Dr Tommy J Curry:

Our Black Sons Matter George Yancy, Maria del Guadalupe Davidson, Susan Hadley, 2016-10-17 Our Black Sons Matter is a powerful collection of original essays letters and poems that addresses both the deep joys and the very real challenges of raising black boys today From Trayvon Martin to Tamir Rice the list of young black men who have suffered racial violence continues to grow Young black people also deal with profound stereotypes and structural barriers And yet young black men are often paradoxically revered as icons of cultural cool Our Black Sons Matter features contributions from women across the racial spectrum who are raising or have raised black sons whether biologically their sons or not The book courageously addresses painful trauma challenges assumptions and offers insights and hope through the deep bonds between mothers and their children Both a collective testimony and a collective love letter Our Black Sons Matter sends the message that black lives matter and speaks with the universal love of all mothers who fear for the lives of their children Contributions by Jacki Lynn Baynks Shelly Bell Deborah Binkley Jackson Meta G Carstarphen LaMar Delandro Gretchen Givens Generett Jane Anna Gordon Farah Jasmine Griffin Maria del Guadalupe Davidson Susan Hadley Carol E Henderson Dawn Herd Clark Elisheba Johnson Heather Johnson Newtona Tina Johnson Jane Lazarre Sara Lomax Reese Tracey McCants Lewis Nicole McJamerson Michele Moody Adams Elisha Oliver Blanche Radford Curry Autumn Redcross Tracey Reed Armant Noliwe Rooks T Denean Sharpley Whiting Treasure Shields Redmond Sharyn Skeeter Becky Thompson Linda D Tomlinson Dyan Watson Veronica T Watson Regina Sims Wright Karsonya Wise Whitehead and George Yancy Critical Psychology Praxis Robert Beshara, 2021-02-25 This collection of chapters advances critical psychology by incorporating praxis theory and practice and decolonial streams of thought They are united around a theme of psychosocial non alignment to modernity coloniality Bringing together a transdisciplinary range of authors from around the world this edited volume weaves together a spectrum of complex arguments and perspectives to lay the foundations for bridging the Global North South divide in critical psychology through solidarity and dialogue The book s central argument is to emphasize praxis and transdisciplinarity over disciplinary fundamentalism Psychology is only a starting point and not the end goal of critique in this book incidentally some of the authors are not even psychologists Instead the book draws on decolonial theoretical resources such as Chican Studies Black Male Studies and Critical Pedagogy to complement traditional theoretical resources like psychoanalysis Marxism poststructuralism and feminism This groundbreaking text is suitable for scholars and upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students studying critical discourse the psychology and philosophy of post coloniality conceptual and historical issues in psychology as well as anthropology and sociology courses engaging with action research African Americans in Higher Education James L. Conyers, Crystal L. Edwards, Kevin B. Thompson, 2020-07-17 While there is a wealth of scholarship on Africana Education no single volume has examined the roles of such important topics as Black Male Identity Hip Hop Culture Adult Learners Leadership at Historically Black Colleges and Universities Critical Black Pedagogy among others This book critically examines African Americans in higher education with an emphasis on the social and philosophical foundations of Africana culture This is a critical interdisciplinary study one which explores the collection interpretation and analysis of quantitative and qualitative data in the field of higher education To date there are not any single authored or edited collections that attempt to research the logical and conceptual ideas of the disciplinary matrix of Africana social and philosophical foundations of African Americans in higher education Therefore this volume provides readers with a compilation of literary historical philosophical and communicative essays that describe and evaluate the Black experience from an Afrocentric perspective for the first time It is required reading in a wide range of African American Studies courses Perfect for courses such as African American Social and Philosophical Foundations African American Studies African Nationalist Thought History of Black Education Nannie Helen Burroughs Nannie Helen Burroughs, 2019-05-31 This volume brings together the writings of Nannie Helen Burroughs an educator civil rights activist and leading voice in the African American community during the first half of the twentieth century Nannie Helen Burroughs 1879 1961 is just one of the many African American intellectuals whose work has long been excluded from the literary canon In her time Burroughs was a celebrated African American or in her era a race woman female activist educator and intellectual This book represents a landmark contribution to the African American intellectual historical project by allowing readers to experience Burroughs in her own words This anthology of her works written between 1900 and 1959 encapsulates Burroughs s work as a theologian philosopher activist educator intellectual and evangelist as well as the myriad of ways that her career resisted definition Burroughs rubbed elbows with such African American historical icons as W E B DuBois Booker T Washington Anna Julia Cooper Mary Church Terrell and Mary McLeod Bethune and these interactions represent much of the existing easily available literature on Burroughs s life This book aims to spark a conversation surrounding Burroughs s life and work by making available her own tracts on God sin the intersections of church and society black womanhood education and social justice Moreover the volume is an important piece of the growing movement toward excavating African American intellectual and philosophical thought and reformulating the literary canon to bring a diverse array of voices to the table

Reimagining Black Masculinities Mark C. Hopson, Mika'il Petin, 2020-10-14 Reimagining Black Masculinities Race Gender and Public Space addresses how Black masculinities are created negotiated and contested in public spaces focusing on how theory meets praxis when mobilizing for social change Contributors disentangle complexities of the Black experience and reimagine the radical progressive work required for societal health and wellbeing forming a mental picture of what the world has the potential to be without excluding current realities for Black boys and men civic manhood maleness and the fluidity of masculinities These realities are acknowledged and interrogated across private and public contexts media education occupation and theoretical perspectives This book encourages readers to reenvision social identity as an ongoing phenomenon asserting that collective vision informs action and collective action informs possibilities for peace and freedom in the world around us Scholars of communication gender studies and race studies will find this book particularly interesting
