Munich Personal Repec Archive Uni Muenchen:

The Nobel Factor Avner Offer, Gabriel Söderberg, 2019-11-19 Economic theory may be speculative but its impact is powerful and real Since the 1970s it has been closely associated with a sweeping change around the world the market turn This is what Avner Offer and Gabriel Soderberg call the rise of market liberalism a movement that seeking to replace social democracy holds up buying and selling as the norm for human relations and society Our confidence in markets comes from economics and our confidence in economics is underpinned by the Nobel Prize in Economics which was first awarded in 1969 Was it a coincidence that the market turn and the prize began at the same time The Nobel Factor the first book to describe the origins and power of the most important prize in economics explores this and related questions by examining the history of the prize the history of economics since the prize began and the simultaneous struggle between market liberals and social democrats in Sweden Europe and the United States The Nobel Factor tells how the prize created by the Swedish central bank emerged from a conflict between central bank orthodoxy and social democracy The aim was to use the halo of the Nobel brand to enhance central bank authority and the prestige of market friendly economics in order to influence the future of Sweden and the rest of the developed world And this strategy has worked with sometimes disastrous results for societies striving to cope with the requirements of economic theory and deregulated markets The Political Life of Memory

Rahul Ranjan, 2023-05-11 Situating Birsa Munda as the canon the book demonstrates how political parties and civil societies mobilise and reproduce his memory Theorizing Shadow Education and Academic Success in East Asia Young Chun Kim, Jung-Hoon Jung, 2021-07-12 This volume tackles perceived myths surrounding the academic excellence of East Asian students and moves beyond Western understanding to offer in depth analysis of the crucial role that shadow education plays in students academic success Featuring a broad range of contributions from countries including Japan China Taiwan and Singapore chapters draw on rich qualitative research to place in the foreground the lived experiences of students teachers and parents in East Asian countries In doing so the text provides indigenous insights into the uses values and meanings of shadow education and highlights unknown cultural and regional aspects as well as related phenomena including trans boundary learning culture nomadic learning individualized learning and the post schooling era Ultimately challenging the previously dominating Western perspective on shadow education the volume offers innovative theorization to highlight shadow education as a phenomenon which cannot be overlooked in broader discussion of East Asian educational performance systems and policy Offering pioneering insights into the growing phenomenon of shadow education this text will benefit researchers academics and educators with an interest in international and comparative education curriculum studies and East Asian educational practices and policy Those interested in the sociology of education and educational policy will also benefit from this book The Brand and Its History Patricio Sáiz, Rafael Castro, 2022-03-16 This book delves into the origins and evolution of trademark and branding practices in a wide range of geographical areas and periods providing key knowledge for academics professionals and general audiences on the complex world of brands The volume compiles the work of twenty five prominent worldwide scholars studying the origins and evolution of trademarks and branding practices from medieval times to present days and from distinct European countries to the USA New Zealand Canada Latin America and the Soviet Union The first part of the book provides new insights on pre modern craft marks on the emergence of trademark legal regimes during the nineteenth century and on the evolution of trademark and business strategies in distinct regions sectors and contexts As industrialisation and globalisation spread during the twentieth century trademarking led to modern branding and international marketing a process driven by new economic but also cultural factors The second part of the book explores the cultural side of the brand and offers challenging studies on how luxury fashion culture associations and the consolidation of national identities played a key role in nowadays branding This edited volume will not only be of great value to scholars students and policymakers interested in trademark branding research but to marketing and legal practitioners as well aiming to delve into the origins of modern brand strategies The chapters in this book were originally published as two special issues of the journal Business History IIMA - Economic Sutra Satish Y. Deodhar,2024-02-26 A general perception exists that ancient Indian literature on economic matters is fatalistic and an admixture of sacred and secular thoughts Economic Sutra provides a comprehensive perspective on the elements of Indian economic thought leading up to and after the Arthashastra Economic Sutra is a perception correction initiative to distil the Indian mind in the realm of economic thoughts and behaviour as brought out by the ancient Indian authors It highlights the broader spread of economic ideas both prior to and sometime after Kautilya giving insights into the purpose actions and vision of our forefathers The Future of US Global Power S. Brown,2012-12-14 Dispelling the myth of decline Stuart Brown argues that the US continues to enjoy the economic political cultural and military underpinnings befitting a pre eminent global power He provides an analytical tour through the major domestic and foreign policy issues that will impact the United States future position and role in the global system Shocking Contrasts Ronald L. Rogowski,2023-08-17 In the fourteenth century the Black Death killed as much as two thirds of Europe s population in the fifteenth the introduction of moveable type printing rapidly expanded Europe s supply of human capital between 1850 and 1914 Russia s population almost tripled and in World War I the British blockade starved some 800 000 Germans Each of these Shocking Contrasts argues amounted to an unanticipated shock positive or negative to the supply of a crucial factor of production and elicited one of four main responses factor substitution factor movement to a different sector or region technological innovation or political action sometimes extending to coercion at home or conquest abroad This book examines parsimonious models of factor returns relative costs and technological innovation It offers a framework for understanding the role of supply shocks in major political conflicts and argues that its implications extend far beyond these specific cases to any period of human history Measuring Regional Authority Liesbet Hooghe,Gary Marks,Arjan H. Schakel,Sandra Chapman Osterkatz,Sara Niedzwiecki,Sarah Shair-Rosenfield,2016-01-28 This is the first of five ambitious volumes theorizing the structure of governance above and below the central state This book is written for those interested in the character causes and consequences of governance within the state and for social scientists who take measurement seriously The book sets out a measure of regional authority for 81 countries in North America Europe Latin America Asia and the Pacific from 1950 to 2010 Subnational authority is exercised by individual regions and this measure is the first that takes individual regions as the unit of analysis On the premise that transparency is a fundamental virtue in measurement the authors chart a new path in laying out their theoretical conceptual and scoring decisions before the reader The book also provides summaries of regional governance in 81 countries for scholars and students alike

Transformations in Governance is a major new academic book series from Oxford University Press It is designed to accommodate the impressive growth of research in comparative politics international relations public policy federalism environmental and urban studies concerned with the dispersion of authority from central states up to supranational institutions down to subnational governments and side ways to public private networks It brings together work that significantly advances our understanding of the organization causes and consequences of multilevel and complex governance The series is selective containing annually a small number of books of exceptionally high quality by leading and emerging scholars The series targets mainly single authored or co authored work but it is pluralistic in terms of disciplinary specialization research design method and geographical scope Case studies as well as comparative studies historical as well as contemporary studies and studies with a national regional or international focus are all central to its aims Authors use qualitative quantitative formal modeling or mixed methods A trade mark of the books is that they combine scholarly rigour with readable prose and an attractive production style The series is edited by Liesbet Hooghe and Gary Marks of the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and the VU Amsterdam and Walter Mattli of the University of Oxford
