Daughters of Wisdom Ahida Calderon Pilarski, 2023-06-22 This book offers a window into current realities regarding women's leadership in the global church and explores strategic recommendations to nurture this leadership in the twenty-first century. The essays in this volume were initially presented at an international conference organized by the Center for World Catholicism and Intercultural Theology CWCIT at DePaul University in 2018. The reference to Daughters of Wisdom in the title for this volume was aimed at capturing the diversity of ways which women have found to exercise their leadership in responding to the challenging and/or hopeful realities of their contextual locations and their faith and social communities. The authors address particularly different aspects of women's leadership in the Catholic Church with a special emphasis on the global South. The contributors are lay and religious people from India, Nigeria, Mexico, Venezuela, Peru, the US, Singapore, and the Philippines. The topics explored in this volume include women's use of Scripture, the ecclesiological basis for women in church leadership, and the leadership roles that women have been exercising already in grassroots church communities, Marian devotion in faith-based social movements, and in theological education.

The Last Things Donald G. Bloesch, 2004 In The Last Things Donald G. Bloesch takes up difficult and sometimes controversial themes such as the coming of the kingdom of God, the return of Jesus Christ, the life hereafter, the millennial hope, the final judgment, hell, heaven, purgatory, and paradise. Wrestling with biblical texts that often take metaphorical form, Bloesch avoids rationalistic reductionism as well as timid agnosticism. While he acknowledges mystery and even paradox, Bloesch finds biblical revelation much more than sufficient to illuminate the central truths of a Christian hope articulated throughout the history of the church. The Last Things is not just a review of past Christian eschatology but a fresh articulation of the grace and glory of God yet to be consummated. The triumph of the grace of Jesus Christ and the dawning of hope beckon us to reach out in the power of the Spirit to receive that blessed future and the promise to renew the life of the church universal today.

On Christian Nationalism David M. Gides, Joan Braune, 2025-11-26 Since the January 6, 2021 coup attempt at the U.S. Capitol, Christian nationalism has widely been called the greatest threat to democracy in the United States. Yet academics and activists present many conflicting definitions and solutions. On Christian Nationalism: Critical and Theological Perspectives features an array of scholarly essays on Christian nationalism, offering innovative exploration of topics including definitions and historical context, current trends in the United States including intersections with racism, sexism, antisemitism, and Islamophobia, comparative phenomena abroad, and practical ways to address the problem, theologically or politically. An important book at a time of rising Christian far-right mobilization and urgent need for a deeper theoretical analysis, On Christian Nationalism pushes the conversation further and explores new vantage points. The book will be of interest to those seeking a fuller, richer, and more complex understanding of Christian nationalism, scholars of religious and political movements activists pastors journalists and others with a concerned focus in the area Theories of Justice Stephanie Mar Brettmann, 2014-12-02 What is justice How do we know justice How is justice cultivated in society These are the three questions that guide this critical dialogue with two representatives of the Catholic and Protestant traditions Karl Barth and Karol Wojtyla John Paul II Though the two thought leaders are shaped within divergent theological traditions and historical contexts they both appeal to Christian anthropology as a starting point for justice Their explorations into the nature of humanity yield robust new theories of justice that remain relevant for our contemporary era The third interlocutor our female author brings her own voice fully into the dialogue in the third part of the book in order to address the shortcomings in their theories and build upon their insights all the while seeking theories of humanity and social justice that result in justice for all persons Transforming Vocation David Benson, Kara Martin, Andrew Sloane, 2021-05-12 There has been an explosion of publishing in the faith work movement in the last twenty years Work is increasingly seen as the new frontier for Christian mission However the church and theological colleges have failed to keep up with the interest among and needs of workplace Christians This book is the urgent corrective that is needed moving past Theology of Work 101 to much deeper encounters with God's word as it relates to daily work These twelve academic papers look at work through three different lenses the workplace the church and theological education It is prefaced by Mark Greene from the London Institute for Contemporary Christianity reflecting on what work church and theological education would look like if there was no sacred secular divide In the concluding remarks the editors imagine a future where each domain is transformed by the gospel working dynamically together for the life of the world While academic in terms of depth of thinking quality of research and referencing of crucial sources for further exploration this book is never dry Rather it's life giving and provocative for every vocation asking fundamental questions of the reader What is the work that God is calling you to do How can the gospel transform your work And how well positioned are churches and colleges to be at the forefront of transforming vocation With contributions from Mark Greene James Pietsch Peter White Peter Docherty Gordon Preece Keith Mitchell David Fagg Ian Hussey Colin Noble Andrew Matthews Sarah Bacaller Samuel Curkpatrick Maggie Kappelhoff Canada, Statistical Abstract and Record, 1916 Statistical Report on Education in Canada, 1924 Annual Survey of Education in Canada Canada.
