My Vertical World Climbing The 8000 Metre Peaks Hardcover:

My Vertical World Jerzy Kukuczka, 1992 My Vertical World is the story of a quiet family man from Silesia who was also a single minded schemer sailing close to the bureaucratic wind in Poland as well as Pakistan and Nepal painting factory chimneys and thinking of Lhotse juggling for most of the time with meagre hard currency scarce food and indifferent gear to achieve the starting point western climbers took for granted Slow to acclimatise once he had done Kukuczka's stamina and drive were formidable Preferring where possible to climb alpine style with one companion among his more remarkable achievements are his solo ascent of a new route on Makalu a first traverse of the North and Middle Summits of Broad Peak climbing two 8000 metre peaks over 3000 kilometres apart in winter within twenty five days and making a new route up the middle of the South Face of K2 as a two man team His narrative takes the reader behind the catalogue of achievements to discover a diffident man anxious for his good name sobered by loss of friends who can still view the antics of the international climbing circus with good humour and climbed because his passion for his vertical world was an enveloping as it was infectious Summit Magazine, 1993 Climbing, 1988 No Shortcuts to the Top Ed Viesturs, David Roberts, 2007-11-27 NATIONAL BESTSELLER This gripping and triumphant memoir from the author of The Mountain follows a living legend of extreme mountaineering as he makes his assault on history one 8 000 meter summit at a time From the drama of the peaks to the struggle of making a living as a professional climber to the basic how tos of life at 26 000 feet No Shortcuts to the Top is fascinating reading Aron Ralston author of Between a Rock and a Hard Place and subject of the film 127 Hours For eighteen years Ed Viesturs pursued climbing's holy grail to stand atop the world's fourteen 8 000 meter peaks without the aid of bottled oxygen But No Shortcuts to the Top is as much about the man who would become the first American to achieve that goal as it is about his stunning quest As Viesturs recounts the stories of his most harrowing climbs he reveals a man torn between the flat safe world he and his loved ones share and the majestic and deadly places where only he can go A preternaturally cautious climber who once turned back 300 feet from the top of Everest but who would not shrink from a peak Annapurna known to claim the life of one climber for every two who reached its summit Viesturs lives by an unyielding motto Reaching the summit is optional Getting down is mandatory It is with this philosophy that he vividly describes fatal errors in judgment made by his fellow climbers as well as a few of his own close calls and gallant rescues And for the first time he details his own pivotal and heroic role in the 1996 Everest disaster made famous in Jon Krakauer's Into Thin Air In addition to the raw excitement of Viesturs's odyssey No Shortcuts to the Top is leavened with many funny moments revealing the camaraderie between climbers It is more than the first full account of one of the staggering accomplishments of our time it is a portrait of a brave and devoted family man and his beliefs that shaped this most perilous and magnificent pursuit 8000 Metres Alan Hinkes, 2013 In this book renowned British mountaineer Alan Hinkes relates his experiences of climbing all 14 of the peaks over 8000m the world's highest mountains Alongside stunning photography he describes his expeditions many as Alpine style ascents capturing the beauty harshness and danger of these mountains

Winter 8000 Bernadette McDonald,2020-09-03 He appeared without a word in the tent's entrance covered in ice He looked like anyone would after spending over twenty four hours in a hurricane at over 8 000 metres In winter In the Karakoram He was so exhausted he couldn't speak Of all the games mountaineers play on the world's high mountains the hardest and cruellest is climbing the fourteen peaks over 8 000 metres in the bitter cold of winter Ferocious winds that can pick you up and throw you down freezing temperatures that burn your lungs and numb your bones weeks of psychological torment in dark isolation these are adventures for those with an iron will and a ruthless determination For the first time award winning author Bernadette McDonald tells the story of how Poland's ice warriors made winter their own perfecting what they dubbed the art of suffering as they fought their way to the summit of Everest in the winter of 1980 the first 8 000 metre peak they climbed this way but by no means their last She reveals what it was that inspired the Poles to take up this brutal game how increasing numbers of climbers from other nations were inspired to enter the arena and how competition intensified as each remaining peak finally submitted to leave just one awaiting a winter ascent the meanest of them all K2 Winter 8000 is the story of true adventure at its most demanding No Shortcuts to the Top Ed Viesturs,David

Roberts,2008-05-22 A veteran mountaineer recalls some of his most harrowing and dangerous climbs as he pursues the goal of reaching the summit of the world's fourteen 8 000 meter peaks detailing his dedication to the philosophy that getting to the top is optional getting down is mandatory while discussing some of his own close calls rescues and errors in judgment on the part of fellow climbers Reprint 40 000 first printing Mountains in My Heart Gerlinde Kaltenbrunner,2014-05-21 First woman and only the fourth climber ever to summit all fourteen 8 000 meter peaks without supplemental oxygen or high altitude porters Though the two climbers are friends Kaltenbrunner's path to high places has been very different from Edurne Pasaban's record breaking feat Positive uplifting account of a remarkable athlete Effusive charismatic tough Gerlinde Kaltenbrunner is one of the world's most successful high altitude mountaineers and the first woman to climb all fourteen 8 000 meter peaks without supplemental oxygen and she also eschews high altitude porters Mountains in My Heart covers her early years learning to climb in Austria her personal life her training as an oncology nurse and her ever present passion for mountains especially the Himalaya Her love of being in the mountains shines through in her writing For Gerlinde the important thing was not the race to be the first woman to climb the 8 000 meter peaks but rather to experience the mountains and climb them in her self sufficient style Self sufficiency did not however mean climbing without her husband Ralf Dujmovits in 2009 Lhotse became her twelfth and his fourteenth 8 000 meter peak Kaltenbrunner shares the challenges dangers and euphoria of her high altitude climbs detailing medical emergencies and her own feelings about being high in the mountains Her writing is honest captivating and unrestrained To the Top!
