Software Process Improvement Ita Richardson,Per Runeson,2006-10-10 This textbook is intended for use by SPI Software Process Improvement m agers and researchers quality managers and experienced project and research managers The papers constitute the research proceedings of the 13th EuroSPI European Software Process Improvement conference held in Joensuu Finland 11-13 October 2006 The conference was held in 1994 in Dublin Ireland 1995 in Vienna Austria 1997 in Budapest Hungary 1998 in Gothenburg Sweden 1999 in Pori Finland 2000 in Copenhagen Denmark 2001 in Limerick Ireland 2002 in Nuremberg Germany 2003 in Graz Austria 2004 in Trondheim Norway and 2005 in Budapest Hungary EuroSPI has established an experience library EuroSPI net which will be continuously extended over the next years and will be made available to all tenders EuroSPI has also initiated a European Qualification Network in which different SPINs and national initiatives join mutually beneficial collaborations EQN EU Leonardo da Vinci network project With a founding conference on 5-12 2006 through EuroSPI partners and networks in collaboration with the European Union supported by the EU Leonardo da Vinci Programme a European certification association will be created for the IT and services sector to offer SPI knowledge and certificates to industry establishing close knowledge transfer links between research and industry The biggest value of EuroSPI lies in its function as a European knowledge and experience exchange mechanism for SPI know-how between research institutions and industry September 2006 Richard Messnarz www.eurospi.net Organization Committee EuroSPI 2006 is organized by the EuroSPI partnership www.eurospi.net Trading Places--SMEs in the Global Economy Lester Lloyd-Reason, Leigh Sear, 2007-01-01 There are 18 contributions in the book all of whom are very highly regarded in the fields of entrepreneurship and international management the book is well researched and edited The book provides an excellent discussion on the importance of SMEs in the global economy Through a number of different case study examples and discussion of various elements of the internationalization process this book provides an outstanding resource for the study of SMEs that operate in the international market Vanessa Ratten Journal of International Entrepreneurship This book is most timely It arrives at a time when globalisation and new technologies present major opportunities and challenges to the role of the independent small and medium sized business in economies The book's strength in dealing with many of the emerging issues is underpinned by a truly international range of contributors with a strong mix of practical as well as academic experience From the preface by Allan Gibb Professor Emeritus Durham University UK Lester Lloyd Reason and Leigh Sear bring together leading researchers and thinkers in this critical guide to the ongoing worldwide research shaping the role played by SMEs within today's global economy The expert contributors contend that the past twenty years have seen an explosion in research into international SMEs resulting in a considerable body of academic literature and thinking This research they argue may merely serve to increase our lack of understanding in this area and often results in myths and misconceptions upon which SME policies and support programmes have been developed and introduced They go on to suggest that academic models are often poorly suited to the problems faced by SMEs within the international trading environment In many instances the contributors find SMEs at the vanguard of the challenge to accepted business practices it is these challenges that underpin the text Illustrating that today's SMEs are faced with the critical issue of how to create and maintain a sustainable competitive advantage in light of the increased complexity of international trade and global business linkages this Handbook will prove invaluable to both academics and practitioners involved in business and management and entrepreneurship Im/Tb Multinational Management Cullen, Parboteeah, 2007-02-01
