Movies And Meaning An Introduction To Film Sixth Edition:

Filming the Everyday Paul G. Pickowicz, Yingjin Zhang, 2016-12-15 This cutting edge book examines the rapidly developing scene of Chinese independent documentary arguably the most courageous player in contemporary Chinese visual culture The authors explore two areas that are of special interest to China studies and film studies respectively 1 filming the everyday in twenty first century China to foreground contestation and diversity and 2 exploring the aesthetic of remembering in an embodied documentary practice which turns the gaze on artists themselves and encourages the viewer's engagement with the filmed subjects and environment Highlighting documentary contestation in China the book traces its cacophony of expressions some of it featuring confrontations with domineering elites some of it highlighting negotiations among the independent filmmakers themselves Their goal is not a movement that seeks to establish and impose a single truth but rather a creative dynamic that fosters a community of tolerance and respects diverse forms of expression Independent documentary is quite literally a moving target that is witnessing ongoing and widening diversity and complexity when it comes to directors themes aesthetics human subjects audiences and impact The authors stress the enormous potential of cultural production that features non elites including amateurs and that dwells on the everyday the bottom up the grassroots the seemingly mundane and the apparently marginal The book's emphasis on contemporary issues and its discussion of aesthetic experiments will appeal to all readers interested in China's culture media politics and society

Looking at Movies

Richard Meran Barsam, Dave Monahan, 2019 Building on students enthusiasm for movies this text is more successful than any other at motivating students to understand and analyze film In the new Sixth Edition author Dave Monahan has thoroughly revised the book for clarity and currency while adding new interactive learning tools to support student learning From product description

Multimodal Film Analysis John Bateman, Karl-Heinrich Schmidt, 2013-06-17 This book presents a new basis for the empirical analysis of film Starting from an established body of work in film theory the authors show how a close incorporation of the current state of the art in multimodal theory including accounts of the syntagmatic and paradigmatic axes of organisation discourse semantics and advanced layout structure builds a methodology by which concrete details of film sequences drive mechanisms for constructing filmic discourse structures The book introduces the necessary background the open questions raised and the method by which analysis can proceed step by step Extensive examples are given from a broad range of films With this new analytic tool set the reader will approach the study of film organisation with new levels of detail and probe more deeply into the fundamental question of the discipline just how is it that films reliably communicate meaning

Secular Steeples 2nd Edition Conrad Ostwalt, 2012-11-29 The Scandinavian Nordic countries of Denmark Norway Sweden and Finland experienced the effects of the German invasion in April 1940 in very different ways Collaboration resistance and co belligerency were only some of the short term consequences Each country's historiography has undergone enormous changes in the seventy years since the invasion and this collection by leading historians examines the immediate effects of Hitler's aggression as well as the long term legacies for each country's self image and national identity The Scandinavian countries war experience fundamentally changed how each nation functioned in the post war world by altering political structures the dynamics of their societies the inter relationships between the countries and the popular view of the wartime political and social responses to totalitarian threats Hitler was no respecter of the rights of the Scandinavian nations but he and his associates dealt surprisingly differently with each of them In the post war period this has caused problems of interpretation for political and cultural historians alike Drawing on the latest research this volume will be a welcome addition to the comparative histories of Scandinavia and the Second World War Film - An International

Movies and Meaning Stephen Prince, 1997 This book is designed to give students an in depth introduction to the motion picture medium Virtually everyone reading the book knows about the pleasure that movies can offer the ways they can thrill amuse sadden and excite the emotions Religion and Film Stefanie Knauss, 2020-01-29 Is cinema evil or sacramental Can films make theological contributions Can film viewing be a religious practice How do films values and power interact The study of film and religion engages a range of diverse questions through different approaches and methods In this contribution I distinguish three complementary approaches In the first part I discuss those that focus on the film as text the representation of religion in film and how theology happens in film The next section will broaden this perspective by taking into consideration how films affect audiences and how the relationship between film and audience might have religious dimensions or serve religious functions In the third part attention to the text and the audience are combined with the consideration of both film and religion as agents in cultural processes in order to think about how film and religion are shaped by and shape value systems and ideologies In the last section I will begin to tackle the difficult question of theory and method I consciously postpone this part until the end because in many cases methodologies and theoretical frameworks are implied in and emerge from concrete case studies rather than being consciously reflected upon This final section has two goals it will make explicit some of these underlying assumptions to serve as a starting point for a more sustained reflection on the theories and methodologies of the field and it will highlight some of the pitfalls we encounter if we are not methodologically and theoretically precise in our work Spectra, 1997 Deep Focus (Engaging Culture) Robert K. Johnston, Craig Detweiler, Kutter Callaway, 2019-03-19 Three media experts guide the Christian moviegoer into a theological conversation with movies in this up to date readable introduction to Christian theology and film Building on the success of Robert Johnston's Reel Spirituality the leading textbook in the field for the past 17 years Deep Focus helps film lovers not only watch movies critically and theologically but also see beneath the surface of their moving images The book discusses a wide variety of classic and contemporary films and is illustrated with film stills from favorite movies ICCoLLiC 2020
