The Dairy Sector of India ,2006 South Asia's Transition from Agrarian to Industrialized Economy Kazuo Tomozawa,Koichi Fujita,2024-12-23 This book analyses the transition of South Asian nations from agrarian to industrialized economies which is accompanied by a widening gap between agricultural and non agricultural growth rates and a greater income disparity between farmers and urban residents The chapters contributed by experts in the field analyze various issues in the transitional process of economic development in South Asia by focusing mainly on India s agricultural adjustment problem and the issues concerning industrial sectors The book deals first with challenges related to the farmers struggles including traders and processors and how they can adapt to the more sophisticated market demand for their products emerging mainly in urban areas or even abroad It then focuses on the developments in the non agricultural sector introducing a global value chain GVC perspective It finally analyses trends in labor migration and labor markets closely linked to the agricultural and non agricultural sectors This book is a valuable addition to the field of Development Economics and South Asian Economics Export Potential of Indian Organic Produce ,2006 Advances in Communication Research to Reduce Childhood Obesity Jerome D. Williams,Keryn E Pasch,Chiquita A. Collins,2013-02-12 Rates of childhood obesity are alarmingly high and increasing each year Studies have shown that obese children are more likely to become obese adults and are likely to suffer with numerous health consequences like coronary heart disease high blood pressure and Type II diabetes among others Studies also indicate that television viewing and exposure to advertising for food products influences children s attitudes toward food preferences and food purchase requests for foods with low nutritional value It is important to better understand the role of media in childhood obesity and to learn how media may be used to address this issue in a positive way This book focuses on communication and media research that can have an impact on reducing childhood obesity Emphasis is placed on topics related to how the media communicate health related messages about food nutrition and diet that influence childhood obesity Particular emphasis is on the new media given the fact that media now have more central roles in socializing today s children and youth than ever before Advertising and marketing messages reach young consumers through a variety of vehicles broadcast and cable television radio magazines computers through the Internet music cell phones and in many different venues homes schools child care settings grocery stores shopping malls theaters sporting events and even airports In addition given the disparity in obesity rates between children of color and the general population special attention is given to research on media targeting these populations Applied Markets , Financial Management Practices in India Sandeep Goel,2016-01-22 Efficient financial management is the essence of business This book analyses and evaluates core financial management practices of corporate enterprises in India across diverse sectors including realty FMCG pharmaceutical automobile IT chemical and BPO sectors It emphasizes the importance of the integrated process of capital investments financing policy working capital management and dividend distribution for shareholders for a developing economy as India It further highlights the need for financial viability both in totality and segmental performance The volume also offers a comparative study of the practices of the companies in different sectors to allow a better appreciation of the issues and challenges regarding management of finances Rich in case studies this book will be an indispensable resource for scholars teachers and students of financial management business economics as also corporate practitioners Case Studies in Marketing Kanwal Nayan Kapil,2011 Economics of the Food Processing Industry Debdatta Saha,2020-03-14 This book presents a wealth of perspectives on studying the manufacturing end of food processing industries with a special focus on regions with a low industrial base and multiple missing markets institutional finance being the most prominent example Positioning food processing within the industrial ecosystem which includes entrepreneurs policymakers business consultants and associations the study first considers three different trajectories for developed economies for national territories like India and for sub national regions like Bihar In turn it shows how these trajectories intertwine in two dimensions the region and the sub sector Successfully completing food processing projects in any of these trajectories requires the identification and development of appropriate product networks that link basic processed items with advanced ones through a chain of value addition Moreover the supply side narrative presented here identifies two types of costs physical and non physical costs of operation For trajectories with skewed firm sizes missing middle and missing markets which can be found in Bihar the latter costs matter just as much as the former in terms of entrepreneurship While efficiency in operations is studied for selected sub sectors in Bihar s food processing to assess the main sources of inefficiency in minimizing the physical costs of operations non physical costs are studied using the construct of region based counterfactual thinking rCFT and its relationship with the perception of risk for entrepreneurs rCFT offers a new concept for understanding the mindset of the entrepreneur in which the regional identity plays a significant role The empirical content is based on a primary survey of food processing in Bihar Additional policy questions such as the choice between spatial collocation of food parks or cluster based development of unique sub sectors are explored through an analysis of the policy network that supports entrepreneurship Issues arising from the government s policy choices particularly vertically targeted industrial policies can influence industrial outcomes and are particularly relevant for regions like Bihar While policy evaluation for Bihar s processed food industry yields insights on policy targeting for decision makers in the government examples of parallel narratives from global experiences in comparable regions shed new light on industrial development in processed food which should be of interest to business practitioners academic researchers and policymakers alike Outlook ,2003 Case Studies in Marketing Management S. Ramesh Kumar,2012 Case Studies in Marketing Sidharth Balakrishna,2011 Highly readable and up to date this casebook provides marketing students with the opportunity to gain valuable experience in case analysis through active participation and discussions This book is a collection of twelve cases drawn from different sectors like FMCG automobiles and petroleum Sustainability Development through Green Economics Sanjay Taneja,Pawan

Kumar,Reepu,Balamurugan Balusamy,Kiran Sood,Simon Grima,2024-09-04 This volume examines sustainable finance green tourism green marketing as a tributary towards sustainable development The multidisciplinary chapters traverse the power of economic as well as financial policy green investment green insurance as well as green infrastructural development to ensure sustainable development Company Profiles: Nestle India Ltd , Nestlé India Limited P.
