Searching for Words: How Can We Tell Our Stories of Suicide ,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 It is all too easy to begin the introduction of a book examining suicide by citing statistics on rates of death around the world The vast majority of research seeks to make sense of suicide through quantitative analysis however this does not begin to do justice to the lived experience While we do not wish to suggest there is one right lens through which to study suicide we must recognize that there are myriad lenses through which to examine it There are many voices many stories that must be heeded and these stories are not just of the people who have themselves died by suicide but also those who are or have been suicidal and those who have been bereaved by suicide By examining cultural perspectives different media memory and place as well as loss this book aims to tell stories of suicide and working and living with the suicidal

Scripting Suicide in Japan Kirsten Cather,2024-10-15 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Japan is a nation saddled with centuries of accumulated stereotypes and loaded assumptions about suicide Many pronouncements have been made about those who have died by their own hand without careful attention to the words of the dead themselves Drawing upon far ranging creations by famous twentieth and twenty first century Japanese writers and little known amateurs alike such as death poems suicide notes memorials suicide maps and manuals works of literature photography film and manga Kirsten Cather interrogates how suicide is scripted and to what end Entering the orbit of suicidal writers and readers with care she shows that through close readings these works can reveal fundamental beliefs about suicide and just as crucially about acts of writing These are not scripts set in stone but graven images and words nonetheless that serve to mourn the dead straddling two impulses to put the dead to rest and to keep them alive forever These words reach out to us to initiate a dialogue with the dead one that can reveal why it matters to write into and from the void

The Ghost of One's Self Paul Meehan, 2017-11-06 For millennia people have held folk beliefs about the existence of the doppelganger double walker in German a look alike second self that is often the antithesis of one's identity and is usually considered an omen of misfortune or death The theme of the double has inspired works by E T A Hoffmann Poe de Maupassant Dostoevsky and others and has been the basis for many classic mystery horror and science fiction movies This critical survey examines the double in more than 100 films by such acclaimed directors as Alfred Hitchcock Mario Bava Roger Corman David Cronenberg George Romero Fritz Lang James Cameron Robert Siodmak Don Siegel John Frankenheimer Terry Gilliam Brian De Palma and Roman Polanski

Pulse Points Jennifer Down, 2017-07-31 With precise and beautiful prose the short stories in Jennifer Down's Pulse Points carry an emotional clarity and intensity that is truly impressive Books Publishing The characters in Jennifer Down's Pulse Points live in small dusty towns glittering exotic cities and slow droll suburbs they are mourners survivors and perpetrators In the award winning Aokigahara a young woman travels to the sea of trees in Japan to say goodbye In Coarsegold a woman conducts an illicit affair while her recovering girlfriend works the overnight motel shift in the middle of nowhere In Dogs Foggo runs an unruly gang of bored cruel boys with a scent for fresh meat In Pressure Okay a middle aged man goes to the theatre gets a massage remembers his departed wife navigates the long game of grief with his adult daughter Jennifer Down whose first novel Our Magic Hour was commended in the 2017 Victorian Premier's Literary Award is a masterful stylist whose sharp eye has been compared to that of Helen Garner Pulse Points is a gutting collection that showcases her singular voice and reminds us once more that this is a writer of great talent Jennifer Down was born in 1990 Our Magic Hour was highly commended in the Victorian Premier's Literary Award Her writing has appeared in the Age Sydney Morning Herald Saturday Paper Australian Book Review Kill Your Darlings Lifted Brow Best Australian Stories and Blue Mesa Review She is one of Sydney Morning Herald's Young Novelists of the Year 2017 Jennifer Down is a subtly extraordinary writer and Pulse Points is one of the best Australian literary offerings we'll see this year Good Reading Pulse Points is fluid graceful and shocking Down serves life up ruthlessly to us in small heart wrenching packages overturning expectations swiftly from story to story but leaving us faintly uplifted in the end Overland This is a finely crafted collection that reminds us how sad and beautiful it is simply to be alive Down's debut novel Our Magic Hour was shortlisted for the NSW Premier's Award for New Writing and she was named a 2017 SMH Best Young Australian Novelist. It's probably insulting to comment upon how young she is but the emotional depth of her writing displays a gift that will no doubt continue to unfold as her body of work grows. Saturday Paper Taking the reader from Melbourne to the USA each beautifully crafted story is a fascinating escape into someone else's life. Sunday Life Down is exemplary at drawing whole characters and quickly giving them depth. Stories are heavy with atmosphere and words are chosen with care. She has a knack of talking honestly about the nature of contemporary life and I look forward to more. Sydney Morning Herald Pulse Points is an impressively poised and even collection. Down's stories are alive with psychological acuity and technical dexterity. They offer thoughtful, sometimes heartbreaking insights into our anxieties and desires. Readers of her intelligent, subtle and affecting prose clearly have much to look forward to. Australian Book Review Down's back with a collection of stories cementing her status as one of Australia's finest literary talents. Marie Claire Jennifer Down is going to be a major part of the future of Australian literature. The quality of her writing as well as her ability to tap into the loves, fears and anxieties many of us experience guarantee this. Readings All of the stories in this collection are examples of the extent to which empathy can be employed in fiction. Down looks at human emotion under a microscope in each of these stories but always does so with care and compassion. Readings Prize for New Australian Fiction 2018 Judges comments: This young Australian writer was named one of the Sydney Morning Herald's Best Young Australian Novelists of 2017. Here she shows off her impressive skill as a short story writer. Jennifer Down shows great insight into human vulnerability. Good Reading Best Fiction Books of 2017 Jennifer Down's Pulse Points is full of perfectly crafted miracles of storytelling. Kill Your Darlings Best of 2017 The stories are both paradigms and gentle subversions of the short story form. Down draws on the ordinary and everyday to deconstruct the myth of class mobility in this haunting and resonant collection. Judges comments 2018 Sydney Morning Herald Best Young Australian Novelists Down writes about love and friendship with an emotionally resonant sparseness. Rather than offering answers to life's big questions, the stories offer glimpses into people tackling them. A collection pulsing with emotion, a writer crackling with potential. Kirkus Reviews Japan: The Basics Christopher P. Hood, 2014-10-30 Japan The Basics is an engaging introduction to the culture, society and the global positioning of Japan. Taking a fresh look at stereotypes associated with Japan, it provides a well-rounded introduction to a constantly evolving country. It addresses such questions as: How do we go about studying Japan? What are the connections between popular culture and wider Japanese society? How are core values about identity formed and what are their implications? How does Japan react to natural and manmade disasters? How does nature influence Japanese attitudes to the environment? With exercises and discussion points throughout and suggestions for further reading, Japan The Basics is an ideal starting point for all those studying Japan in its global cultural context.
