Integrating theories of language symbolism, language indexicality, LPLP habitus, banal nationalism, world system and perspectives of Critical Discourse Analysis, the book develops our understanding of the phenomenon and mechanism of the entanglement between language ideology and sociopolitical change in the Arabic-speaking world and beyond. Expanding the Linguistic Landscape Martin Pütz, Neele-Frederike Mundt, 2018-12-20 This book provides a forum for theoretical, methodological and empirical contributions to research on language's multimodality and public space, which will advance new ways of understanding the sociocultural, ideological and historical role of communication practices and experienced lives in a globalised world. Linguistic Landscape is viewed as a metaphor and expanded to include a wide variety of discursive modalities: imagery, non-verbal communication, silence, tactile and aural communication, graffiti, smell, etc. The chapters in this book cover a range of geographical locations and capture the history, motives, uses, causes, ideologies, communication practices and conflicts of diverse forms of languages as they may be observed in public spaces of the physical environment. The book is anchored in a variety of theories, methodologies and frameworks from economics, politics and sociology to linguistics and applied linguistics, literacy and education, cultural geography and human rights.

Multilingualism Sarah Buschfeld, Patricia Ronan, Manuela Vida-Mannl, 2023-11-25 This textbook takes a broad perspective on multilingualism using a sociolinguistics and acquisition-informed approach that treats multilingualism not solely as the mastery of two or more well-defined language systems but rather as a continuum of linguistic repertoires and resources to be used in different settings and combinations. The authors introduce traditional aspects of multilingualism, including historical dimensions, societal and individual multilingualism, aspects of identities, ideologies, education and language policies, before going on to examine newer manifestations such as multilingualism in migrant and refugee contexts, in new media, pop music and linguistic landscaping, as well as the notion of grassroots multilingualism.
