The Consequences Of Modernity By Anthony Giddens:

The Consequences of Modernity Anthony Giddens, 2013-04-25 In this major theoretical statement the author offers a new and provocative interpretation of the institutional transformations associated with modernity We do not as yet he argues live in a post modern world Rather the distinctive characteristics of our major social institutions in the closing period of the twentieth century express the emergence of a period of high modernity in which prior trends are radicalised rather than undermined A post modern social universe may eventually come into being but this as yet lies on the other side of the forms of social and cultural organization which currently dominate world history In developing an account of the nature of modernity Giddens concentrates upon analyzing the intersections between trust and risk and security and danger in the modern world Both the trust mechanisms associated with modernity and the distinctive risk profile it produces he argues are distinctively different from those characteristic of pre modern social orders This book build upon the author s previous theoretical writings and will be of fundamental interest to anyone concerned with Giddens s overall project However the work covers issues which the author has not previously analyzed and extends the scope of his work into areas of pressing practical concern This book will be essential reading for second year undergraduates and above in sociology politics philosophy and cultural studies

The Consequences of Modernity Anthony Giddens, 1999 Modernity and Self-Identity Anthony Giddens, 2013-04-30 This major study develops a new account of modernity and its relation to the self Building upon the ideas set out in The Consequences of Modernity Giddens argues that high or late modernity is a post traditional order characterised by a developed institutional reflexivity In the current period the globalising tendencies of modern institutions are accompanied by a transformation of day to day social life having profound implications for personal activities The self becomes a reflexive project sustained through a revisable narrative of self identity The reflexive project of the self the author seeks to show is a form of control or mastery which parallels the overall orientation of modern institutions towards colonising the future Yet it also helps promote tendencies which place that orientation radically in question and which provide the substance of a new political agenda for late modernity In this book Giddens concerns himself with themes he has often been accused of unduly neglecting including especially the psychology of self and self identity The volumes are a decisive step in the development of his thinking and will be essential reading for students and professionals in the areas of social and political theory sociology human geography and social psychology

An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion Inger Furseth, Pål Repstad, 2006-01-01 An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion provides an overview of sociological theories of contemporary religious life Some chapters are organized according to topic Others offer brief presentations of classical and contemporary sociologists from Karl Marx to Zygmunt Bauman and their perspectives on social life including religion Throughout the book illustrations and examples are taken from several religious traditions

Terrains of Consciousness Zeno Ackermann, Isabel Karremann, Simi Malhotra, Nishat Zaidi, 2021-10-01 TERRAINS OF CONSCIOUSNESS emerges from an Indian German Swiss research collaboration The book makes a case for a phenomenology of globalization that pays attention to locally situated socioeconomic terrains everyday practices and cultures of knowledge This is exemplified in relation to three topics the tension between terrain and territory in Defoe's Robinson Crusoe as a pioneering work of the globalist mentality chapter 1 the relationship between established conceptions of feminism and the concrete struggles of women in India since the 19th century chapter 2 the exploration of urban space and urban life in writings on India's capital from Ahmed Ali to Arundhati Roy chapter 3

A Theoretical Discussion of Globalization Esther Kemmer, 2011-03-26 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject Sociology Economy and Industry grade 7.0 Maastricht University language English abstract Globalization is a term so frequently used that one tends to assume that everyone knows what globalization stands for In one way this is true since everybody pictures something different when using the word globalization The aim of this paper is to clarify the term globalization by discussing different authors Yet the paper does not aim at giving THE definition of globalization rather it is attempting to show the different ways globalization can and is to be seen Since there has been a massive amount of theoretical discussion of the term globalization one needs to narrow down the field Thus this paper is mainly going to focus on the cultural dimension of globalization with a small outlook to other fields Through the direct comparison of different authors certain shortcomings or advantages of their views might be easier noticed as it would be the case when studying the authors separate from each other At the same time certain similarities or build ups of theories can be detected as well Following authors have been discussed Anthony Giddens Roland Robertson Doreen Massey Arjun Appadurai Jan Nederveen Pieterse and Manuel Castells

The Killing of History Keith Windschuttle, 1994 Telos, 1999 Overlapping Territories Bambang Sugiharto, Roy Voragen, 2011-05-25 The post Cold War situation has given way to a new and unprecedented constellation of global interrelations The power constellation today is not only multi polar but rather chaotic its configuration keeps shifting and it is determined not simply by new emerging super powers but also by any seemingly small events in non linear modes of interaction The interdependency between communities somehow makes significant changes unpredictable Such an interdependent yet chaotic world order in turn raises new philosophical questions Identity culture and civilization cannot be understood anymore simply in terms of traditional categories These categories are called into question through mutual interrogation and mutual enlargement of horizons and this inevitably entails hybridization and pluralization The Asian voices included in this book speak of recognition of and respect for the otherness the other outside as well as inside The writers mostly see globalization as well as their own cultural positions through dialogical imagination in which a Western philosophical framework is deployed to find out their Asian positions and the reverse the Asian reality is used to problematize the Western framework Thereby this book attempts to shed light on the question of how we are to understand culture and civilization

The Way of the (modern) World, Or, Why It's Tempting to Live as If God Doesn't Exist Craig M. Gay, 1998 Does God really matter for today's Christians Craig Gay addresses this issue

in his The Way of the Modern World Or Why It s Tempting to Live As If God Doesn t Exist Gay takes a critical look at the modern world and exposes the foundational worldview of contemporary secular society and the ideas that undergird modern culture Gay shows how for Christians one of the most seductive temptations fostered by these ideas is the temptation toward practical atheism living as if God does not matter Practical atheism has become so attractive that even some Christian churches have embraced it In The Way of the Modern World Gay describes in detail the far reaching consequences of practical atheism and what it will eventually mean for Christians Yet Gay is not without hope for today s Christians Arguing for the eviction of certain modern ideas from our churches he shows that there is a biblically sound way to live in but not of the world

Historic Preservation & the Imagined West Judy Mattivi Morley,2006 She draws on extensive interviews city council proceedings and historic plats and photographs to construct a detailed picture of how these districts originally looked and were used how they were renovated and to what ends they were marketed

Planetary Modernisms Susan Stanford Friedman,2015-08-18 Drawing on a vast archive of world history anthropology geography cultural theory postcolonial studies gender studies literature and art Susan Stanford Friedman recasts modernity as a networked circulating and recurrent phenomenon producing multiple aesthetic innovations across millennia Considering cosmopolitan as well as nomadic and oceanic worlds she radically revises the scope of modernist critique and opens the practice to more integrated study Friedman moves from large scale instances of pre 1500 modernities such as Tang Dynasty China and the Mongol Empire to small scale instances of modernisms including the poetry of Du Fu and Kabir and Abbasid ceramic art She maps the interconnected modernisms of the long twentieth century pairing Joseph Conrad with Tayeb Salih E M Forster with Arundhati Roy Virginia Woolf with the Tagores and Aim C saire with Theresa Hak Kyung Cha She reads postcolonial works from Sudan and India and engages with the idea of N gritude Rejecting the modernist concepts of marginality othering and major minor Friedman instead favors rupture mobility speed networks and divergence elevating the agencies and creative capacities of all cultures not only in the past and present but also in the century to come

Figurations of Modernity V. J. H. Houben,Mona Schrempf,2008 Conventional wisdom holds that globalization has made the world more modern not less But how has modernity been conceived of in colonial postcolonial and post revolutionary worlds In Figurations of Modernity an international team of scholars probe how non European worlds have become modern ones from the perspective of a broad range of societies around the globe From vocational education in Argentina to secular morality in Tibet from the construction of heroes in Central Asia to historical memory in Nigeria this comprehensive volume reckons with the legacy of empire in a globalizing world Enhanced by the perspectives of historians anthropologists and scholars of comparative education

Figurations of Modernity will be an essential book for those studying post colonial nations across disciplines Modernity and Postmodernity in a Franco-Irish Context Eamon Maher, Grace Neville, Eugene O'Brien, 2008 French writers and intellectuals were to the forefront when it came to theorizing the concepts of modernity and postmodernity and thus such a theme was considered appropriate for this the second volume in the Studies in Franco Irish Relations series The postmodern Irish socio cultural paradigm is interrogated through the lens of French thought What is equally interesting is that Irish contexts can also help shed light on the French situation as the processes of secularisation and multicultural diversity part of the French experience since the 1950s begin to take root in a society that has become one of the most globalised in the Western world The interchange and dialogue between the two cultures throws up a panoply of insights that have the capacity to be enriching for both societies Theories of International Relations: Contemporary reflexive approaches in international relations Stephen Chan, Cerwyn Moore, 2006 Comprises 80 articles representing the most influential theoretical writings by international relations scholars Introduced by an essay from Stephen Chan and Cerwyn Moore the four thematically organised volumes cover the major traditions of IR theory Together these four volumes provide broad coverage of the subject and historical depth Ariyavinaya in the Age of Extreme Modernism Vira Somboon, 2002 From Columbus to ConAgra Alessandro Bonanno, 1994 This examination of the role of agriculture and food in the new international division of labor argues that the globalized economy creates new winners and losers Language and Identity in Late Modernity Kerstin Lück, 2004 Asian Review, 1994
