Aya de Yopougon Tome 1 Marguerite Abouet, Clément Oubrerie, 2005 AFRIQUE vie quotidienne COTE D IVOIRE Aya of Yop City Marguerite Abouet, Clément Oubrerie, 2007-02-20 Ivorian bonus pages 1 9 includes glossary recipes and descriptions of customs Exiles, Travellers and Vagabonds, 2016-10-20 Travel writing migrant writing exile writing expatriate writing and even the fictional travelling protagonists that emerge in literary works from around the globe have historically tended to depict mobility as a masculine phenomenon The presence of such genres in women s writing however poses a rich and unique body of work This volume examines the texts of Francophone women who have experienced or reflected upon the experience of transnational movement Due to the particularity of their relationship to home and the consequent impact of this on their experience of displacement the study of women s mobility opens up new questions in our understanding of the movement from place to place and in our broader understanding of colonial and postcolonial worlds Addressing the proximities and overlaps that exist between the experiences of women exiles migrants expatriates and travellers the collected essays in this book seek to challenge the usefulness relevance or validity of such terms for conceptualising today s complex patterns of transnational mobility and the gendered identities produced therein AYA, V.1 - AYA DE YOPOUGON MARGUERITE ABOUET, CLEMENT OUBRERIE, Este livro procura mostrar uma frica desprovida de clichés uma outra visão das pessoas que vivem no continente Em Yop City bairro de Yopougon na Costa do Marfim não se ouve falar de guerra civil aids ou fome O que se ouve são as confusões de três amigas Aya Bintou e Adjoua que vivem os mesmos dilemas de tantas outras jovens de sua geração garotos festas e vidas sobre o futuro Esta crônica do cotidiano na costa marfinense no fim dos anos 70 um pouco do que a própria autora Marguerite Abouet A beleza de Aya está na sonoridade nas cores africanas e nos sabores como o aroma da sopa de amendoim Semiotics and Hermeneutics of the Everyday Gregory Paschalidis, Lia Yoka, 2015-06-18 The linchpin of the momentous paradigm shift that produced the new hermeneutics of everyday life was a focus on people as active agents in various cultural contexts uses and practices the merging of the conventional distinctions between the private and the public the local and the global the material and the symbolic and the bridging of the agency structure divide marking grand historical and cultural narratives In their place a wealth of new kinds of narratives were produced out what Aya de Yopougon - Volume 3 Marguerite Abouet, 2025-09-04 Comics and Agency Vanessa Ossa, Jan-Noël Thon, Lukas R. A. Wilde, 2022-11-21 This volume aims to intensify the interdisciplinary dialogue on comics and related popular multimodal forms including manga graphic novels and cartoons by focusing on the concept of medial mediated and mediating agency To this end a theoretically and methodologically diverse set of contributions explores the interrelations between individual collective and institutional actors within historical and contemporary comics cultures Agency is at stake when recipients resist hegemonic readings of multimodal texts In the same manner authorship can be understood as the attribution of agency of and between various medial instances and roles such as writers artists colorists letterers or editors as well as with regard to commercial rights holders such as publishing houses or conglomerates and reviewers or fans From this perspective aspects of comics production authorship and institutionalization can be related to aspects of comics reception appropriation and discursivation and circulation participation and canonization including their potential for transmedialization and making contributions to the formation of the public sphere

Postcolonial Comics Binita Mehta, Pia Mukherji, 2015-04-24 This collection examines new comic book cultures graphic writing and bande dessinée texts as they relate to postcolonialism in contemporary Anglophone and Francophone settings The individual chapters are framed within a larger enquiry that considers definitive aspects of the postcolonial condition in twenty first century contexts The authors demonstrate that the fields of comic book production and circulation in various regional histories introduce new postcolonial vocabularies reconstitute conventional image functions in established social texts and political systems and present competing narratives of resistance and rights In this sense postcolonial comic cultures are of particular significance in the context of a newly global and politically recomposed landscape This volume introduces a timely intervention within current comic book area studies that remain firmly situated within the U S European and Japanese manga paradigms and their reading publics It will be of great interest to a wide variety of disciplines including postcolonial studies comics area studies cultural studies and gender studies Aya de Yopougon 05 Oubrière / Abouet,
