Poverty Youth And Rural Urban Migration In Ethiopia:

Adolescent Girls' Migration in The Global South Katarzyna Grabska, Marina de Regt, Nicoletta Del Franco, 2018-09-26 This book provides a nuanced complex comparative analysis of adolescent girls migration and mobility in the Global South The stories and the narratives of migrant girls collected in Bangladesh Ethiopia and Sudan guide the readers in drawing the contours of their lives on the move a complex fluid scenario of choices constraints setbacks risks aspirations and experiences in which internal or international migration plays a pivotal role The main argument of the book is that migration of adolescent girls intersects with other important transitions in their lives such as those related to education work marriage and childbearing and that this affects their transition into adulthood in various ways While migration is sometimes negative it can also offer girls new and better opportunities with positive implications for their future lives The book explores also how concepts of adolescence and adulthood for girls are being transformed in the context of migration

The Informal Sector and the Environment Ranjula Bali Swain, Uma Kambhampati, 2022-08-12 The informal economy broadly defined as economic activity that is not subject to government regulation or taxation sustains a large part of the world's workforce It is a diverse complex and growing area of activity However being largely unregulated its impact on the environment has not been closely scrutinised or analysed This edited volume demonstrates that the informal sector is a major source of environmental pollution and a major reason behind the environmental degradation accompanying the expansion of economic activity in developing countries Environmental regulation and economic incentive policies are difficult to implement in this sector because economic units are unregistered geographically dispersed and difficult to identify Moreover given their limited capital base they cannot afford to pay pollution fees or install pollution abating equipment Informal manufacturing units often operate under unscientific and unhealthy conditions further contributing to polluting the environment The book emphasizes and examines these challenges and their solutions encountered in various sectors of the informal economy including urban waste pickers small scale farmers informal workers home based workers street vendors and more If the informal sector is to Leave no one behind as the Sustainable Development Goals promise and contribute to inclusive growth an objective of the green economy then its impact on the economy as well as the environment has to be carefully considered This book marks a significant contribution to the literature on both the informal economy and sustainable development and will be of great interest to readers in economics geography politics environment studies and public policy more broadly Chapter 4 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Young People in the Global South Kate Pincock, Nicola Jones, Lorraine van Blerk, Nyaradzayi Gumbonzvanda, 2024-01-24 Young People in the Global South Voice Agency and Citizenship explores the spatial relational affective and material dimensions of adolescents and young people's civic engagement and political participation in lower and middle income contexts This textbook questions how the everyday politics of exercising voice and agency is experienced at different scales from the interpersonal to the global It explores how structural inequalities and marginalisation as well as social norms and attitudes shape how voice agency and participation are expressed by diverse young people in particular contexts with unique histories Contributing authors focus on the experiences of young people who are marginalised based on age gender sexuality disability citizenship status and geographical location Together they show how ageing through adolescence enables or constrains agency and voice Textbook features include case studies on Africa Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as reflective accounts authored by adolescents and young people themselves and discussion questions Filling a key gap in the knowledge about the concerns and experiences of young people in contexts beyond the Global North this textbook will be of interest to academics students and practitioners in the fields of childhood and youth studies international development social movements human geography sociology and comparative politics The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Challenges and Opportunities for Inclusive Development in Ethiopia Rahmato, Dessalegn, Ayenew, Meheret, 2019-03-25 As part of its on going public dialogue program on progress in Ethiopia s development and public policy the Forum for Social Studies is undertaking a project of research and public dialogue on a number of selected topics on the theme of Prospects and Challenges for Inclusive and Participatory Development in Ethiopia The aim is to enable researchers and professionals to present evidence based papers to stimulate debate and reflection This first book in the program looks at the impact of development or lack of it on specific social groups namely women young people and vulnerable groups that should be entitled to decent social care

Routledge Handbook of Migration and Development Tanja Bastia, Ronald Skeldon, 2020-02-14 The Routledge Handbook of Migration and Development provides an interdisciplinary agenda setting survey of the fields of migration and development bringing together over 60 expert contributors from around the world to chart current and future trends in research on this topic The links between migration and development can be traced back to the post war period if not further yet it is only in the last 20 years that the migration development nexus has risen to prominence for academics and policymakers Starting by mapping the different theoretical approaches to migration and development this book goes on to present cutting edge research in poverty and inequality displacement climate change health family social policy interventions and the key challenges surrounding migration and development While much of the migration literature continues to be dominated by US and British perspectives this volume includes original contributions from most regions of the world to offer alternative non Anglophone perspectives Given the increasing importance of migration in both international development and current affairs the Routledge Handbook of Migration and Development will be of interest both to policymakers and to students and researchers of geography development studies political science sociology demography and development economics

Becoming Middle

Class Markus Roos Breines,2021-08-02 This book is an ethnography of urban to urban migration and its role in middle class formation in Ethiopia Through an examination of the intersections and tensions between physical movement and social mobility it considers how young Tigrayan people s migration between urban centres made them distinct from both international migrants and non migrants Based on fieldwork in Adigrat and Addis Ababa it focuses on these young people s notions of progress experiences of higher education and ethnic tensions to demonstrate how their movements enabled them to enhance their economic social and symbolic capital while their cultural capital remained largely unchanged The book provides new insights into the opportunities and constraints for upward social mobility and argues that the emergence of shared characteristics among urban to urban migrants led to the formation of a group that can be described as a middle class in Ethiopia

Second International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink,George W. Noblit,2017-01-06 This second handbook offers all new content in which readers will find a thoughtful and measured interrogation of significant contemporary thinking and practice in urban education Each chapter reflects contemporary cutting edge issues in urban education as defined by their local context One important theme that runs throughout this handbook is how urban is defined and under what conditions the marginalized are served by the schools they attend Schooling continues to hold a special place both as a means to achieve social mobility and as a mechanism for supporting the economy of nations This second handbook focuses on factors such as social stratification segmentation segregation racialization urbanization class formation and maintenance and patriarchy The central concern is to explore how equity plays out for those traditionally marginalized in urban schools in different locations around the globe Researchers will find an analysis framework that will make the current practice and outcomes of urban education and their alternatives more transparent and in turn this will lead to solutions that can help improve the life options for students historically underserved by urban schools

Youth rural-urban migration in Bungoma, Kenya Elizabeth Karl Eckert,Eleanor Catherine Turner,Jo Anne Yeager Sallah,2019-08-07 This study provides insights into a specific hard to reach youth subpopulation those born in agricultural areas in Western Kenya who migrate to large towns and cities that is often missed by research and development activities Using a mixed methods approach we find high variability in movement of youth between rural villages towns and large urban areas Top reasons for youth migration align with existing literature including pursuit of job opportunities and education For youth from villages where crop farming is the primary economic activity for young adults 77 percent responded that they are very interested in that work in contrast to the common notion that youth are disinterested in agriculture We also find many youth interested in settling permanently in their villages in the future This research confirms that youth migration is dynamic requiring that policymakers and development practitioners employ methods of engaging youth that recognize the diversity of profiles and mobility of this set of individuals

Agriculture & Food Systems To 2050: Global Trends, Challenges And Opportunities Rachid Serraj,Prabhu Pingali,2018-11-08 This book features a comprehensive foresight assessment exploring the pressures threats as well as opportunities on the global agriculture food systems between now and 2050 The overarching aim is to help readers understand the context by analyzing global trends and anticipating change for better planning and constructing pathways from the present to the future by focusing on the right questions and problems The book contextualizes the role of international agricultural research in addressing the complex challenges posed by UN 2030 Agenda and beyond and identifies the decisions that scientific leaders donors and policy makers need to take today and in the years ahead to ensure that a global population rising to nine billion or more combined with rising incomes and changing diets can be fed sustainably and equitably in the face of the growing climate threats Growing Up and Getting By John Horton, Helena Pimlott-Wilson, Sarah Marie Hall, 2021-04-28

Bringing together new multidisciplinary research this book explores how children and young people across Europe Asia Africa and the Americas experience and cope with situations of poverty and precarity It looks at the impact of neoliberalism austerity and global economic crisis evidencing the multiple harms and inequalities caused It also examines the different ways that children young people and families get by under these challenging circumstances showing how they care for one another and envisage more hopeful socio political futures

Geoscience for the Public Good and Global Development Gregory R. Wessel, Jeffrey K. Greenberg, 2016-05-18 Offers overview of applications of geosciences to sustainable development and geophilanthropic efforts worldwide and offers advice to guide creation of development projects Primacy of geologic input to all development activities is highlighted along with problems that are encountered and environmental issues that must be addressed Youth and Employment in

Sub-Saharan Africa Hiroyuki Hino, Gustav Ranis, 2014-06-05 It is widely acknowledged that youth unemployment is one of the most critical challenges facing countries in Sub Saharan Africa This volume brings together an eminent group of international scholars to analyse the extent and complex nature of this joblessness and offer a set of evidence based policy choices that could contribute to solving the problem in the short and long run Part I reviews the existing literature on youth unemployment and underemployment in Sub Saharan Africa from microeconomic and macroeconomic perspectives while Part II goes on to present detailed country studies of Ethiopia Ghana Kenya and South Africa These studies offer a deep understanding of the situation on the ground and consider country specific solutions Throughout the book it is argued that the standard ILO definition of unemployment is too narrow to correctly portray employment situations in Sub Saharan Africa Several alternative measures of unemployment are presented which show that joblessness is far more pervasive than commonly assumed in the literature This volume will be of interest to academics and policy makers involved in African development Routledge Handbook of the Horn of Africa Jean-Nicolas Bach, 2022-03-30

The Routledge Handbook of the Horn of Africa provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary survey of contemporary research related to the Horn of Africa Situated at the junction of the Sahel Saharan strip and the Arabian Peninsula the Horn of Africa is growing in global importance due to demographic growth and the strategic importance of the Suez Canal Divided into sections on authoritarianism and resistance religion and politics migration economic integration the military and regimes and liberation the contributors provide up to date authoritative knowledge on the region in light of contemporary strategic concerns The handbook investigates how political economic and security innovations have been implemented sometimes with violence by use of force or by negotiation including ethnic federalism in Ethiopia independence in Eritrea and South Sudan integration of the traditional authorities in the neo patrimonial administrations Somalian Islamic Courts the Sudanese Islamist regime people s movements multilateral operations and the construction of an architecture for regional peace and security Accessibly written this handbook is an essential read for scholars students and policy professionals interested in the contemporary politics in the Horn of Africa Youth on the Move Asnake Kefale,Fana Gebresenbet,2021-12-01 A refreshing study of young Ethiopian migrants going beyond the usual host dominated narratives surrounding such upheaval to uncover the motivations of migrants themselves Youth Gangs and Street Children Paula Heinonen,2011-07-01 The rapidly expanding population of youth gangs and street children is one of the most disturbing issues in many cities around the world These children are perceived to be in a constant state of destitution violence and vagrancy and therefore must be a serious threat to society needing heavy handed intervention and tough love from concerned adults to impose societal norms on them and turn them into responsible citizens However such norms are far from the lived reality of these children The situation is further complicated by gender based violence and masculinist ideologies found in the wider Ethiopian culture which influence the proliferation of youth gangs By focusing on gender as the defining element of these children s lives as they describe it in their own words this book offers a clear analysis of how the unequal and antagonistic gender relations that are tolerated and normalized by everyday school and family structures shape their lives at home and on the street Children, Youth and the City Kathrin Horschelmann,Lorraine van Blerk,2013-06-17 More than half of the global and around eighty per cent of the western population grow up in cities Here Horschelmann and van Blerk provide a vivid picture of children and youths in the city how they make sense of it and how they appropriate it through their social actions Considering the causes and forms of social inequalities in relation to class gender ethnicity sexuality ability and geographical location this book discusses specific issues such as poverty homelessness and work Each chapter draws on examples and cases from both the developed and developing world and throughout the chapters it contrasts experiences of growing up in the city focuses on urban youth culture consumption and globalization considers contemporary movements towards the role of children and youths in planning processes Horschelmann and van Blerk argue that youths must be recognised as urban social agents in their own right Their informative book though dealing with complex theoretical arguments relates key ideas to this topical subject in a clear and coherent manner making this book an excellent resource for students of human geography urban studies and childhood studies Working Today for a Better Tomorrow in Ethiopia Emily Weedon Chapman,Margaux Vinez,2024-03-06 Working Today for a Better Tomorrow in Ethiopia Jobs for Poor and Vulnerable Households The

Rural-urban Nexus in Migration and Livelihoods Diversification Abeje Berhanu, 2012 The objective of this study is to investigate the linkage between migration and livelihood diversification with emphasis on the socio economic and structural processes that impact on rural to urban migration The specific objectives include to explore the factors affecting rural to urban migration by focusing on household assets and social attachment variables to examine the different ways by which migration affects rural households livelihoods and vice versa to examine rural urban linkages using migration with the aim of contributing to efforts to understand the migration process in the Amhara region and to investigate the impact direct or indirect of government policy on trends of rural to urban migration in Ethiopia

Youth Employment & Youth

Employment Programmes in Africa: The case of Ethiopia Ian Livingstone, 1986 The Status of Youth in Agrifood Systems Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, The world's agrifood systems stand at a crossroads With 1.3 billion youth globally the future of food livelihoods and economic resilience depends on their participation in agrifood systems At the same time agrifood systems need youth to drive productivity innovation and sustainability in a crucial and rapidly evolving sector FAO's The Status of Youth in Agrifood Systems report is a call to action It presents the most comprehensive evidence based analysis of youth in agrifood systems to date highlighting both the opportunities and structural barriers that shape their engagement It explores how transforming agrifood systems can enhance decent job opportunities and food security for youth and how empowered youth can drive this transformation It concludes highlighting policy recommendations and areas of investments to foster more equitable and sustainable agrifood systems where rural youth are both beneficiaries and leaders of change
