Transfiguring Capitalism John Atherton, 2008 Addresses key problems in contemporary life and raises important questions about our growing awareness of the limits of contemporary ways of living with modern economies and modern religion This book explores possible alternatives to such capitalism The Logic of Love Andrew J. B. Cameron,2022-12-29 Overviewing what makes the intersection between emotion and ethics so confusing this book surveys an older wisdom in how to manage it using a range of Christian theologians and sources More important even than managing we begin to see a vision for a better set of affections to grow within and among us In this vision emerges a practical and nuanced account of what the Christian tradition sometime summarises as love How may we recover a deep affection for what matters both within ourselves and together in groups This book also dialogues with a new movement in moral psychology social intuitionism Cameron argues that researchers in this discipline have interests and conclusions that sometimes overlap with Christian sources even where their respective lenses differ In this way the book overviews recent trends in moral psychology against a recent historical and contemporary cultural backdrop whilst assaying major sources in Christian theology that offer guidance on moral psychology

The Seductiveness of Virtue John J. Fitzgerald,2016-12-15 John J Fitzgerald addresses here one of life s enduring questions how to achieve personal fulfillment and more specifically whether we can do so through ethical conduct He focuses on two significant twentieth century theologians Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel and Pope John Paul II seeing both as fitting dialogue partners given the former s influence on the Second Vatican Council s deliberations on the Jews and the latter s groundbreaking overtures to the Jews in the wake of his experiences in Poland before and during World War II Fitzgerald demonstrates that Heschel and John Paul II both suggest that doing good generally leads us to growth in various components of personal fulfillment such as happiness meaning in life and freedom from selfish desires There are however some key differences between the two theologians John Paul II emphasizes more strongly the relationship between acting well and attaining eternal life whereas Heschel wrestles more openly with the possibility that religious commitment ultimately involves anxiety and sadness By examining historical and contemporary analyses including the work of the Fourteenth Dalai Lama the philosopher Peter Singer and some present day psychologists Fitzgerald builds a narrative that shows the promise and limits of Heschel s and John Paul II s views Being the Person Your Dog Thinks You Are Jim Davies,2021-02-02 A crisp and sparkling blend of cognitive science and human behavior that offers meaningful and attainable pathways towards becoming our best selves Why do we feel like in order to be productive happy or good we must sacrifice everything else Is it possible to feel all three at once Without even knowing it we re doing things everyday to sabotage ourselves and our societies habits that prevent us from optimizing long term happiness Where most books imagine solutions that when enacted fail to fundamentally improve our lives Jim Davies grounds his research in cognitive science to show you not only what works but how much it works Being the Person Your Dog Thinks You Are shows us how we can use science to become our best selves using resources we already have within our own brains Davies s book challenges and inspires us to approach the big picture while also staying mindful of the everyday details in real life Davies proves why multitasking is bad for you when a little unmindfulness can be good for you how to best justify which charities to donate to and how to hack your brain The most surprising truth Davies offers us spreads across these pages like wildfire you too can lead an optimally good life not through uprooting your life from the ground up but from adapting your mentality to your given present A better life doesn't need to look like a massive change like our beloved dogs who already view us as our best selves it's already much closer than you think Testing Happiness Hypothesis Among the Elderly ,2007 Buying Happiness Christine Carter McLaughlin,2007
