readers are able to consider how popular fiction and film have influenced society's understandings and views of classroom teachers. Organized around four main themes: Identifying with the Teacher, Image Constructing the Teacher with Content, Imaging the Teacher as Savior, The Teacher Construct as Commentary, the chapters examine the complicated mixture of fact, stereotype, and misrepresentation that create the image of the teacher in the public eye today. This examination in turn allows teacher educators to use popular culture as curriculum. Using the fictional teacher as a text, preservice and practicing teachers can examine positive and negative and often misleading representations of teachers in order to develop as teachers themselves.

Exploring Magic Realism in Salman Rushdie's Fiction Ursula Kluwick, 2013-02-28 Kluwick breaks new ground in this book moving away from Rushdie studies that focus on his status as postcolonial or postmodern and instead considering the significance of magic realism in his fiction. Rushdie's magic realism in fact lies at the heart of his engagement with the postcolonial. In a departure from conventional descriptions of magic realism based primarily on the Latin American tradition, Kluwick here proposes an alternative definition allowing for a more accurate description of the form. She argues that it is disharmony rather than harmony that is decisive; that the incompatibility of the realist and the supernatural needs to be recognized as a driving force in Rushdie's fiction. In its rigorous analysis of this Rushdian magic realism, this book considers the entire corpus: Midnight's Children, Shame, The Satanic Verses, The Moor's Last Sigh, The Ground Beneath Her Feet, Shalimar the Clown, and The Enchantress of Florence. This study is the first of its kind to do so.

The Fiction of Julian Barnes Vanessa Guignery, 2006-01-23 Julian Barnes's work has been marked by great variety ranging not only from conventional fiction to postmodernist experimentation in such well-known novels as Flaubert's Parrot (1984) and A History of the World in 10 1/2 Chapters (1989) but also from witty essays to deeply touching short stories. The responses of readers and critics have likewise varied from enthusiasm to scepticism as the substantial volume of critical analysis demonstrates. This Readers Guide provides a comprehensive and accessible overview of the essential criticism on Barnes's work drawing from a selection of reviews, interviews, essays, and books. Through the presentation and assessment of key critical interpretations, Vanessa Guignery provides the most wide-ranging examination of his fiction and non-fiction so far, considering key issues such as his use of language, his treatment of history, obsession, love, and the relationship between fact and fiction. Covering all of the novels to date from Metroland (1981) to Arthur and George (2005), this is an invaluable introduction to the work of one of Britain's most exciting and popular contemporary writers.
