Never Meant To Survive Genocide And Utopias In Black Diaspora Communities:

Never Meant to Survive Joao H. Costa Vargas, 2008-02-08 Never Meant to Survive presents a historical political and social assessment of anti black genocide and liberatory struggles that arose to resist it Based on fine grained accounts of community life at the street level Costa Vargas s work presents crucial examples of political resistance and community activism By examining two cities linked by common experiences of Blackness Los Angeles and Rio de Janeiro this book identifies a prevailing genocidal force that organizes individuals and groups across society The 1965 and 1992 riots in Los Angeles the work of the Black Panther Party and favela activists in Brazil and police brutality in struggles between black communities and the state in both L A and Rio de Janeiro all figure importantly in Costa Vargas s compelling account What emerges from this analysis is a call for the destruction of the conditions that foster the marginalization of black communities and a halt to the internal conflicts between black social groups themselves

Never Meant to Survive Joao H. Costa Vargas, 2010-01-16 Never Meant to Survive presents a historical political and social assessment of anti black genocide and liberatory struggles that arose to resist it Based on fine grained accounts of community life at the street level Costa Vargas s work presents crucial examples of political resistance and community activism By examining two cities linked by common experiences of Blackness Los Angeles and Rio de Janeiro this book identifies a prevailing genocidal force that organizes individuals and groups across society The 1965 and 1992 riots in Los Angeles the work of the Black Panther Party and favela activists in Brazil and police brutality in struggles between black communities and the state in both L A and Rio de Janeiro all figure importantly in Costa Vargas s compelling account What emerges from this analysis is a call for the destruction of the conditions that foster the marginalization of black communities and a halt to the internal conflicts between black social groups themselves

Hemispheric Blackness and the Exigencies of Accountability Jennifer

Gomez Menjivar, Hector Nicolas Ramos Flores, 2022-12-20 Hemispheric Blackness and the Exigencies of Accountability examines the way Afrodescendant and Black communities use the land on which they live the rule of law and their bodies to assert their historical ontological and physical presence across South Central and North America Their demand for the recognition of ancestral lands responsive policies and human rights sheds new light on their permanent yet tenuous presence throughout the region The authors argue that by deploying a discourse of transcontinental historical continuity Black communities assert their presence in local national and international political spheres This conceptualization of hemispheric Blackness is the driving force confronting the historical loss dismissal and disparagement of Black lives across the Americas Through twelve case studies that cover a wide range of locations their work examines contemporary manifestations of sovereignty of Black body and mind Black Indigenous nexuses and national revisions that challenge more than a quincentennial of denial and state unaccountability in the hemisphere

Logics of Genocide Anne O'Byrne, Martin Shuster, 2020-05-27 This book is concerned with the connection between the formal structure of agency and the formal structure of genocide The contributors employ philosophical approaches to explore the idea of genocidal violence as a structural element in the world Do mechanisms or structures in nation states produce types of national citizens that are more susceptible to genocidal projects There are powerful arguments within philosophy that in order to be the subjects of our own lives we must constitute ourselves specifically as national subjects and organize ourselves into nation states Additionally there are other genocidal structures of human society that spill beyond historically limited episodes The chapters in this volume address the significance moral ethical political of the fact that our very form of agency suggests or requires these structures The contributors touch on topics including birthright citizenship contemporary mass incarceration anti black racism and late capitalism Logics of Genocide will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in philosophy critical theory genocide studies Holocaust and Jewish studies history and anthropology

Seeking the Beloved Community Joy James, 2013-05-09 Written over the course of twenty years the essays brought together here highlight and analyze tensions confronted by writers scholars activists politicians and political prisoners fighting racism and sexism Focusing on the experiences of black women calling attention to and resisting social injustice the astonishing scale of mass and politically driven imprisonment in the United States and issues relating to government and civic powers in American democracy Joy James gives voice to people and ideas persistently left outside mainstream progressive discourse those advocating for the radical steps necessary to acknowledge and remedy structural injustice and violence rather than merely reforming those existing structures

The Nation and Its Peoples John Park, Shannon Gleeson, 2014-02-03 With this volume The University of California Center for New Racial Studies inaugurates a new book series with Routledge Focusing on the shifting and contradictory meaning of race The Nation and Its Peoples underscores the persistence of structural discrimination and the ways in which race has formally disappeared in the law and yet remains one of the most powerful underlying unacknowledged and often unspoken aspects of debates about citizenship about membership and national belonging within immigration politics and policy This collection of original essays also emphasizes the need for race scholars to be more attentive to the processes and consequences of migration across multiple boundaries as surely there is no place that can stay fixed racially or otherwise when so many people have been moving This book is ideal as required reading in courses as well as a vital new resource for researchers throughout the social sciences Antiracist Counseling in Schools and Communities Cheryl Holcomb-McCoy, 2021-11-30 This book builds on social justice and multicultural counseling research and operationalizes what counselors need to know and do to combat systemic racism Readers will learn how to define an antiracist approach to their work and behavior proactively address racial incidents in schools create college and career readiness systems for students of color and apply antiracist perspectives to K 12 counseling practice counselor professional development school family community partnerships counselor training programs and counseling supervision Practical appendixes include a professional development tool for critical self reflection and an antiracist syllabus review protocol Requests for digital versions from ACA can be found on www.wiley.com To purchase print copies please visit the ACA website Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to publications@counseling.org Active Intolerance Perry Zurn, Andrew Dilts, 2016-01-26 This book is an interdisciplinary collection of essays on Le Groupe d'information sur les prisons The Prisons Information Group or GIP The GIP was a radical activist group extant between 1970 and 1973 in which Michel Foucault was heavily involved It aimed to facilitate the circulation of information about living conditions in French prisons and over time it catalyzed several revolts and instigated minor reforms In Foucault's words the GIP sought to identify what was intolerable about the prison system and then to produce an active intolerance of that same intolerable reality To do this the GIP gave prisoners the floor so as to hear from them about what to resist and how The essays collected here explore the GIP's resources both for Foucault studies and for prison activism today Border-lines, 2012 Border Lines is an interdisciplinary academic journal dedicated to the dissemination of research on Chicana o Latina o cultural political and social issues
