range of diverse endogenous and exogenous topics all related to English language teaching and learning in Bangladesh and acquaints readers with different perspectives operating from the macro to the micro levels. The theoretical frameworks used are drawn from applied linguistics, education, sociology, political science, critical geography, cultural studies, psychology, and economics. The chapters examine how much generalisability the theories have for the context of Bangladesh and how the empirical data can be interpreted through different theoretical lenses. There are six sections in the Handbook covering different dynamics of English language education practices in Bangladesh from history, policy and practice to assessment, pedagogy and identity. It is an invaluable reference source for students, researchers, and policy makers interested in English language, ELT, TESOL, and applied linguistics. Selections from Regional Press, 2008. Handbook of Research on Sustaining SMEs and Entrepreneurial Innovation in the Post-COVID-19 Era Baporikar, Neeta, 2021-02-05.
