Multilingual Processing in Eastern and Southern EU Languages Cristina Vertan, 2012-04-25 This volume draws attention to many specific challenges of multilingual processing within the European Union especially after the recent successive enlargement Most of the languages considered herein are not only less resourced in terms of processing tools and training data but also have features which are different from the well known international language pairs The 16 contributions address specific problems and solutions for languages from south eastern and central Europe in the context of multilingual communication translation and information retrieval

Observing Eurolects Laura Mori, 2018-12-15 Focusing on the multi faceted topic of Eurolects this volume brings together knowledge and methodologies from various disciplines including sociolinguistics legal linguistics corpus linguistics and translation studies The legislative varieties of eleven EU official and working languages Dutch English Finnish French German Greek Italian Latvian Maltese Polish Spanish are analyzed using corpus methodologies in order to investigate the variational dynamics and translation induced patterns of the different languages The underlying assumption is that within the sociolinguistic continua of the EU languages it is possible to single out specific legislative varieties Eurolects that originate at a supra national level This research hypothesis is strongly supported by the empirical findings derived from detailed corpus analyses of each language This work represents the first systematic and comprehensive linguistic research conducted on a wide range of EU languages using the same protocol and applying corpus methodologies to the extensive Eurolect Observatory Multilingual Corpus

Visualizing the Past in Italian Renaissance Art Jennifer Cochran Anderson, Douglas N. Dow, 2021-03-22 The essays in Visualizing the Past in Italian Renaissance Art address a foundational concept that was as central to early modern thinking as it is to our own that the past is always an important part of the present Written by the friends students and colleagues of Dr Brian Curran former professor of Art History at the Pennsylvania State University these authors demonstrate how reverberations of the past within the present are intrinsic to the ways in which we think about the history of art Examinations of sculpture painting and architecture reveal the myriad ways that history has been appropriated reinvented and rewritten as subsequent generations including the authors collected here have attained new insight into the past and present Contributors Denise Costanzo William E Wallace Theresa A Kutasz Christensen Ingrid Rowland Anthony Cutler Marilyn Aronberg Lavin Louis Alexander Waldman Elizabeth Petersen Cyron Stuart Lingo Jessica Boehman Katherine M Bentz Robin L Thomas and John Pinto

European Language Equality Georg Rehm, Andy Way, 2023-06-06 This open access book presents a comprehensive collection of the European Language Equality ELE project's results its strategic agenda and roadmap with key recommendations to the European Union on how to achieve digital language equality in Europe by 2030 The fabric of the EU linguistic landscape comprises 24 official languages and over 60 regional and minority languages However language barriers still hamper communication and the free flow of information Multilingualism is a key cultural cornerstone of Europe signifying what it means to be and to feel European Various studies and resolutions have found a striking imbalance in the support of Europe's languages through technologies issuing a call to action Following an introduction the book is divided into two parts The first part describes the state of the art of language technology and language centric AI and the definition and metrics developed to measure digital language equality It also presents the status quo in 2022 2023 i.e. the current level of technology support for over 30 European languages The second part describes plans and recommendations on how to bring about digital language equality in Europe by 2030 It includes chapters on the setup and results of the community consultation process four technical deep dives an overview of existing strategic documents and an abridged version of the strategic agenda and roadmap The recommendations have been prepared jointly with the European community in the fields of language technology natural language processing and language centric AI as well as with representatives of relevant initiatives and associations language communities and regional and minority language groups Ensuring appropriate technology support for all European languages will not only create jobs growth and opportunities in the digital single market Overcoming language barriers in the digital environment is also essential for an inclusive society and for providing unity in diversity for many years to come
