Pig Farming In Zimbabwe:

Climate Change Adaptations in Dryland Agriculture in Semi-Arid Areas Xavier Poshiwa, G. Ravindra Chary, 2022-02-10

This book highlights the approaches for achieving trans disciplinary research integration for semi arid dryland agriculture systems under changing climates while also identifying the elements of a collaborative research agenda that are needed to advance global food security The book emphasizes climate change being a reality and how drylands are bearing the brunt in diverse ways The major impact of dryland agriculture is on communities that need to avoid the short and long term impacts of the changing climate adapt strategies that can minimize these impacts and be able to mitigate climate change for which they need climate smart interventions These interventions are only realized through knowledge and experience sharing among stakeholders from different sectors and backgrounds It is in this context that the publication was seen as a necessity in order to bring together ideas that will transform lives and build adaptation capacities thereby providing the much needed products in communities leading to development

Commercial Agriculture in Zimbabwe, 1986 Livestock climate action in Zimbabwe Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Svinurai, W.; Masunda, B.; Ayabagabo, J.D.D; Cabeza, I.L; Kachidza, F.; Kamana, R.; Reppin, S.; Rulli, M.; Uwizeye, A., 2025-04-25 Zimbabwe is advancing climate change adaptation in its livestock sector with key strategies reflected in both its initial and updated nationally determined contributions NDCs Although various climate smart practices are already being implemented through livestock support programs their contributions to adaptation and mitigation remain largely undocumented resulting in their omission from the NDCs To address this the Department of Livestock Research has introduced a Tier 2 greenhouse gas GHG inventory for cattle allowing for more accurate assessments of mitigation potential and informing the 2025 NDC update This report brings together insights from literature reviews policy analysis and stakeholder consultations to evaluate the current policy landscape for livestock related climate action It highlights the sector s growing vulnerability to climate change including feed scarcity disease outbreaks and declining productivity The report identifies key policy gaps and stresses the importance of capacity building data driven planning and inclusive engagement to enhance climate resilience and reduce emissions in the livestock sector

Fast Track Land Occupations in Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Sandra Bhatasara, Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, 2021-01-11 This book offers the first detailed scholarly examination of the nation wide land occupations which spread across the Zimbabwean countryside from the year 2000 and led to the state s fast track land reform programme In an innovative way it highlights the decentralized character of the occupations by recognizing significant spatial variation around a number of key themes including historical memory modes of mobilization and gender A case study of the land occupations in Mashonaland Central Province based on original research adds empirical weight to the argument In further identifying and understanding the specificities and complexities of the land occupations the book also frames them by way of a nuanced comparative historical analysis of the three zvimurenga It thus examines the land occupations referred to likely controversially as the third chimurenga with reference to the original anti colonial revolt from the 1890s the first chimurenga and the war of liberation in the 1970s the second chimurenga Further the book engages critically with the ruling party s chimurenga narrative and the hegemonic understanding of the land occupations within Zimbabwean studies This book is a crucial read for all scholars and students of post 2000 land and politics in Zimbabwe but also for those more broadly interested in historical comparative analyses of land struggles in Zimbabwe and beyond

Zimbabwe, a Field for Investment ,1991 Christian Warfare in Rhodesia-Zimbabwe Norman Murdoch,2015-01-19 Christian Warfare in Rhodesia Zimbabwe examines the history of the Salvation Army in Rhodesia Zimbabwe and its relationships with the state and with the rest of the church In particular it examines parallels between events of the first Chimurenga a rising against European occupation in 1896 97 and the second Chimurenga in the 1970s the civil war that led to majority rule At the time of the first the Salvation Army was barely established in the country by the second it was part of the establishment The book explores the enmeshment of this Christian mission in the institutions of white rule and the painful process of disentanglement necessary by the late twentieth century Stories of martyrdom and colonial mythology are set in the carefully researched context of ecumenical relations and the Salvation Army s largely unknown and seldom accessible internal politics
