Lifestyle Media in Asia Fran Martin, Tania Lewis, 2016-05-20 Across Asia consumer culture is increasingly shaping everyday life with neoliberal economic and social policies increasingly adopted by governments who see their citizens as individualised sovereign consumers with choices about their lifestyles and identities One aspect of this development has been the emergence of new wealthy middle classes with lifestyle aspirations shaped by national regional and global media especially by a range of new popular lifestyle media which includes magazines television and mobile and social media This book explores how far everyday conceptions and experiences of identity are being transformed by media cultures across the region It considers a range of different media in different Asian contexts contrasting how the shaping of lifestyles in Asia differs from similar processes in Western countries and assessing how the new lifestyle media represents not just a new emergent media culture but also illustrates wider cultural and social changes in the Asian region

SOCIAL MEDIA AND THE CULTURAL POLITICS OF KOREAN POP CULTURE IN EAST ASIA. Sŏn-hŭi Yun, 2023

This volume examines international engagement with Korean popular culture in East Asian online spaces and how Asian identities are formed and perceived between nations within the region. In the context of global diversification and growing public participation in global issues it builds up a new theoretical perspective in order to explain the emerging power of Asia in the global mediascape. With a focus on Korean media touching upon K pop and the phenomenon of Hallyu and anti Hallyu the author also looks at Japan, China and Taiwan in this regional study. Combining theory with ethnographic audience studies in East Asian countries the book elucidates East Asian media in a larger context of the changing global structure and media technology. This book will interest academics and students working on Asian popular culture and media, new media, East Asian studies, participatory media and digital communication.
