Us Part Mahāśvetā Debī, 2001 Five elderly women and men in their lives husbands lovers sons and friends All living in the margins of society ageing enduring struggling to make two ends meet These touching tales with their humour delicacy and warmth are each centred on a woman character There is Kuli Talaq who finds herself unexpectedly divorced in the heat of a quarrel but decides to defy societal taboos with her ex husband companion of many years Mohini lonely after her sons leave home vows that since her husband objects to her verbosity she will henceforth talk only to the crows and cranes The Saga of Kagaboga Kamal The Poet s Wife discovers how harsh the indifference of today s world can be while Anandi He said Pani moans the sudden loss of her only friend and the simple pleasures of their companionship even as insensitive forces question her links with the old man Finally there is the ageing actress Kusum Love Story who after a lifetime of devotion to her lover finds herself alone and questioning what it was all about This volume spanning over three decades of writing shows an unusually tender side to Mahasweta Devi widely known for her satiric prose and biting indictment of societal inequalities Mahasweta Devi is one of India s foremost writers Her powerful fiction has won her recognition in the form of the Sahitya Akademi 1979 Jnanpith 1996 and Ramon Magsaysay 1996 awards the title of Officier del Ordre Des Arts Et Des Lettres 2003 and the Nonino Prize 2005 amongst several other literary honours She was also awarded the Padmasree in 1986 for her activist work among dispossessed tribal communities Vikram Iyengar currently engaged in research in performance studies is also a Kathak dancer He is based in Calcutta Discussing Indian Women Writers Alessandro Monti, Rajinder Kumar Dhawan, 2002 The Main Objective Of The Book Is To Discuss The Theoretical Investigations Carried Out By Indian Women Writers In Their Works And To Arrive At A Deeper Understanding Of Feminist Contentions Old Women Mahāśvetā Debī, 1999 The two stories in this collection Statue Murti and The Fairy Tale of Mohanpur Mohanpurer Rupkatha are touching poignant tales in both of which the protagonists are old women In the first a tragic for bidden love returns to haunt Dulah now an old woman pre occupied only with filling her stomach and surviving from day to day In the second Andi loses her eyes through a combination of poverty societal indifference and governmental apathy even as she persists in her belief in fairy tale solutions Mahasweta Devi is at her most tender in her sensitive delicately drawn portraits of these two old women although her trenchant pen is as ruthless as ever in delineating the socio economic oppression within which they are forced to survive Though extremely readable as moving stories for the fiction lover they also yield layers of deeper significance upon closer reading As translator Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak says Here in this text you ll find what Kamala Visweswaran has called women as subaltern the first story and subaltern women the second In my way of reading there is here a solid critique of nationalism as an end in itself and a loving critique of how male gendered nationalism can solve a young man s crisis and of course a very strong critique of the failure of decolonization in the second story The realization that as time passes for a woman the ideology of love remains a memory but acknowledges defeat in the hands of hunger is an exquisite aporia in the first story almost between species life and species being And in the second the extraordinary resourcefulness of this village community of women and the guileless courage and simplicity of Andi her relationship with her eldest daughter in law and so on are again a responsible narrative that offers a critique no less powerful than a merely reasonable one How tellingly Devi outlines the limits of mere goodwill Indeed I m always amazed by the theoretical delicacy of Mahasweta s stories The aporias between gendering on the one hand feudal transitional and subaltern and the ideology of national liberation as tragedy and as face are also worth contemplating Mahasweta Devi is one of India s foremost writers Her powerful satiric fiction has won her recognition in the form of Sahitya Akademi 1979 Jnanpith 1996 and Ramon Magsaysay 1996 awards the title of Officier del Ordre Des Arts Et Des Lettres 2003 and the Nonino Prize 2005 amongst several other literary honours She was also awarded the Padmasree in 1986 for her activist work among dispossessed tribal communities Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak translator critic and scholar is Avalon Foundation Professor in the Humanities Department Columbia University She is well known for her translations from French and Bengali into English
