Philippines: a Market for U.S. Products United States. Bureau of International Commerce, Kenneth A. Guenther, 1965

A History of Publishing in the Philippines Dominador D. Buhain, 1998 Pinoy Capital Benito Vergara, 2009 Home to 33 000 Filipino American residents Daly City California located just outside of San Francisco has been dubbed the Pinoy Capital of the United States In this fascinating ethnographic study of the lives of Daly City residents Benito Vergara shows how Daly City has become a magnet for the growing Filipino American community Vergara challenges rooted notions of colonialism here addressing the immigrants identities connections and loyalties Using the lens of transnationalism he looks at the double lives of both recent and established Filipino Americans Vergara explores how first generation Pinoys experience homesickness precisely because Daly City is filled with reminders of their homeland s culture like newspapers shops and festivals Vergara probes into the complicated ambivalent feelings these immigrants have toward the Philippines and the United States and the conflicting obligations they have presented by belonging to a thriving community and yet possessing nostalgia for the homeland and people they left behind Manila and the Philippines Margherita Arlina Hamm, 1898

Philippine Newspapers Alice W. Mak, 1984 Historical Dictionary of the Philippines Artemio R. Guillermo, 2012 The Historical Dictionary of the Philippines Third Edition contains a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries The Philippines , 1990 The Impact of Digital Technology on Contemporary and Historic Newspapers Hartmut Walravens, 2009-02-02 The papers brought together in this highly actual book are grouped around three themes Not only the physical and digital preservation of newspapers are treated but also the service and access models that are currently under development examples are provided with a focus on Southeast Asia Moreover the dynamism of online newspapers is discussed This volume contains cutting edge information which is indispensable for the modern newspaper librarian Also researchers educators and journalists may benefit from the introduction to current aspects of the important medium A New Journalism in a New Far East Walter Williams, 1928

The Rough Guide to the Philippines David Dalton, Rough Guides, 2007-09-06 Vols for 2nd ed 2007 written and researched by David Dalton The Philippines James A. Tyner, 2010-12-22 Nearly five million migrant workers from the Philippines are employed in over 190 countries and territories They work as doctors and domestic helpers engineers and entertainers seamstresses and surveyors It is through their collective labor that the Philippines has assumed a global presence For over five centuries the Philippines has been integrated into the world economy Only recently however has the Philippines been a pro active agent in the production of a global economy Since the 1970s the Philippine state in connection with myriad private institutions has recruited trained marketed and deployed a mobile work force Annually approximately one million migrant workers travel to all corners of the world The Philippines seeks to understand how the Philippines has become the world s largest exporter of government sponsored temporary contract labor and in the process has dramatically reshaped both the processes of globalization and also our understanding of globalization as concept Communications and Public Opinion in the Philippines American University (Washington, D.C.). Bureau of Social Science Research, 1955 Area Handbook for the Philippines Frederic H. Chaffee, 1969 General study of the Philippines covers historical and geographical aspects demographic aspects and social structures aspects of ethnography language family living conditions education cultural factors the system of government religion foreign policy mass media the economic structure economic relations agriculture work questions industry the administration of justice national level safety the police and armed forces systems etc
