Around the World in Eighty Wines Mike Veseth, 2017-11-01. Inspired by Jules Verne's classic adventure tale, celebrated editor in chief of The Wine Economist Mike Veseth takes his readers Around the World in Eighty Wines. The journey starts in London, Phileas Fogg's home base, and follows Fogg's itinerary to France and Italy before veering off in search of compelling wine stories in Syria, Georgia and Lebanon. Every glass of wine tells a story, and so each of the eighty wines must tell an important tale. We head back across Northern Africa to Algeria, once the world's leading wine exporter, before hopping across the sea to Spain and Portugal. We follow Portuguese trade routes to Madeira and then South Africa, with a short detour to taste Kenya's most famous Pinot Noir. Really? The route loops around visiting Bali, Thailand and India before heading north to China to visit Shangri-La. Shangri-La. Does that even exist? It does, and there is wine there. Then it is off to Australia, with a detour in Tasmania, which is so cool that it is hot. The stars of the Southern Cross and the title of a familiar song guide us to New Zealand, Chile and Argentina. We ride a wine train in California and rendezvous with Planet Riesling in Seattle before getting into fast cars for a race across North America, collecting more wine as we go. Pause for lunch in Virginia to honor Thomas Jefferson, then it's time to jet back to London to tally our wines and see what we have learned. Why these particular places? What are the eighty wines, and what do they reveal? And what is the surprise plot twist that guarantees a happy ending for every wine lover? Come with us on a journey of discovery that will inspire, inform and entertain anyone who loves travel, adventure or wine.

A Story in Stones: Portugal's Influence on Culture and Architecture in the Highlands of Ethiopia 1493-1634 \(Updated & Revised 2nd Edition\) J. J. Hespeler-Boulton, 2011-04 This newly updated and revised second edition of A Story in Stones explores the relationship between Portugal and Ethiopia during the XVI and XVII centuries from the unique perspective of stonework. Through research and many years of working in the field, J. J. Hespeler Boulton examines the first early Renaissance links between the principal European superpower of the day and the ancient Christian empire of Ethiopia's Highlands, using contemporary architectural vestige as a catalyst for his findings. What began as Portugal's mission to discover an unknown world soon became a quest to find Prester John, the legendary Christian priest-king presumed to be living on the far side of Islam. In an attempt to form a Christian military alliance, the search was both concluded and in a manner initiated by explorer Pedro da Covilhã in 1493 with his overland journey to the Highland court of Emperor Eskandar. This was instrumental in setting up a string of ties between the two nations: diplomatic, military, religious, cultural, and most long-lasting of all, architectural. Almost three decades before Portugal's diplomatic mission of 1520, the fascinating story contained in the stones can yet be seen in the Portuguese and Gondarine ruins that dot the Gojjam and Lake Tana regions; they continue to influence today's Highland architectural design. Hespeler Boulton examines over thirty different sites, many of which are remote and rarely visited. Fully illustrated with colour photos and drawings.

About the Author J. J. Hespeler Boulton is an Art Architectural Historian and Associate of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies, Addis Ababa University. He lived for twenty-five years in Portugal during that time, making several forays into the Ethiopian Highlands on behalf of the Department of History and CIDEHUS (Centro de Investiga o e Desenvolvimento em Ci ncias Humanas e Sociais), the research and development institute at the University of Vila Rica. For the two-year period 2007-2009, he lived in and conducted research from Bahir Dar on Lake Tana, Ethiopia, during which time he found his historical conclusions were at considerable variance with colleagues in the History Department at Bahir Dar University. Disagreements, which have prompted the revisions leading to this current updated and revised edition of A Story in Stones.

Europa Julio MacLennan, 2018-07-03 European history is deeply embedded in the global civilization that has emerged in the twenty-first century. More than two-thirds of today's nations were once European colonies or protectorates. Europe's legacy is evident in the trajectory of the United States and has influenced aspiring hegemonic powers like China. For centuries, Europe was the heart and soul of the West, and European powers enjoyed unprecedented global hegemony not only by military and economic means but also through their influence on politics and culture. The rise and fall of the European era of world supremacy constitutes one of the most epic histories of all time. Europa reveals the origins of Europe's rapid expansion, which was then expanded upon further by millions of European migrants who spread their culture and values. MacLennan also reveals how statesmen, scientists, inventors, philosophers, writers, and revolutionaries were responsible for transforming the continent into a civilization that inspired universal attraction.
