Social Science in the Crucible Mark C. Smith, 1994 The 1920s and 30s were key decades for the history of American social science The success of such quantitative disciplines as economics and psychology during World War I forced social scientists to reexamine their methods and practices and to consider recasting their field as a more objective science separated from its historical foundation in social reform The debate that ensued fiercely conducted in books articles correspondence and even presidential addresses made its way into every aspect of social science thought of the period and is the subject of this book Mark C Smith first provides a historical overview of the controversy over the nature and future of the social sciences in early twentieth century America and then through a series of intellectual biographies offers an intensive study of the work and lives of major figures who participated in this debate Using an extensive range of materials from published sources to manuscript collections Smith examines objectivists economist Wesley Mitchell and political scientist Charles Merriam and the more purposive thinkers historian Charles Beard sociologist Robert Lynd and political scientist and neo Freudian Harold Lasswell He shows how the debate over objectivity and social purpose was central to their professional and personal lives as well as to an understanding of American social science between the two world wars These biographies bring to vivid life a contentious moment in American intellectual history and reveal its significance in the shaping of social science in this country English for Common Entrance 13+ Practice Book Kornel Kossuth,2014-07-25 This book of practice questions and mock exam papers gives students the practice they need as they prepare for the new ISEB Common Entrance in English 13 exam Reinforces the skills and knowledge students need to tackle exam questions with confidence Includes five complete mock exam papers that sharpen students exam technique Targets the essential skills students need to master in order to do well in the exam American Literature Beverly Ann Chin,McGraw-Hill Education,2001-10 Work ,1900 Arthur Miller's The Crucible Harold Bloom,2010 This series provides comprehensive reading and study guides for some of the world s most important literary masterpieces Each title features concise critical excerpts that provide a scholarly overview of each work The Story Behind the Story detailing the conditions under which the work was written and a biographical sketch of the author a descriptive list of characters an extensive summary and analysis and an annotated bibliography The Law Journal ,1910 Engineering and Mining Journal ,1902 Negotiating Identities Anders Runesson,Cecilia Wassén,Karin Hedner Zetterholm,Magnus Zetterholm,2022-10-03 Covering the period from 200 BCE to 600 CE this book describes important aspects of identity formation processes within early Judaism and Christianity and shows how negotiations involving issues of ethnicity stereotyping purity commensality and institution building contributed to the forming of group identities Over time some of these Jewish group identities evolved into non Jewish Christian identities others into a rabbinic Jewish identity while yet others remained somewhere in between The contributors to this volume trace these developments in archaeological remains as well as in texts from the Qumran movement the New Testament and the reception of Paul s writings rabbinic literature and apocryphal and pseudepigraphical writings such as the Book of Dreams and the Pseudo Clementine Homilies The long timespan covered in the volume together with the combined expertise of scholars from various fields make this book a unique contribution to research on group identity Jewish and Christian identity formation the Partings of the ways between Judaism and Christianity and interactions between Jews and Christians Platers' Guide ,1907
