Classics of Western Thought: The ancient world, H. S. Nulle, ed.- v. 2. Middle ages, renaissance, and reformation, K. F. Thompson, ed.- v. 3. The modern world, C. Hirschfeld, ed ,1964 World Literature and Thought: The ancient worlds Donald S. Gochberg,1997 The book contains enduring literary and intellectual works from the major ancient civilizations of Asia Africa and Europe This volume starts with ancient Middle Eastern and Egyptian texts going back to the third millennium B C Continuing onward through a diverse array of times and places from Rome to Ethiopia we conclude the forty five selections around the fifth century A D The wealth of material offered here should enable readers to pick those civilizations and topics that they find of greatest interest Or readers may choose to read through the contents in the given order Pref Generally the editors envision these edited primary documents as being of most use for college level courses in humanities in the history of world civilizations and in comparative or world literature Introd The Ancient World Donald S. Gochberg,1988 Originally published under the General Editorship of Thomas H Greer the series emanated from the Humanities Department of Michigan State University The books remain today perhaps the best sources available for the comprehensive study in one volume of every subject area which might be included in the umbrella of humanities Most major literary forms are represented essay poem short story play novel memoir epigram scientific discourse philosophical treatise political manifesto and religious proclamation All major subject areas are explored art music education mathematics biology psychiatry religion philosophy politics economics and physics The informative apparatus headnotes and footnotes are all aimed at enhancing the student reader s comprehension Middle Ages, Renaissance, and Reformation Karl F. Thompson,1980 Originally edited by Thomas H Greer this series emanates from the Humanities Department at Michigan State University Today these books remain outstanding sources for the comprehensive study of most subject areas included under the umbrella of humanities Most major literary forms are represented essay poem short story play novel memoir epigram scientific discourse philosophical treatise political manifesto and religious proclamation Major subject areas include art music education mathematics biology psychiatry religion philosophy politics economics and physics Originally published under the General Editorship of Thomas H Greer the series emanated from the Humanities Department of Michigan State University The books remain today perhaps the best sources available for the comprehensive study in one volume of every subject area which might be included in the umbrella of humanities Most major literary forms are represented essay poem short story play novel memoir epigram scientific discourse philosophical treatise political manifesto and religious proclamation All major subject areas are explored art music education mathematics biology psychiatry religion philosophy politics economics and physics The informative apparatus headnotes and footnotes are all aimed at enhancing the student reader s comprehension Provided by Publisher A Short History of the Western World John E. Rodes,1970 Monographic Series Library of Congress, East-West Symbioses Eugene Eoyang,2019-03-15 This book explores the encounters between East and West studying how they get along These exchanges involve deliberate exoticizations and incommensurabilities as well as creative fusions such as Matteo Ricci a Jesuit monk in the late 16th early 17th centuries who learned Chinese in Beijing well enough to compose works in Chinese and Octavio Paz the Mexican Nobel Laureate who admired Chinese civilization The book also considers the effect of the West on Asian countries the cases of Japan and Turkey who tried to modernize by becoming more Western and the examples of China and Korea who adopted Western forms of theatre to advance a distinctly Asian aesthetic It will appeal to anyone seeking more than a superficial understanding of the encounters between East and West

The Promise and Premise of Creativity Eugene Eoyang, 2012-07-12 The Promise and Premise of Creativity considers literature in the larger context of globalization and the clash of cultures Refuting the view that the study of literature is useless Eoyang argues that it expands three distinct intellectual skills creative imagination vicarious sympathy and capacious intuition With the advent of the personal computer and the blurring of cultural and economic boundaries it is the ability to imagine to intuit and to invent that will mark the educated student and allow her to survive the rapid pace of change As never before the ability to empathize with other peoples to understand cultures very different from one's own is vital to success in a globalized world In this the very uselessness of literature may inure the mind to think creatively Engaging with both the theory and practice of literature its past and its potential future Eoyang claims that our sense of the world at large of the salient similarities and differences between cultures would be critically diminished without comparative literature

Reorientations of Western Thought from Antiquity to the Renaissance F. Edward Cranz, Nancy Struever, 2024-10-28 The previous Variorum collection of studies by the late F Edward Cranz focused specifically on Nicholas of Cusa The present selection has an equally clear focus but a far broader scope it brings together materials on his major thesis of a fundamental reorientation of the categories of thought in the Latin West c 1100 AD a thesis that dominated his work from the 1960s onwards The volume differs from the usual Variorum collection in that much of the material is hitherto unpublished distributed only in samizdat form to Cranz's friends and colleagues Nancy Struever has collated and edited the versions of these papers and supplied the necessary annotation for his references It includes too some of the research related to his editions of the Late Antique Aristotelian commentator Alexander Aphrodisiensis and his early research on the reception of Classical and early Christian political thought demonstrating the pertinence of this to the reorientation thesis Cranz's argument centering on Anselm's reading of Augustine and Abelard's of Boethius but dealing with

Renaissance and Reformation figures such as Petrarch and Valla Cusanus and Luther Nifo and Zabarella claims a reorientation in speculative genres of the most basic premises of the relations of mind language and reality Cranz s meticulous close readings of the texts make the case that the reorientation was so deep and thorough as to problematise our modern readings of Hellenic thinkers such as Aristotle and so radical as to be almost invisible to the Medieval and post Medieval thinkers The definitions and distinctions of thematics in this collection are of intrinsic interest then to Classical and Late Antique Medieval Renaissance and Early Modern intellectual historians Indeed Cranz s work vindicates serious intellectual historical inquiry as indispensable to our understanding of the basic motives and accomplishments of the culture of Pre Modernity
