Making Borders in Modern East Asia Nianshen Song, 2018-05-03 Until the late nineteenth century the Chinese Korean Tumen River border was one of the oldest and perhaps most stable state boundaries in the world Spurred by severe food scarcity following a succession of natural disasters from the 1860s countless Korean refugees crossed the Tumen River border into Qing China's Manchuria triggering a decades long territorial dispute between China Korea and Japan This major new study of a multilateral and multiethnic frontier highlights the competing state and nation building projects in the fraught period that witnessed the Sino Japanese War the Russo Japanese War and the First World War The power plays over land and people simultaneously promoted China's frontier building endeavours motivated Korea's nationalist imagination and stimulated Japan's colonialist enterprise setting East Asia on an intricate trajectory from the late imperial to a situation that Song argues we call modern People's War (RLE Modern East and South East Asia) J.L.S. Girling, 2017-09-19 This book first published in 1969 casts a critical eye over the problem of insurgency The author sees insurgency not just as a matter of technique military tactics or organizational skill nor as the result of force and fraud but as people's war the conditions in which the mass of the people become involved voluntarily or otherwise on either side He quotes Nasution's statement The guerrilla movement is only the result not the cause of the problem People's war brings the peasantry hitherto ignorant apathetic or rejected into the political process For war is the continuation of politics by other means In Asia this was essentially a peasant's war arising when peasant grievances interests or demands cannot be met under the existing legitimate but urban or landowner orientated system of rule It shows little understanding to blame outside intervention when peasant and nationalist unrest leads to revolt The Chinese Communists did not owe success to Soviet aid the Vietminh to

Chinese assistance or the Vietcong to North Vietnamese intervention The conclusion applies to governments as to insurgents no amount of outside aid can win the war for them if they themselves are incapable and the people on whom they depend for support have no will to fight This book based on first hand experience of the area and on study of original sources offers 1 an analysis of people s war in China Indochina and Vietnam 2 a critique of US policy in Laos and Vietnam and 3 a comparison with counter measures in Malaya the Philippines and Indonesia It is both original and constructive Modern East Asia Conrad Schirokauer,Donald N.
