Nawal El Saadawi:

The Nawal El Saadawi Reader Nawāl Sa'dāwī, 1997-09 This collection portrays the intellectual and political development of an extraordinary thinker who explores a host of topics including women's oppression under recent interpretations of Islam and the subversive potential of creativity

A Daughter of Isis Nawāl Sa'dāwī, 1999 Nawal El Saadawi has been pilloried censored imprisoned and exiled for her refusal to accept the oppressions imposed on women by gender and class In her life and in her writings this struggle against sexual discrimination has always been linked to a struggle against all forms of oppression religious racial colonial and neo colonial In 1969 she published her first work of non fiction Women and Sex in 1972 her writings and her struggles led to her dismissal from her job From then on there was no respite imprisonment under Sadat in 1981 was the culmination of the long war she had fought for Egyptian women's social and intellectual freedom A Daughter of Isis is the autobiography of this extraordinary woman Walking Through Fire

Nawal El Saadawi, 2002-04 Famous for her novels short stories and writings on women Saadawi is known as the first Arab woman to write about sex and its relation to economics and politics Imprisoned under Sadat for her opinions she has continued to fight against all forms of discrimination based on class gender nation race or religion In In a Daughter of Isis she painted a portrait of the childhood that moulded her into a novelist and fighter for freedom and the rights of women This autobiography takes up the story of her extraordinary life

The Hidden Face of Eve Nawal El Saadawi, Nawāl Sa'dāwī, 2007-06 This powerful account of the oppression of women in the Muslim world remains as shocking today as when it was first published more than a quarter of a century ago Nawal El Saadawi writes out of a powerful sense of the violence and injustice which permeated her society Her experiences working as a doctor in villages around Egypt witnessing prostitution honour killings and sexual abuse including female circumcision drove her to give voice to this suffering She goes on to explore the causes of the situation through a discussion of the historical role of Arab women in religion and literature Saadawi argues that the veil polygamy and legal inequality are incompatible with the essence of Islam or any human faith This edition complete with a new foreword lays claim to The Hidden Face of Eve's status as a classic of modern Arab writing

Walking through Fire Nawal El Saadawi, 2013-04-04 In A Daughter of Isis Nawal El Saadawi painted a beautifully textured portrait of the childhood that moulded her into a novelist and fearless campaigner for freedom and the rights of women Walking through Fire takes up the story of her extraordinary life Famous for her novels short stories and writings on women Saadawi is known as the first Arab woman to have written about sex and its relation to economics and politics Imprisoned under Sadat for her opinions she has continued to fight against all forms of discrimination based on class gender nationality race or religion This autobiography shows the passion for justice that has shaped her life and her writing We read about her as a rural doctor trying to help a young girl escape from a terrible fate imposed on her by a brutal male tyranny We follow her attempts to set up women's organizations and to publish magazines later banned by the authorities or endangered by fundamentalist threats We travel with her into exile after the publication of her name on a death list We witness her first marriage to a freedom fighter hounded into drug addiction by a system that has no mercy We share her struggle against her false self and a second husband who offers her financial security and comfort provided she stops writing We live the beautiful moments of her third marriage with a man released after fourteen years of imprisonment and hard labour their love companionship and shared struggle Nawal El Saadawi has carved a place for herself in the universal struggle against oppression Words should not seek to please to hide the wounds in our bodies or the shameful moments in our lives she says They may hurt give us pain but they can also provoke us to question what we have accepted for thousands of years The Essential Nawal El Saadawi Nawal El Saadawi, 2013-07-04 The writings of Nawal El Saadawi are essential to anyone wishing to understand the contemporary Arab world Her dissident voice has stayed as consistent in its critique of neo imperialist international politics as it has in its denunciation of women s oppression both in her native Egypt and in the wider world Saadawi is a figure of international significance and her work has a central place in Arabic history and culture of the last half century Featuring work never before translated into English The Essential Nawal El Saadawi gathers together a wide range of Saadawi s writing From novellas and short stories to essays on politics culture religion and sex from extensive interviews to her work as a dramatist from poetry to autobiography this book is essential for anyone wishing to gain a sense of the breadth of Saadawi s work Two Women in One Nawal El Saadawi, 2014-06-28 Bahiah Shaheen an eighteen year old medical student and the daughter of a prominent Egyptian public official finds the male students in her class coarse and alien Her father too seems to belong to a race apart Frustrated by her hard working well behaved middle class public persona her meeting with a stranger at a gallery one day sparks her journey of self discovery and of the realisation that fulfilment in life is indeed possible A Daughter of Isis Nawal El Saadawi, 2009-09-15 Against the white sand the contours of my father s body were well defined emphasized its existence in a world where everything was liquid where the blue of the sea melted into the blue of the sky with nothing between This independent existence was to become the outer world the world of my father of land country religion language moral codes It was to become the world around me A world made of male bodies in which my female body lived Nawal El Saadawi has been pilloried censored imprisoned and exiled for her refusal to accept the oppressions imposed on women by gender and class For her writing and action have been inseparable and this is reflected in some of the most evocative and disturbing novels ever written about Arab women Born in a small Egyptian village in 1931 she eluded the grasp of suitors before whom her family displayed her when she was still ten years old and went on to qualify as a medical doctor In 1969 she published her first work of non fiction Women and Sex in 1972 she was dismissed from her profession because of her political activism From then on there was no respite imprisonment under Sadat in 1981 was the culmination of the long struggle she had waged for Egyptian women s social and intellectual freedom in 1992 her name appeared on a death list issued by a fundamentalist group after which she went into exile for five years Since then she has devoted her time to writing novels and essays and to her activities as a worldwide speaker on women's issues A Daughter of Isis is the autobiography of this extraordinary woman. In it she paints a sensuously textured portrait of the childhood that produced the freedom fighter. We see how she moulded her own creative power into a weapon; how from an early age the use of words became an act of rebellion against injustice. Men, Women, and Gods Fedwa Malti-Douglas, 2024-06-12 Men, Women, and Gods is a pioneering study of the Arab world's leading feminist and most controversial woman writer Nawal El Saadawi. Author of plays, memoirs and such novels as Woman at Point Zero and The Innocence of the Devil, El Saadawi has become well known in the West as well as in the Arab community for her unforgettable female heroes and explosive narratives which boldly address sexual violence, female circumcision, theology and other politically charged themes. Her outspoken feminism and critique of patriarchy have also earned her the wrath of repressive forces in the Middle East. Imprisoned in her native Egypt under Sadat, El Saadawi is now among those on the death lists of Islamic religious conservatives. In Men, Women, and Gods Fedwa Malti-Douglas makes the work of this important but little understood writer truly accessible. Contending that El Saadawi's texts cannot be read in isolation from their Islamic and Arabic heritage, Malti-Douglas draws upon a deep knowledge of classical and modern Arabic textual traditions and on extensive conversations with Nawal El Saadawi to place the writer within her cultural and historical context. With this impassioned and radical exegesis of El Saadawi's prolific output, Malti-Douglas has written a crucial study of one of the most controversial and influential writers of our time. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1995. The Dramatic Literature of Nawal El Saadawi Nawal

El-Saadawi, 2012-02-27 Nawal El Saadawi's most recent play God Resigns at the Summit Meeting created an uproar in her native Egypt. On the basis of the title alone, officials declared the work heretical and charged El Saadawi with insulting the Almighty God, not just Islam. Her prosecutors requested that all her books be destroyed, that she be arrested on return to Egypt, and her Egyptian nationality be revoked. In the play, the prophets and great women gather for a meeting with God. Satan arrives to tender his resignation, but neither Jesus nor Mohammad nor Moses are willing to replace him. Finally, God himself resigns. The second play in this collection is Isis, a critique of the discriminatory rules that control women, the daughters of Isis. Both God Resigns and Isis incorporate key themes to El Saadawi's work: that all religions are inimical to women and the poor; that the oppression of women is reprehensible and not uniquely characteristic of the Middle East or the Third World; and that free speech is fundamental to any society. The Nawal El Saadawi Reader Nawāl Sa'dāwī, 1997

Zeina Nawal El-Saadawi, 2011-08-16 Bodour, a distinguished literary critic, carries with her a dark secret. As a young university student, she fell in love with a political activist and gave birth to an illegitimate daughter, Zeina, whom she abandoned on the streets of Cairo Zeina grows up to become one of Egypt's most beloved entertainers despite being deprived of a family name and a home Bodour in turn remains trapped in a loveless marriage pining for her daughter and lost love In an attempt to find solace she writes a fictionalised account of her life which then mysteriously gets stolen Set against the backdrop of revolution in Cairo Zeina is a tale about regret loss and the courage it takes for a mother to face up to the mistakes of her past

The Fall of the Imam Nawal El Saadawi, 2020-01-18 Bint Allah knows herself only as the Daughter of God Born in a stifling male dominated state ruled by the Imam and his coterie of ministers she dreams of one day reaching the top of a distant hill visible through the bars of the orphanage window But Bint Allah's ambitions do not escape the attention of the Imam who never feels secure no matter how well he protects himself When the Imam falsely accuses Bint Allah of adultery and sentences her to death by stoning he is not prepared for what happens next A postmodern fantasia this powerful and poetic novel is a call to arms against those who use religion as a weapon against women

The Fall of the Imam Nawāl Sa'dāwī, 2002 This powerful and poetic novel by Egypt's most interesting feminist Booklist raises awareness of the predicament of women in Egypt The book tells the story of Bint Allah a beautiful illegitimate girl whose father is the Imam the religious ruler in Islamic society believed to be representative of God Bint Allah is falsely accused by the Imam of adulterous relationships then sentenced to death by stoning It is through the eyes of Bint Allah that one can see the underlying hypocrisy of a male dominated religious state

The Hidden Face of Eve Nawal El Saadawi, 2016-02-15 This powerful non fiction account of the oppression of women in the Muslim world remains as shocking today as when it was first published more than a quarter of a century ago Nawal El Saadawi writes out of a powerful sense of the violence and injustice which permeated her society Her experiences working as a doctor in villages around Egypt witnessing prostitution honour killings and sexual abuse including female circumcision drove her to give voice to this suffering She goes on to explore the causes of the situation through a discussion of the historical role of Arab women in religion and literature Saadawi argues that the veil polygamy and legal inequality are incompatible with the essence of Islam or any human faith The Hidden Face of Eve remains a classic of modern Arab writing
