Poetics Space Gaston Bachelard:

The Poetics of Space Gaston Bachelard, 2014-12-30 A beloved multidisciplinary treatise comes to Penguin Classics Since its initial publication in 1958 The Poetics of Space has been a muse to philosophers architects writers psychologists critics and readers alike The rare work of irresistibly inviting philosophy Bachelard's seminal work brims with quiet revelations and stirring mysterious imagery This lyrical journey takes as its premise the emergence of the poetic image and finds an ideal metaphor in the intimate spaces of our homes Guiding us through a stream of meditations on poetry art and the blooming of consciousness itself Bachelard examines the domestic places that shape and hold our dreams and memories Houses and rooms cellars and attics drawers chests and wardrobes nests and shells nooks and corners No space is too vast or too small to be filled by our thoughts and our reveries In Bachelard's enchanting spaces We are never real historians but always near poets and our emotion is perhaps nothing but an expression of a poetry that was lost This new edition features a foreword by Mark Z Danielewski whose bestselling novel House of Leaves drew inspiration from Bachelard's writings and an introduction by internationally renowned philosopher Richard Kearney who explains the book's enduring importance and its role within Bachelard's remarkable career For more than sixty five years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 500 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

Gaston Bachelard, Revised and Updated Roch C. Smith, 2016-06-03 Comprehensive overview of the entire spectrum of works by one of twentieth century France's most original thinkers Gaston Bachelard one of twentieth century France's most original thinkers is known by English language readers primarily as the author of The Poetics of Space and several other books on the imagination but he made significant contributions to the philosophy and history of science In this book Roch C Smith provides a comprehensive introduction to Bachelard's work demonstrating how his writings on the literary imagination can be better understood in the context of his exploration of how knowledge works in science After an overview of Bachelard's writings on the scientific mind as it was transformed by relativity quantum physics and modern chemistry Smith examines Bachelard's works on the imagination in light of particular intellectual values Bachelard derived from science His trajectory from science to a specifically literary imagination is traced by recognizing his concern with what science teaches about how we know and his increasing preoccupation with questions of being when dealing with poetic imagery Smith also explores the material and dynamic imagination associated with the four elements fire water air and earth and the phenomenology of creative imagination in Bachelard's Poetics of Space his Poetics of Reverie and in the fragments of Poetics of Fire

The Poetics of Reverie Gaston Bachelard, 1971-06-01 In this his last significant work an admired French philosopher provides extraordinary meditations on the relations between the imagining consciousness and the world positing the notion of reverie as its most dynamic point of reference In his earlier book The Poetics of Space Bachelard considered several kinds of praiseworthy space conducive to the flow of poetic imagery In Poetics of Reverie he considers the absolute origins of that imagery language sexuality childhood the Cartesian ego and the universe Approaching the psychology of wonder from the phenomenological viewpoint Bachelard demonstrates the auriferous potential of all that awareness Thus he distinguishes what is merely a phenomenon of relaxation from the kind of reverie which poetry puts on the right track the track of expanding consciousness

The Psychoanalysis of Fire Gaston Bachelard, 1987-01-30 Bachelard is neither a self confessed and tortured atheist like Sartre nor like Chardin a heretic combining a belief in God with a proficiency in modern science But within the French context he is almost as important as they are because he has a pseudo religious force without taking a stand on religion To define him as briefly as possible he is a philosopher with a professional training in the sciences who devoted most of the second phase of his career to promoting that aspect of human nature which often seems most inimical to science the poetic imagination J G Weightman The New York Times Review of Books

Artist and Attic Hsin Ying Chi, 1999 Artists and Attic sees the relationship between architecture and literature as a concrete reflection of nineteenth century ideology creating an iconic picture of women's position in society and literature during that period In the Victorian house the attic is hidden and neglected yet to a woman artist it is a space of her own to produce a text of her own The author presents the neglected attic as related to the neglected woman and the limited space symbolizes the confinement of woman and the woman writer yet obtaining this space of her own becomes the central concern to women and women writers This book explores the function of the attic in nineteenth century British and American women's writing as it is given meaning and life by the writers To many of the women the attic created a paradoxical image of their seclusion but also of their own poetic space for freedom in creation Many of the writers see the attic as a retreat to escape from patriarchal oppression and a place to seek social identity

Alternative Temporalities

Teresa Valentini, Angela Weiser, John Zilcosky, 2024-11-30 Alternative temporalities have often emerged as a reaction to the normativizing force of time demonstrating that time can be used as an instrument of power and oppression but also as a means to resist this very oppression Alternative Temporalities draws on analyses of modern literature to examine this often neglected role of time By exploring forms of temporal resistance in artistic representation such as short stories and novels that challenge the imposition of colonial gender or capitalist temporal orders the book reveals how storytelling can be an essential tool in questioning and pushing back against coercive temporal structures The book analyses literary representations of time that challenge dominant temporalities and intersect different disciplines such as gender and sexuality studies trauma and Indigenous studies race and identity and religion It features narrative analyses proposing alternative embodied experiences of time focusing on topics including the temporality of the AIDS affected body the experience of time in prison and slowness in opposition to modern acceleration Ultimately Alternative Temporalities aims to create new theories as well as practices that may foster more diverse and inclusive ways of perceiving and embodying time

Claustrophilia Readings in the Erotics of Enclosure Cary Steven Howie, 2003 The New Scientific Spirit Gaston Bachelard, 1984 In this book Bachelard draws upon both his scientific training and his interest in the nonrational which ultimately drew him toward the study of poetics to explore the deeper meanings of the new physics In Bachelard's view the unpredictable behaviour of subatomic particles belies the seemingly neat ordered and mechanistic universe that the practical and empirical scientists of the nineteenth century thought they saw
