SECTION A READING

Read the following passage:

SAY “PLEASE”

The young liftman in a City office who threw a passenger out of his lift the other morning was fined for the offence was undoubtedly in the wrong. It was a question of ‘Please’. The passenger, entering the lift said “Top”. The liftman demanded “Top, please”, and his demand being refused, the liftman hurled the passenger out of the lift.

While it is true that there is no law that compels us to say ‘Please’, there is a social practice much older and much more sacred than any law which enjoins us to be civil. And the first requirement of civility is that we should acknowledge a service. ‘Please’ and ‘Thank you’ are the small change with which we pay our way as social beings. They are the little courtesies by which we keep the machine of life oiled and running
