God and Self in the Confessional Novel John D. Sykes, Jr., 2018-06-08 God and Self in the Confessional Novel explores the question what happened to the theological practice of confession when it entered the modern novel Beginning with the premise that guilt remains a universal human concern this book considers confession via the classic confessional texts of Augustine and Rousseau Employing this framework John D Sykes Jr examines Goethe's The Sorrows of Young Werther Dostoevsky's Notes from Underground Percy's Lancelot and McEwan's Atonement to investigate the evolution of confession and guilt in literature from the eighteenth century to the early twenty first century Guilt in Ian McEwan's "Atonement" and Joe Wright's film adaptation Carmen Odimba,2015-04-30 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject Cultural Studies Basics and Definitions grade 3 0 Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz Department of British Irish Studies Translation Studies course Seminar Transferring Translating Media Novels to Film Ian McEwan s Atonement language English abstract Atonement the novel by Ian McEwan published in 2001 is qualified by many critics as a wartime love story It is an interpretation that suits the glamorous criteria needed by the public and provided by the media nowadays This interpretation however solely focuses on the characters of Cecilia and Robbie and forgets the important part that Briony or her writing process play in the novel and Joe Wright s film A complete reading of Atonement should include a study of the title and its implications in the story We will start by analyzing the meaning of the word atonement The choice of this title has a special significance for the whole novel and should lead us readers and spectators to understand its message to know whether the spirit of the novel has been respected by the film maker is a question to which we will also answer briefly The tragic event that happened in Part One of the novel could never have taken place in a more opened social environment With other codifications more courage and less things left unsaid the story would have been different We will examine some of the taboos that played an important role in the shaping of Atonement s characters The notion of guilt is very present in the novel thus it will be in relation to atonement the central focus of this paper We will consider the main characters i e Briony Robbie Cecilia Lola and Paul Marshall and try to evaluate the degree to which each one of them is guilty feels guilty and is willing to atone for his sins The last part of the paper will be essentially dedicated to the film to Joe Wright s interpretation of the concepts we named above Considering our paper s subject was it a good or a bad adaptation The Cambridge Companion to the Modernist Novel Morag Shiach,2007-04-19 The novel is modernism s most vital and experimental genre With a chronology and guide to further reading this 2007 Companion is an accessible and informative overview of the genre The Revisions of Englishness David Rogers,John McLeod,2004 Diverse and often competing notions of Englishness have been critiqued by a variety of writers and critics who have become concerned about received visions of Englishness in the post war period An exciting and provocative collection of essays which registers the changes to Englishness since the 1950s this book explores how Englishness has been revised for a variety of aesthetic and political purposes and makes a ground breaking contribution to the contemporary debates in literary and cultural studies Narcissistic Fantasies in Film and Fiction Ilany Kogan,2020-04-01 This book has grown from a belief that the psychoanalytic exploration of literature and performances leads to a richer and fuller understanding of each individual s internal reality It includes an exploration of narcissistic fantasies from various protagonists of film and novels and focuses on the fantasy of the omnipotence of the self which is a predominantly narcissistic desire to be a Master of the Universe a deity an omnipotent immortal figure Psychoanalysis and art interact in exploring the individual s refusal to give up grandiose fantasies about the self or his inability to modulate and integrate them within his personality which are at the origin of his wish to transcend the human condition These narcissistic fantasies are often expressed through aggressive and self destructive behaviour including flirtation with death and destruction The emotional truth that great artists convey through symbols which often resonates in the audience is examined in this book through studies and comparisons of narcissistic characters in opera film and contemporary fiction Identifying with these figures who place themselves above the law may give us the illusion of omnipotence and immortality which corresponds to a primary narcissistic fantasy the traces of which exist in various degrees in all of us Part of the popular International Psychoanalytical Association Psychoanalytic Ideas and Applications Series this book is unique in its focus on the narcissistic fantasy of the omnipotence of the self by means of an analysis of a variety of protagonists from the worlds of the performing arts and literature and on the exploration of their impact on the audience It will be of interest to psychoanalysts therapists and those with an interest in the intersection of psychoanalytic theory with film and literature

Ian McEwan Irena Książopolska, 2024-04-30 This book offers a discussion of seven canonical novels by Ian McEwan The Cement Garden The Comfort of Strangers The Child in Time The Innocent Black Dogs Atonement On Chesil Beach introducing radical new readings which are offered not as ultimate and conclusive solutions of the textual puzzles but as possibilities to engage with the text creatively to enrich the critical consensus and restore interpretative freedom to the readers This project formulates a strategy of inclusive reading an approach to the text that does not seek to reduce it to a single interpretation and yet is comprehensively informed through the analysis of the primary text critical discussion authorial comments and the context of the composition Each reading demonstrates the metafictional structure of the texts indicating that McEwan's works may be treated as invitations to roam within their worlds examining the multiple frames of their structure and the meanings generated thereby All the chapters attend to submerged repressed or deliberately masked voices The Cement Garden is seen as a multi layered dream with a shifting hierarchy of dreamers The Comfort of Strangers is viewed as an inverted metafiction with insubstantial characters corrupting more complex heroes The Child in Time is read as Stephen's book written for his dead daughter The Innocent as a memory narrative of Leonard who refuses to notice Maria's role as a spy In Black Dogs the over exposure of unreliability is studied as a screen for personal trauma in the analysis of Atonement Briony's claim to authorship is questioned and Cecilia is suggested as an alternative narrative agent Finally examining On Chesil Beach both characters voices are reconstructed in search of the superior narrative power which in the end is seen to be elusive as the text seeks to undermine the hierarchy of voices
