cultures and belonging in France Discretion Faiza Guene, 2022-05-31 Yamina Taleb is approaching her seventieth birthday These days she strives for a quiet life grateful to the country that hosts her and her adored family The closest she gets to drama is scooping revolutionary bargains in the form of plastic kitchenware gadgets But Yamina's children feel differently about life in Paris They don't always fit in and it hurts Omar wonders whether it's too late to change course as he watches the world pass him by from the driver's seat of his Uber His sisters are tired of having to prove themselves and their allegiance to a place that is at once home and not When the Talebs go away together on holiday not to the motherland but to a villa with pool rental near the Atlantic coast they come to realise just how strongly family defines our sense of belonging Moving between Algeria and Paris Discretion touchingly evokes the realities of a first and second generation family as they carve out a future for themselves in France finding one another as they go along Engaging the Diaspora Pauline Ada Uwakweh, Jerono P. Rotich, Comfort O. Okpala, 2013-10-29 By its focus on the African immigrant family Engaging the Diaspora Migration and African Families carves its own niche on the migration discourse It brings together the experiences of African immigrant families as defined by various transnational forces As an interdisciplinary text Engaging makes a handy reference for scholars and researchers in institutions of higher learning as well as for community service providers working on diversity issues It promotes knowledge about Africans in the Diaspora and the African continent through current and relevant case studies This book enhances learning on the contemporary factors that continue to shape African migrants

The School Story David Aitchison, 2022-02-04 The School Story Young Adult Narratives in the Age of Neoliberalism examines the work of contemporary writers filmmakers and critics who reflecting on the realm of school experience help to shape dominant ideas of school The creations discussed are mostly stories for children and young adults David Aitchison looks at serious novels for teens including Laurie Halse Anderson's Speak and Faiza Guene's Kiffe Kiffe Tomorrow the light hearted middle grade fiction of Andrew Clements and Tommy Greenwald and Malala Yousafzai's autobiography for young readers I Am Malala He also responds to stories that take young people as their primary subjects in such novels as Sapphire's Push and films including Battle Royale and Cooties Though ranging widely in their accounts of young life such stories betray a mounting sense of crisis in education around the world especially in terms of equity the extent to which students from diverse backgrounds have fair chances of receiving quality education and empowerment the extent to which diverse students are encouraged to gain strength confidence and selfhood as learners Drawing particular attention to the influence of neoliberal initiatives on school experience this book considers what it means when learning and success are measured more and more by entrepreneurship competitive individualism and marketplace gains Attentive to the ways in which power structures institutional routines school spaces and social relations operate in the contemporary school story The School Story offers provocative insights into a genre that speaks profoundly to the increasingly precarious position of education in the twenty first century Rethinking the French Classroom E. Nicole Meyer, Joyce Johnston, 2018-12-13 This volume
