaphor of tyranny of writing serves as a heuristic for exploring ideologies of language and literacy in culture and society and tensions and contradictions between the written and the spoken word
