Fifteenth-Century Persian Painting B. W. Robinson, 1993-03 In this book B W Robinson traces the development of the different styles of Persian painting during the fifteenth century and considers a number of the problems and issues involved in establishing a methodology and system of classification for Persian painting of that period Robinson begins by way of background with a review of the schools of Herat and Shiraz up to the middle of the century and then proceeds to tackle in order the three main fields of controversy painting under the Turkmans Timurid paintings in Transoxiana and Timurid painting in India The uneasy fusion of contrasting characteristics of Herat and Shiraz that resulted in the emergence of Turkman court painting is traced through the origins development and branching of the Turkman style into a definitive form Then the author reviews a branch of the art almost entirely neglected up to now which he identifies as originating in Transoxiana Finally he provides a new approach to the study of pre Mughal Indian painting in Persian style by dividing the material into five stylistic groups The Arts of Persia Ronald W. Ferrier, 1989-01-01 Shows and describes examples of Persian calligraphy glass tile pottery lacquer books paintings jewelry textiles sculpture and architecture Peerless Images Vice-President Eleanor G Sims, Eleanor Sims, Boris Il'ich Marshak, Ernst J. Grube, Boris Marshak, I., 2002-01-01 This book is the first survey of the figural arts of the Iranian world from prehistoric times to the early twentieth century ever to consider themes rather than styles Analyzing primarily painting in manuscripts and albums on walls and on lacquered painted pen boxes and caskets but also the related arts of sculpture ceramics and metalwork the author finds that the underlying themes depicted on them through the ages are remarkably consistent Eleanor Sims demonstrates that all these arts display similar concerns kingship and legitimacy the righteous exercise of princely power and the defense of national territory and the performance of rituals and the religious duties called for by the paramount cult of the day She describes a variety of superb works of art inside and outside these categories noting not only how they illustrate archetypal themes but also what it is about them that is unique She also discusses the ways that Iranian art both influenced and was influenced by invaders and neighboring lands Boris I Marshak discusses pre Islamic and also Central Asian art in particular the earliest Iranian wall paintings and their pictorial parallels in rock carvings and metalwork and the richly painted temples and houses of Panjikent Ernst J Grube considers religious imagery and provides an informative bibliography Persian Painting Basil Gray, 1977 Iranian Persian art from the 13th century through the end of the 18th century Perspectives on Persian Painting Dr Barbara Brend, 2013-11-05 This is a detailed study of the illustrations to Amir Khusrau's Khamsah in which

twenty discourses are followed by a brief parable and four romances Amir Khusrau 1253-1325 lived the greater part of adventurous life in Delhi he composed in Persian and also in Hindi From the point of view of manuscript illustration his most important work is his Khamsah Quintet Khusrau's position as a link between cultures of Persia and India means that the early illustrated copies of the Khamsah have a particular interest The first extant exemplar is from the Persian area in the late 14th century but a case can be made that work was probably illustrated earlier in India Studies in Persian Art Basil William Robinson, 1993 Basil Robinson is a renowned expert on Persian art notably manuscript illumination This first volume of his collected essays explores the evolution of Persian painting from the 14th to 19th centuries The work pays particular emphasis on that most characteristic of Persian manuscripts the Shah Nameh the national epic Persian Art Yuka Kadoi, 2019-07-31 An insightful picture of the expansion of Persian visual culture across wide swathes of Asia from the Indian Ocean to the Mediterranean Persian Drawings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Marie Lukens Swietochowski, Susan Babaie, 1989 Persian Miniature Painting Laurence Binyon, James Vere Stewart Wilkinson, Basil Gray, 1971 No section of Persian art was so brilliantly and completely represented at Burlington House in 1931 as the section of Miniatures It was the largest and finest collection ever displayed in Europe and could claim to be fully representative The Bodleian Library the Libraries of Edinburgh University the Royal Asiatic Society and the India Office lent precious manuscripts and single drawings but the richest contribution came from that of a private owner Mr Chester Beatty This material was largely new and unpublished and its juxtaposition with the splendid loans from private collections in Europe and America especially famous Paris collections like those of M Vever the late M Claude Anet and M Cartier afforded an unparalleled opportunity for comparative study such as was greatly needed Introduction

Illustrated Poetry and Epic Images Marie Lukens Swietochowski, Stefano Carboni, 1994 Two 14th century manuscripts are the focus of this catalog published in conjunction with a Museum exhibit February-May 1994 Essays and illustrations 93 total 39 in color present the Mu'nis al-Ahrar an anthology of poetic devices and the Shahnama a copy of the Persian national epic in which events are depicted in 41 extant miniatures Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR A Survey of Persian Art Arthur Upham Pope, 1980-03-01 Mediaeval Persian Painting Adel' Tigranovna Adamova, 2008 This book is a survey of the historical evolution of Persian painting and the factors internal as well as external which shaped its development and brought significant changes in the subject matter and forms of representation As these forms changed so did their status and the hierarchies of values they embodied coming to reflect changing views on the status of images and the nature of painterly skill Thus an age when monumental painting largely determined the character of the representational arts gave way to a period when books and book painting defined artistic taste while subsequently a fashion for paintings and drawings on single sheets created a taste for painting in oils on canvas The final chapter of the book is an attempt to reconstruct one of the most famous albums the so called St Petersburg Muraqqa BOOK JACKET Persian Art Robert
