Mahatma I and II Brian Grattan, 1994-01-01 What all of mankind have learned in the past about creation is the way that existence isn t a paradox Awaken and realize that all of mankind will create their body for Ascension whether they accomplish this now or later and that this is not the exclusive domain of Christ or Buddha or many others who have ascended this is your birthright You are not relegated to worshipping those who have already done this very basic initiation called Ascension Christ and Buddha would be the first to acknowledge that they are just beginners on their eternal journey When mankind lifts the veils of their unworthiness and recognize that they are the Sons of God that there is divine equality and no one is greater than another then you will have begun our journey in the way that it was intended In your near future your Planetary Hierarchy will release the world from theology ecclesiasticism and the wrathful Jehovah and return humanity to its rightful journey into spiritualizing matter not worshipping it The Mahatma is for those who are motivated to search for the answers that can respond to their mental and spiritual bodies In the past mankind s choices of beliefs and religions have supported only the emotional body and the darker material side of life And truly if one is going to remain on Earth very drastic shifts of consciousness will be required to have mankind remain in Earth s new fourth dimensional reality No matter how contrary to your current beliefs this book contains methods for creating your spiritual Lightbody for Ascension and it also explains your eternal journey in a way that was never before available to mankind

Revelations of a Melchizedek Initiate Joshua David Stone, 1998-10-01 This book traces the author s journey of

Textual Tensions Elizabeth Berglund Hall, 2003 This dissertation reconsiders Cixous's notion of écriture féminine as a practice of reading as well as writing I claim that feminine readings and writings attempt to disrupt the conventional thought system by exposing tension between traditional and repressed aspects of the discourse While particular emphasis is placed on the tension between the masculine and the écriture féminine Cixous claims that the disruption of any binary pair works toward the dissolution of phallogocentrism and its fundamental couple man/woman In each of three sections I pair an analysis of Cixous's theories and fiction with an interpretation of a novel by another author this structure allows me to examine écriture féminine and to put Cixous's theories into practice by performing what I call a lecture féminine In the first section I consider Cixous's notion of sexual difference in her work Déluges and in Beckett's trilogy Molloy Malone meurt and L'Innommable I explore Cixous's claim that sexual difference is not located between men and women but internally in each man and woman and I investigate the ways in which Beckett's trilogy echoes Cixous's theories through its interrogation of the binary system of thought its treatment of the interdependence of writing and the body and its dissolution of conventional gender categories In the second section I investigate the difficult balance between self and other which critique of minine encourages through analyses of Cixous's Manne and Marie Claire Blais's L'Insoumise. In each work I find that the shifting of narrative voices allows for both an exchange with the other and an assertion of a sense of unified self. Finally in my third section delving into the more abstract binary couple text and non text I examine Cixous's Jours de l'an and Anne H. Bert's Le premier jardin. In my analyses I find that these texts play with the boundaries of fiction and narrative through a contradictory structure which permits multiple interpretations of each of the novels. Ultimately this dissertation hopes to provide for the reader a new way of understanding critique of minine as a state of productive tension and a new way of using Cixous's theories to read and analyze literature. The New Oxford Companion to Literature in French Peter France, 1995. The New Oxford Companion to Literature in French is far more than a simple revision of the original Oxford Companion to French Literature published in 1959 and described by The Listener as the standard work of reference for English speaking enquirers into French literature. As the change in title implies this completely new work presents an authoritative guide not only to ten centuries of literature produced in the territory now called France but also to the rich literary output of other French speaking countries around the world. The scope of the Companion is deliberately open and inclusive challenging and extending the traditional canon. Literature is understood in a broad sense ranging from strip cartoon and pamphlet to tragedy and epic and particular attention is devoted to francophone writing from outside France. Written by an international team of specialists entries cover individual authors and works over 3 000 of them from the troubadours to C. Saire and from La Princesse de Clèves to La Vie mode d'emploi. Each is discussed in detail within their historical cultural and intellectual context. Among the new features of the Companion are the substantial essay entries reflecting up to date scholarship and theoretical debates on topics such as literary movements and genres historical subjects such as chivalry or Occupation and Resistance in wartime France movements of thought from Scholasticism to feminism linguistic topics the sciences the arts and media including opera cinema and press. As a divertissement for readers an entry on Quotations lists 100 well known quotations from the canon of French literature. Adventurous and wide ranging The New Oxford Companion to Literature in French will be an indispensable and hugely enjoyable reference work for all scholars students and general readers.
