The background of the entire cover is a composite image. The top half shows a deep blue night sky filled with stars and a faint, glowing nebula. The bottom half shows a dark, silhouetted landscape of jagged mountains or hills. In the foreground, a person stands on a dark, reflective surface, possibly water or a wet beach, looking out towards a bright, glowing horizontal line on the horizon that illuminates the scene.

The Link ,1997 The Grace of Christ Eric Roessing, 2016-07-29 Martin Luther and other Reformers were instruments in Gods hand to recover the gospel in the Holy Scriptures Nevertheless it is an irony that along with the gospel there was still law in the sense of law as rule of life in the teaching of the Reformers On the issue of the law even Luther was not as consistent as was Paul the apostle In The Grace of Christ the saving righteousness of God which justifies the ungodly in Christ and frees us from trusting in our righteousness is given its central place as it is in the gospel of God Rom 1 1ff At the same time the new creation in Christ is also given its rightful due Following the apostles teaching in terms of what Paul means by both justification and new creation in Christ The Grace of Christ like no other book shows that both of these realities exclude any idea of the law of Moses as the rule of life for those in Christ Paul is not an antinomian The new creation in Christ is our rule Gal 6 15 16 Roessing does not base his position on only this one text but rather shows how Paul consistently teaches this truth in many places and ways even though the flesh rejects it And Roessing is not alone in this view he is close to that of Gerhard O Forde and even closer to that of Wolfhart Pannenberg But this issue of the believers rule is just one of the aspects of grace covered in The Grace of Christ For those who want to learn something of the depth of the things freely given us by God The Grace of Christ the law in light of the Gospel sets forth those things so that the spiritually hungry will want to behold the grace of God in Christ as he is set forth in these pages and to return again for more
