Practice Made Perfect Marsha L. Heinke, 2014-05-14 Confessions of a Reformission Rev. Mark Driscoll, 2009-05-26 This is the story of the birth and growth of Seattle s innovative Mars Hill Church one of America s fastest growing churches located in one of America s toughest mission fields It s also the story of the growth of a pastor the mistakes he s made along the way and God s grace and work in spite of those mistakes Mark Driscoll s emerging missional church took a rocky road from its start in a hot upstairs youth room with gold shag carpet to its current weekly attendance of thousands With engaging humor humility and candor Driscoll shares the failures frustrations and just plain messiness of trying to build a church that is faithful to the gospel of Christ in a highly post Christian culture In the telling he s not afraid to skewer some sacred cows of traditional contemporary and emerging churches Each chapter discusses not only the hard lessons learned but also the principles and practices that worked and that can inform your church

s ministry no matter its present size The book includes discussion questions and appendix resources After reading a book like this you can never go back to being an inwardly focused church without a mission Even if you disagree with Mark about some of the things he says you cannot help but be convicted to the inner core about what it means to have a heart for those who don't know Jesus Dan Kimball author The Emerging Church will make you laugh cry and get mad school you shape you and mold you into the right kind of priorities to lead the church in today's messy world Robert Webber Northern Seminary

The Business and Practice of Coaching Wendy Allen, Lynn Grodzki, 2014-01-27 Building a thriving coaching business is a challenge An estimated 30 000 coaches have entered the coaching profession during the past five years Unfortunately the majority report they are unable to earn a living wage from their coaching services Competition is high and the knowledge of how to succeed in the business is often lacking To survive today coaches must match their enthusiasm with strong business and marketing expertise Lynn Grodzki and Wendy Allen are veteran business coaches who understand how to strategically approach the business and the practice of coaching as well as how to mentor new coaches entering the profession The Business and Practice of Coaching is the first text to combine a coaching approach step by step exercises direct suggestions insider's tips and motivational plans with solid business information and ideas in order to give new and experienced coaches exactly what they need to prosper in the competitive business of coaching Grodzki and Allen help coaches succeed by giving them the right information showing them how to develop an entrepreneurial mind set and demonstrating how to customize a business plan that can spell the difference between accomplishment and collapse Grodzki and Allen gives each reader the ability to Build a coaching business that has relevance to the larger community around it and be aligned with the new realities of the coaching profession Refine your coaching skill set to incorporate the five coaching competencies that signal to the public that you are a masterful coach Define your innate coaching specialty and target a profitable niche market so you can make a bigger impact as a coach Implement the eight best marketing strategies to attract coaching clients and know the marketing ideas that coaches do best to avoid Set and raise your fees the right way develop multiple streams of coaching income and build a six figure business that you can own and sell Institute risk management policies that ensure your practice is legally safe ethically sound and trouble free Covering all of the territory from positioning your coaching business differentiating it from the competition acquiring basic entrepreneurial skills and learning from profiles of master coaches The Business and Practice of Coaching offers a wealth of information and accessible yet expert guidance Readers will discover how to take advantage of current trends and avoid distracting hype within the quickly changing coaching profession so that the coaching business they build today will be viable tomorrow Peace Through Entrepreneurship Steven R. Koltai, 2016-08-30 Joblessness is the root cause of the global unrest threatening American security Fostering entrepreneurship is the remedy The combined weight of American diplomacy and military power cannot end unrest and extremism in the Middle East and other troubled regions of the world Steven Koltai argues Koltai says an alternative approach would work investing in entrepreneurship and reaping the benefits of the jobs created through entrepreneurial startups From 9 11 and the Arab Spring to the self proclaimed Islamic caliphate instability and terror breed where young people cannot find jobs Koltai marshals evidence to show that joblessness not religious or cultural conflict is the root cause of the unrest that vexes American foreign policy and threatens international security Drawing on Koltai s stint as senior adviser for Entrepreneurship in Secretary Hillary Clinton s State Department and his thirty year career as a successful entrepreneur and business executive Peace through Entrepreneurship argues for the significant elevation of entrepreneurship in the service of foreign policy not rural microfinance or mercantile trading but the scalable stuff of Silicon Valley and Sam Walton generating the vast majority of new jobs in economies large and small Peace through Entrepreneurship offers a nonmilitary long term solution at a time of disillusionment with Washington s big development approach to unstable and underdeveloped parts of the world and when the new normal is fear of terrorist attacks against Western targets beheadings in Syria and jihad Extremism will not be resolved by a war on terror The answer Koltai shows is stimulating entrepreneurial economic opportunities for the virtually limitless supply of desperate unemployed young men and women leading lives of endless economic frustration
