

Macbeth:“O valiant cousin, worthy gentlemen”

Duncan, the King, is his cousin, so it would be immoral to kill him, but Duncan also respects him, which makes Macbeth feel even more guilty. Divine right of kings – The king is God's representative on earth, so anything the king does is what God would want, if you betray the King, you betray God.

“Brave Macbeth – Well he deserves that name – Confronted him with brandished steel”

Everyone believes Macbeth is brave and deserving of noble titles. This sets Macbeth up to be a tragic hero. He goes from being extremely well respected and looked up to, to being a wicked thing.

“Stars hide your fires; let not light see my dark and deep desires”

He wants to be unseen and for his dark desire to kill Duncan so he can be king, to be invisible, maybe even to him. They are not fit to be thought about. He is very ashamed of what he is planning.

“When thou durst do it, then you were a man”

Lady Macbeth is emotionally blackmailing him by using his greatest weakness against him. If she makes him feel like he is not a proper man, after just being a war hero, it will drive him further and persuade him to kill Duncan.

“I have no spur, to prick the sides of my intent, but only vaulting ambition which o'erleaps itself and falls on the other”

He is describing his lack of motivation to kill Duncan, the only thing that is making him ponder the thought is his ambition. The ambition is part fuelled by his dedication to his wife, who wants him to do this.

“All hail, Macbeth, that shalt be king hereafter!”

This is what makes Macbeth have the initial thought of regicide. The witches can see the future, and Macbeth believes he needs to murder the king. This could be Shakespeare exploring the impact of fate versus free will in human lives.

“unseam'd him from the nave to the chaps”

We learn from this that Macbeth has full capability of killing. He does not simply kill, but gets more violent. So why is he so conflicted about killing the king when he is this great, battle hero, murdering machine. This is a reference that foreshadows his death at the end of the play.

“Dearest partner of greatness”

His relationship with his wife is one with an equal power dynamic and they each help the other to achieve the best things they can. They are not like the average couple at that time where the woman would be seen as below the man.

How others see him:

Macbeth has a kind and sympathetic personality; this makes Lady Macbeth fear he will not be able to commit to killing Duncan and achieving their ambitions.

At the beginning of the play, most see him as noble, worthy and a polite gentleman, who is a great battle hero. He is described as “Brave Macbeth” and “Valiant cousin”. He is a respected warrior. Later in the play, everyone's opinions change and they have huge
